Pendleton Cattle Barons Weekend celebrates 10th year

By TAMMY MALGESINI East Oregonian

Created to celebrate the region's western heritage, Pendleton Cattle Barons Weekend is marking its 10th anniversary Friday and Saturday in and around the Pendleton Convention Center.

In addition to highlighting ranching, rodeo and the western lifestyle, Cattle Barons is committed to assisting students pursuing higher education in the field of agriculture. A nonprofit organization, Cattle Barons has provided more than $50,000 to about 50 students from Umatilla and Morrow counties.

efforts for the "Our weekend are dedicated to supporting students through scholarships," said Andy Vanderplaat, Cattle Barons board president.

Joe Arguello keeps his grill hot during the Buckaroo BBQ Challenge at the 2016 Pendleton Cattle Barons Weekend.

The weekend features a horse and working dog sale, Ranch Rodeo Championship (Friday, 7 p.m.,) North American Stock Saddle Bronc Championships (Saturday, 7 p.m.), specialty artwork and western craftsmanship, and some of the best backyard grillers around. All events are free, except the ranch rodeo ($10) and the saddle bronc ($15). A combo ticket is $22. Tickets are $5 for each event for kids ages 5-12.

After experimenting with a Dutch oven cook-off and chili contest the first couple of years, organizers of the Buckaroo BBQ Challenge found their niche during the event, said Ryan Heath.

Returning for the eighth year, backyard grillers will vie for bragging rights, cash and prizes. In addition, people are invited to buy a button for $5 to become an official judge for the people's choice award.

Heath encourages people to follow their nose as the aroma of tri-tip and ribs will fill the air Saturday as nearly two dozen teams square off in the contest. Cooks will get things fired up around 11 a.m. and the meat will be ready for tasting around 1 p.m. Heath said there are still some open slots for teams to enter the contest. For more information, stop by the Pendleton Chamber of Commerce or visit www. cattlebarons.net.

Missy Fairbanks, chairwoman for the barbecue contest, decided to include a special division for younger grillers. The Young Guns #### also will vie for prize money and trophies. done "She's an outstanding job and came up with the idea for the kids," Heath said. In addition, a raffle will feature piles of donated good from a Yeti Cooler and growlers to barbecue grills and cutting boards created by students in the Sunridge Middle School shop class. Heath said three separate raffles will provide a nice selection of goods for the winners. Tickets are $5 each or five for $20. Tickets can be purchased at the event or in advance at Grocery Outlet, The Prodigal Son Brewery & Pub or 40 Taps. The drawing will be held Saturday afternoon and the winners don't have to be present. Money from the Buckaroo BBQ Challenge and raffle go to support Pendleton Outdoor School and the Sunridge shop program.

Heath said the students, under the direction of shop teacher Ken Jacobs, work on fixing or creating things for the Outdoor School program.

People can pick up Western-themed artwork, clothing, decorations, gear and tack at the Tradin' Post Trade Show. Also, the Bit, Spur & Engraving Show and Sale will sparkle with bits, spurs, knives and more. Both are open Friday from noon to 7 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the convention center.
