

Leonard Bullock

Pendleton
December 20, 1939-April 1, 2017

Leonard Bullock, 77, of Pendleton, Oregon, passed away on April 1, 2017. Leonard was born on December 20, 1939 in Shreveport, Louisiana, to Viola (Blanton) and Jessie Bullock.

Leonard is preceded in death by his parents, brothers Floyd Bullock and Mac Bullock, and son Sandy Williams. He is survived by his wife of 17 years, Dorothy (Lambert) Bullock; brothers James Bullock and John Bullock; sister Lavern Crum; children Candy (Jeff) Hanson and James (Letha) Williams; multiple grandchildren, and 10 great-grandchildren.

Bullock

He grew up moving around the country with his four brothers and one sister. They eventually settled in Pendleton in 1955. Leonard worked for Simplot as a forklift operator for many years in Hermiston and also spent a lot of his working years as a handyman.

He was a Main Street Cowboy. He had a passion for animals, having four dogs at the time he passed. He also loved old cars, gardening and any yard work. Leonard was a long time member of the Bethel Assembly of God and spent many years as a bell ringer for the Salvation Army during the holiday season.

A public visitation will be held at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton on Friday, April 7th from 3-7 p.m. Funeral service is at Bethel Assembly of God on Saturday, April 8th at 2 p.m. Leonard Bullock will be laid to rest at Olney Cemetery.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements. Sign the online condolence at www.burnsmortuary.com.

Dolores Louise Olsen

Pendleton
April 16, 1924-April 3, 2017

Dolores Louise Olsen passed away on April 3, 2017, in Pendleton. She was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on April 16, 1924, to John Traas and Lousie M. Fischer Traas.

volksmarching, folk dancing and roller skating, along with playing pinocle and bunco, or any other game. She always attended the activities of her children and grandchildren.

Olsen

Dolores was raised in and around Milwaukee along with her three brothers. She graduated from North Division High School in 1942. As part of the war effort, she worked at Globe-Union testing airplane radar condensers.

She met the love of her life, Lester F. Olsen, while he was on naval school training in the area. After a whirlwind courtship of 14 days, they were engaged. They were married at the end of the war, on October 13, 1945, in Pendleton at Peace Lutheran Church. She and Lester were married 56 years prior to his death on April 8, 2002.

Dolores came west to the wilds of Eastern Oregon to live in Pendleton, the hometown of Lester. She worked for the city of Pendleton for a number of years, prior to the birth of their first child. She then became a homemaker, raising five children while living near Helix. After they became empty-nesters, she began work for ECOAC as a cook at the Senior Citizen Center, until retiring in 1989.

Lester and her family were the center of her life. She was a 4-H leader and Blue Bird leader for many years. She loved to sew, bake and scrapbook. She especially enjoyed traveling, Dolores was a life-long member of the Lutheran Church, being confirmed at the age of 13. She was a member of Peace Lutheran Church for 71 years, and had been active in many aspects of the church. Her church family was very important to her.

Her parents, husband Lester, four brothers and a sister predeceased her. She is survived by her children and their spouses: John and Marilyn Olsen, Marlene Tidwell, Jim and Kim Olsen, Marcia and Michael Flemmer, and Douglas and Mary Olsen. Also surviving are her grandchildren: Kelly, Erik, Paul, Colby, Adam, Rebecca, Jacob, Jason, Sarah and Elizabeth, 16 great-grandchildren, sister-in-law Nancy Traas, and numerous nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Thursday, April 6, 2017, at Peace Lutheran Church.

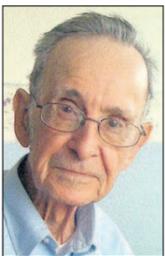

Donations in her memory may be made to the Peace Lutheran Church Memorial Fund, Umatilla County Historical Society, PAWS, or a charity of your choice.

Albert George 'Bud' Isensee

Connell, Wash.
August 4, 1924-March 23, 2017

Albert "Bud" George Isensee passed away peacefully at his home in Connell, Washington, at 2:22 p.m. on Thursday, March 23rd, 2017, with his daughter Charity and granddaughter Danielle by his side. He was 92 years young.

Isensee

Bud was born on August 4, 1924, in Ventura, California, to Bernard and Mayme (Laird) Isensee. His family moved to the Hermiston, Oregon, area in 1929.

Bud enlisted in the United States Army Air Corps in 1943 and proudly served his country as a tail gunner in a B-52 bomber. After World War II, Bud worked several different jobs. He was a Los Angeles County highway motorcycle officer, a photographer, a Richland, Washington, police officer, worked on the Columbia Basin Irrigation Project, Hanford Nuclear Plant, Umatilla Ordnance Depot and he eventually retired from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers at Chief Joseph Dam as a control room operator.

He married Cherie June Vincent in Winnemucca, Nevada, in 1950 and together they had five children. He lived the majority of his life in the Brewster and Bridgeport area, and most recently in Connell. Bud enjoyed tending his vegetable garden, watching Western movies, listening to audiobooks, observing the weather, going for drives and spending time with his animals and family. Bud's humor and storytelling will be dearly missed by family members and friends, and all who crossed his path.

Survivors include his children, Albert Joseph "Joe" (Hendrika) Isensee, Gregory Vincent "Greg" (Jody) Isensee, Charity Anne Isensee and Michael Noel "Mike" (Gen) Isensee; 14 grandchildren; and several loved great-grandchildren and a great-great-grandchild.

Bud was preceded in death by an infant daughter, Rosemarie, and his one true love Cherie June; two brothers, Bernard "Bernie" and Edwin "Eddie" Isensee; and two sisters, Alva "Boots" Hunt and Ida Mae "Perk" Rodda.

