DEAR ABBY

Ex-wife's anger at her friend's betrayal spills over to daughter

JEANNE PHILLIPS Advice

Dear Abby: My ex-husband had an affair with a woman who was one of my dearest friends...

if things don't go well and Dad doesn't need to be doing this. Yet he continues.

Have you any ideas on getting Grandpa to keep his opinions to himself? We don't want to ban him from games and treat him like a 5-year-old who can't behave...

My daughter, with whom I am very close, continues to have a relationship with this woman. While I know it's not my place to tell her who to be friends with...

My daughter is pregnant, and this woman seems to be attempting to play mother and push her way into every detail of my daughter's pregnancy. It's extremely upsetting to me to have to share one more thing with her...

know the answer to your problem, and I do not understand why you haven't taken action. Was your father always this way, or has he become demented?

Dear Real Grandma: Although you cannot cut this woman completely out of your life because she is now with your ex, calmly discuss this with your daughter. She may have reasons that you are unaware of...

If he is unable to control his behavior at those games, instead of being allowed to ruin them for everyone within earshot, he should ABSOLUTELY be banned from attending.

Dear Abby: We need help with our dad. Many of his grandchildren participate in sports. For some reason, he thinks it's perfectly fine to sit in the stands surrounded by people he doesn't know and loudly criticize the other players.

Dear Abby: My niece was married by a justice of the peace in October. She and her husband are having a church wedding this summer. What would be the proper date to recognize on a gift?

We talk to him before the games. We remind him that he's sitting by these players' parents and what he's doing is not cool. Some of the parents become quite emotional

Dear Donna: If you are having the wedding gift engraved, you should ask your niece which date she and her husband would prefer.

Bob Smith, veteran teacher with 14 years experience, the last three at Hermiston High School, has been elected "Teacher of the Year" by the high school student body.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

Today is the 110th day of 2017. There are 255 days left in the year.

Today's Highlights in History:

On April 20, 1977, the U.S. Supreme Court, in Wooley v. Maynard, ruled 6-3 that car owners could refuse to display state mottoes on license plates, such as New Hampshire's "Live Free or Die."

the Colorado National Guard opened fire on a tent colony of striking miners; about 20 (accounts vary) strikers, women and children died.

In 1916, the Chicago Cubs played their first game at Wrigley Field (then known as Weeghman Park).

In 1968, Pierre Elliott Trudeau was sworn in as prime minister of Canada.

In 1972, Apollo 16's lunar module, carrying astronauts John W. Young and Charles M. Duke Jr., landed on the moon.

In 1999, the Columbine High School massacre took place in Colorado as two students, Eric Harris and Dylan Klebold, shot and killed 12 classmates and one teacher before taking their own lives.

On this date: In 1792, France declared war on Austria, marking the start of the French Revolutionary Wars.

In 1861, Col. Robert E. Lee resigned his commission in the United States Army. (Lee went on to command the Army of Northern Virginia, and eventually became general-in-chief of the Confederate forces.)

In 1889, Adolf Hitler was born in Braunau am Inn, Austria.

In 1914, the Ludlow Massacre took place when
