Grebb holds on to win at Awbrey Glen

East Oregonian

BEND — Pendleton's Haley Grebb held off a strong push in the final four holes by Summit's Olivia Loberg to take a one-stroke win at Awbrey Glen Golf Club on Monday.

Grebb

The senior Buckaroo led by four strokes when Loberg hit a bogey on the par-3 13th hole, but saw that cut in half when she shot a six on the par-5 15th and Loberg came in with her third birdie of the round. Loberg birdied the par-3 16th as well to get within a stroke, but both players shot bogey on No. 17 and par on No. 18.

Grebb said there was some wind to contend with coming down the back nine, and the course layout left little room for error off the tee.

"The course played pretty tight, you really had to make sure you hit the fairways," she said.

Summit's Josephine Fraser and Bend's Kaylie Hayes tied for third with 86s, and Bend won the team title with 362.

Summit was second with 379, and Pendleton was third with 373.

Megan George shot 90 as the Bucks' No. 2, Makenzie McLeod had 102 and Kendall Blair shot 108 to round out the score. Rylee Harris' 114 completed the Bucks' day.