A celebration of life will be held on April 22nd at the Othello Senior Center in Othello, Washington, from 1-4 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Bud's name to the American Legion Columbia Post 97 in Brewster, Washington, or the Inland Northwest Honor Flight in Spokane, Washington.

Steve W. 'Hunk' Hunkapillar

Pendleton
March 17, 1949-April 1, 2017

Steve W. Hunkapillar (Hunk) died April 1, 2017, at his home following a long battle with kidney cancer.

He was born on St. Patrick's Day, March 17, 1949, to Chester T. (Chet) Hunkapillar Jr. and Patricia (Pat) Ward Hunkapillar, in Portland, Oregon. The family moved to Pendleton, and later to Athena where they purchased the "Dudley house" and Steve learned his love for renovating as the family remodeled the historic home.

Hunkapillar

Steve met his future wife Kay Daggett of Heppner at Blue Mt. Community College. They married September 27, 1969, and later had a son, Adam. Steve was well known in the local agriculture community for his knowledge of Caterpillar equipment parts. He retired from Western States (Cat) Equipment Co. in 2004, and then used his love of remodeling to buy and renovate homes for resale.

Steve loved the outdoors, and spent many hours passing on his passion of hunting and fishing to his son Adam and grandsons Coppin and Rylan. Steve was a member of the Pendleton City Club, Pendleton Country Club, Pendleton Elks Lodge and McNary Yacht Club, and made many friendships through those associations.

Steve is survived by his wife Kay in Pendleton; son Adam (Amy) and grandsons Coppin and Rylan, all of Kennewick, Wash.; brothers Bill Hunkapillar of Tahoe City, Calif., and Taum Sayers of Truckee, Calif.; sister Cyndi Miller (Randy) of Newport, Wash.; and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded by his parents.

A celebration of life will be held later in the spring. In lieu of flowers, if you choose, please remember Steve with donations to the Pendleton City Club or your favorite charity.

Peggy Naomi Hickey

Hermiston
April 7, 1937-March 31, 2017

Peggy Naomi Hickey was born on April 7, 1937, to Amos and Estelle Rose in Freeport, Texas. She passed away on March 31, 2017, in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 79.

She was a member of the Womens Auxiliary for the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Disabled American Vets Auxiliary.

She attended schools in Texas, Illinois, and Kentucky as her stepfather worked in construction and moved to from state to state with the building of new dams.

She met and married James A. Hickey on September 3, 1954. She continued with her senior year of high school and graduated from Brazosport High School in May of 1955.

Peggy worked as a practical nurse in Laramie, Wyo., Mercy Hospital in Redding, Calif., Virginia Mason Hospital, Seattle, Wash., and Good Shepherd Hospital here in Hermiston. She drove forklift at Lamb Weston in Hermiston and Boardman. Her favorite job, though, was out at Hinkle working for Stubby Transportation as a yard hostler. She loved the banter and giving the rail crews a bad time when picking them up or taking them to the trains.

Peggy enjoyed crocheting, embroidery, reading and bowling. She was the secretary of the Kings and Queens bowling league on Monday nights. She bowled on the Thursday night Women's Major League, the Tuesday Morning Coffee League and the Travel League. She had the most fun as a member of Mother Goose and Her Four Quackers for bowling tourna-

Peggy is survived by her sister Mary Hoopaw (Jennings); brothers John Ross and Jim Hoopaw; daughter Sherri and son Tom; eight grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, Amos and Estelle, stepfather Leonard (Curly) Hoopaw, husband James, sons Danny and Doug and stepson James A. Hickey Jr.

Her family would like to thank the staff at Ashley Manor, especially Minerva, Kim, Anna, Lilly and Dahna, who have been there for her and loved her as an extended family member. I know that she was in your hearts and was your "little trouble maker." We will be forever grateful for your love and support. Thank you.

The family would also like to thank Vange John Hospice for the support that they have given to Mom in her time of need. Thank you so much.

Any donations can be made to Disabled American Veterans or to the Alzheimer's Research Foundations.

A graveside funeral service will be held on Friday, April 7, 2017, at 1:00 p.m. at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

Hickey

Jimmie Ray Cossey

Pendleton
June 19, 1951-March 21, 2017

Jim passed away at OHSU after a battle with lung cancer.

Jim was born in Hanford, Calif., to Ethan and Peanut Cossey. He lived and worked in Oregon for most of his life.

Jim lived a full life and was loved by many. He was the kind of person that was happy with anything and always had a smile on his face. He loved camping, boating and spending time with his grandchildren.

He is survived by his wife Sheila Cossey; children

Michelle (Zoltan) Werkner, Michael (Kathy) Cossey and Mandy (Brandon) Bosworth; seven grandchildren; three sisters and six brothers, and many nieces and nephews.

His celebration of life for family will be held on April 10, and for friends and family on May 27.

Jim was that guy that would always make you laugh and he loved everyone. He is going to be missed very much. Words can't explain the joy he brought to everyone's life.

Man pleads not guilty to mail theft

East Oregonian

Ryan Jeffrey Tremblay of Hermiston faces 14 counts of mail theft.

The 37-year-old pleaded not guilty to the charges in mid February.

A Umatilla County grand jury indicted Tremblay in January of the charges of mail theft or receipt of stolen mail, a class C felony in Oregon. Each count corresponds to one victim, according to the indictment.

Tremblay remains free on his own recognizance. According to the conditional release agreement he signed, he cannot have contact with any of the victims.

His next court hearing is April 17 in Hermiston before Circuit Judge Eva Temple.
