

Philanthropy: giving of time, talent or treasure

Knowing how to spend, invest and save your money carefully also includes donating your time and treasure to make your community a better place. This is called philanthropy.

Kids Collecting Clothing Saves Lives

CALIFORNIA – For some families, Sundays are spent collecting, washing and packing clothes; clothes that can save lives.

They do this because of two young sisters in San Ramon, California.

Naveli and Nitya Garg came up with an idea of how to help people facing dire poverty around the world.

When she was six years old, Naveli asked her mom, “Santa gives us so much, what does he want in return?”

Her mom replied, “He wants you to help the poor.”

Naveli and her sister started a club called Charity Dresses to collect clothing and give it to poor people around the world.

“I have seen some of the poor people in India. It is a miserable state, sometimes with no clothes. They are freezing cold,” explains Naveli Garg.

More Kids, More Clubs, More Help

Since the Garg sisters started their first Charity Dresses club, another eight clubs have been started. If you would like to start a club in your community, learn how at www.charitydress.com

Can you get this shirt into the donation box?

This photo is from an orphanage in India. Naveli and Nitya visited it in 2012. Charity Dresses has sent clothing there over the years.

The Joy of Shoes

RHODE ISLAND – When Nicolas Lowinger was five years old, he got a new pair of light-up sneakers. Boy, was he happy!

Then his mom took him to volunteer at a local homeless shelter and he saw children with shoes that were falling apart. Some kids didn't have shoes at all.

When he was twelve, Nicholas started a non-profit called Gotta Have Sole. His organization collects shoes and money to buy shoes.

So far, he has donated more than 56,300 shoes to kids!
