New Oregon eclipse campsites quickly sell out

SALEM (AP) — State park officials opened 1,000 additional campsites for people coming to watch the summer solar eclipse from Oregon.
 And it didn't long for them to fill.
 Parks Department spokesman Chris Havel says the campsites were made available for reservation at 8 a.m. Wednesday and it took just over an hour for them to be snapped up.
 All state park sites available by reservation are now taken, though cancellations may return a few sites to the pool.
 The highly anticipated eclipse will occur on the morning of August 21.

Federal court kills wind project near Steens Mountain

PORTLAND (AP) — A federal court has killed a large wind energy project in southeast Oregon over concerns about a declining sage grouse population that needs the area to breed.
 The U.S. District Court in Portland vacated plans for the project Tuesday, bringing an end to lengthy litigation over the proposal by Columbia Energy Partners.
 The project proposal was for wind energy development on roughly 10,500 acres of private land in Harney County.
 The transmission line's right-of-way would have crossed public lands where sage grouse breed.

Sherry J. Lieuallen

Walla Walla
March 14, 1940-April 16, 2017

Sherry J. Lieuallen of Walla Walla, Wash., formerly of Athena, Ore., passed away April 16, 2017, at the Odd Fellows Home in Walla Walla at the age of 77 years. Graveside services will be Saturday, April 22, 2017, at 2:00 p.m. at the Athena Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Lillie Rice Center or Blue Mountain Industries through the Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home, 902 S. Main, Milton-Freewater, OR 97862.

Lieuallen

Sherry Lieuallen was born on March 14, 1940, at St. Mary Hospital in Walla Walla, Wash., to her very proud parents, Alton and Maxine Lieuallen. She went all through school in her hometown of Athena, Ore., and graduated from high school there.

A few years later she moved to Walla Walla to be part of special programs offered at Lillie Rice Center and Blue Mountain Industries. This enabled her to fulfill her dream of living independently and having a job. She worked until she was 65 years old and then retired. However, she missed it so much that she used to say, "I am starting my new job next Monday!" In 2009 she left her apartment and went into assisted living at Pioneer House, residing there until 2015. At that time she became a resident at the Odd Fellows until her passing on April 16, 2017.

Sherry enjoyed many things in her lifetime. She was devoted to her Christian faith and to her church; Sunday services were a highlight of her week. She loved her family so much and showed it in many ways, most especially by remembering birthdays and holidays so she could mail special cards to us all. She loved to walk long walks, to visit with everyone, to make new friends, eat out, shop (especially at K-Mart), watch her movies at home, play Crazy 8s with friends and family, and talk on the phone "checking in" with family members daily.

She is survived by her sister, Marilyn Calhoun of Walla Walla, Wash.; her brother, Brooks Lieuallen and his wife Kathy of Athena, Ore.; and several nieces and nephews who were very special to her.
