Elementary School on McGowan Drive.

2:04 p.m. - The Hermiston Municipal Court sent a car owner to ask Hermiston police if his car's tinted windows are too dark. 2:12 p.m. - An Irrigon caller reported another parent is making false allegations against them.

2:59 p.m. - A resident at Sunland Park Apartments on West Sunland Avenue, Hermiston, asked to talk to an officer about a person who points a camera at his window.

8:46 p.m. - A man on Southwest Riverhill Drive, Hermiston, told police his ex-girlfriend refused to leave and kicked in his door.

10:07 a.m. - And a resident at Locust Mobile Trailer Court, Milton-Freewater, reported an intoxicated man would not leave.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•You wonder if he was that drunk, how he even found the keys.

An Oregon State Police trooper at 10:26 p.m. stopped a Toyota Corolla after watching the car drive through a bicycle lane for approximately four blocks near Northwest 11th Street and West Elm Avenue, Hermiston.

State police reported the driver, Victor Manuel Calderon, 48, of 31210 Balboa Lane, Hermiston, showed "multiple signs of impairment from alcohol" and failed a sobriety test.

He also provided a breath sample that showed his blood alcohol level was .24 percent, three times the legal limit of .08

The trooper booked Calderon into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, and released the Toyota to his wife.

INDUCTION

Brock inducted into Phi Kappa Phi

BATON ROUGE, La. — Alexander Brock of Hermiston was recently initiated into The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, the nation's oldest and most selective all-discipline collegiate honor society. Brock was initiated at Western Oregon University.

Brock is among approximately 30,000 students, faculty, professional staff and alumni to be initiated into Phi Kappa Phi each year. Membership is by invitation only and requires nomination and approval by a chapter. Only the top 10 percent of seniors and 7.5 percent of juniors are eligible for membership. Graduate students in the top 10 percent of the number of candidates for graduate degrees may also qualify, as do faculty, professional staff and alumni who have achieved scholarly distinction.

Columbia Grange celebrates 80 years

HERMISTON — An open house is planned in celebration of the 80th anniversary of the Columbia Grange.

The public is invited to the event, which will include a baked potato bar lunch. Also, an ice cream sundae social will be served by Oregon State Grange officers. The open house is Saturday at 1 p.m. at the grange, 2339 Diagonal Blvd., Hermiston.

The celebration will honor past members of Columbia Grange and several community service organizations. For more information, contact Diane Serface, Columbia Grange No. 867 treasurer, at dserface@eoni.

Doolittle Raiders event is Saturday PENDLETON — A full day of family fun and an evening gala are planned in recognition of the 75th anniversary of the Doolittle Raid. Sponsored by the

AROUND REGION

Pendleton Air Museum, the activities are Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Oregon National Guard Armory, 2100 N.W. 56th St., Pendleton. There is no admission charge for the event, which includes a vintage car show, B-25 tours, military and static displays, specialty vendors, history re-enactors, food wagons and a F-15 flyover. An official military presentation is set for 4 p.m., which includes a wreath laying, honor guard and flag ceremony. It ends with a combat jet flyover.

In addition, people can pay to ride in an authentic B-25 bomber.

The Doolittle Raiders Gala, which costs $50 per person, starts at 5 p.m. The evening includes a social hour, dinner, a USO-style show and dancing to the 234th Army Band. Tickets can be purchased at the Pendleton branch of Community Bank,

157 S. Main St. online at information, contact pendletonairmuseum@ gmail.com, 541-278-0141.

Democratic group hosts Jim Crary

PENDLETON — The public is invited to meet Jim Crary, who is running for United States Congress in 2018.

The Umatilla County Democratic Party is hosting the event. Everyone is welcome to attend Monday at 6 p.m. in Room 200 in the Science and Technology Building at Blue Mountain Community College, 2411 N.W. Carden Ave. Pendleton. Refreshments will be served. Crary, who is running for Greg Walden's position, is a Democrat from Ashland. Born and raised in Fargo, North Dakota, Crary has a law degree from the University of San Diego. He lived and worked in Anchorage for many years. Buying property near Ashland in 2001, Crary and his family relocated there in 2006.

For more information about the meeting, contact Sue Peterson at 541-276-4569 or bikerchick49@ hotmail.com.

Echo announces Kindergarten Roundup

ECHO — The annual Kindergarten Roundup for Echo Elementary School is Tuesday at 5 p.m. at the school, 600 Gerone St.

Children who will be 5 years old on or before Sept. 1, 2017, and their parents are encouraged to attend. Beth Gehrke, Echo Schools registrar, said the event offers a great opportunity for children to meet their teacher and classmates and see their new school. Kindergarten teacher Tammy Short will present a story time and craft activity for the children, while Gehrke works with parents to complete the registration forms. Parents should bring their child's official birth certificate and immunization records. For more information, contact Gehrke at 541-376-8436 or beth.gehrke@echo. k12.or.us.
