

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

FRIDAY

4:19 a.m. - Hermiston police received an emergency report of possible domestic violence involving a female crying all night at a residence on West Sunland Avenue.
 12:40 p.m. - A resident on Southwest Olson Avenue, Pendleton, reported the theft of multiple items.
 12:43 p.m. - A caller on Southwest Desert Oak Drive, Hermiston, reported a large brown snake was in the yard by the cement stairs outside the front door.
 1:18 p.m. - Hermiston police took a report from a woman who said someone opened a Gmail account under her name and used her information to try to conduct fraudulent real estate transactions from an office that doesn't exist.
 3:08 p.m. - A man staying at the Pillars Motel, 1816 S.E. Court Ave., Pendleton, reported his neighbor stole a shopping cart and is hiding it in his room.
 4:31 p.m. - An Irrigon mother reported her son was acting different after taking "something" from a friend. An ambulance took the son to Good Shepherd Medical Center, Hermiston.
 4:37 p.m. - Bullies ruined a Pendleton student's fundraising effort, the boy's mother reported.
 She told police her sons got on the bus to go to Washington Elementary School and brought along fundraising items. Older students bullied her 6-year-old boy and took his items.

SATURDAY

12:04 a.m. - A caller told Hermiston police he was walking when a silver sedan drove by and someone inside threw a drink cup, hitting him. The license plate was 101JJD, he said, and he last saw the car on the 300 block of South First Street.
 12:47 p.m. - Stanfield police took a complaint about someone possibly poisoning dogs in the area of Heather Drive, but the caller did not have any suspects.
 6:44 p.m. - A caller at Calvary Chapel of Pendleton, 1909 S.W. Athens Ave., reported the theft of a utility trailer.
 11:46 p.m. - Morrow County dispatch received a report of a propane tank exploding in a trailer home on Magic Garden Lane, Irrigon.
 11:48 p.m. - A caller on Southwest 29th Street, Pendleton, told police someone keyed his car and threw dip at it.

SUNDAY

2:41 a.m. - A caller told Hermiston police he was on the phone with a friend when her boyfriend started yelling at her and she yelled to call the police.
 4:49 a.m. - A 9-1-1 caller on East Punkin Center Road, Hermiston, said his roommate was beating his girlfriend.
 6:33 a.m. - Emergency workers responded to a home on Northeast Center Street, Heppner, for an infant with blood in the mouth and not breathing. An ambulance crew took the child to Pioneer Medical Center, Heppner.
 11:53 a.m. - Umatilla police responded to a home on Chenoweth Avenue for someone breaking in.
 1:25 p.m. - An ambulance near Boardman rear-ended a passenger car when its driver cut over in front of the emergency vehicle.
 Oregon State Police reported the ambulance was flashing lights in the fast lane on Interstate 84 en route to Good Shepherd Medical Center, Hermiston, with one patient, a parent and three medical staff in the back. Near milepost 168, the driver of a Honda Accord changes from the slow lane to the fast lane right in front of the ambulance, state police reported, and the ambulance could not avoid hitting the car.
 4:30 p.m. - A man on West Sunland Avenue, Hermiston, reported someone in the night broke into his apartment.
 4:42 p.m. - Umatilla police took a report of a break-in and theft at a house on Third Street.
 6:47 p.m. - Three or four people fought at East Cherry Avenue and Northeast McNary Street, Hermiston.
 8:57 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report of a female with a gun at McDonald's, 900 Southgate.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday
 •Oregon State Police arrested Tosha Nichole Revoir, 29, of Hermiston, for driving under the influence of intoxicants (marijuana).
Saturday
 •Oregon State Police cited two Washington men — Jaren Michael Kelly, 43, of Spokane, and John Everett Nelson, 48, of Spokane Valley — for salmon fishing out of season. The trooper also seized a chinook salmon and gave that to the Agape House, a Hermiston charity.
 •Oregon State Police cited Alfredo Cardenas, 68, no address provided, for DUUI after a crash on Highway 207 near milepost 14, Lexington.
 •Pendleton police arrested Brennan George Shultz, 22, of Pendleton, for possession of methamphetamine and second-degree trespass.
 During his arraignment Monday in Pendleton, Shultz reassured the court he would abide by conditions of a jail release agreement. Circuit Judge Jon Lieuallen asked Shultz what would happen if the court found he did not follow the conditions. His response: "Nothing good."
 •Pendleton police arrested Adria Stai, 42, of Pilot Rock, for DUUI, reckless driving and driving while suspended/revoked. Circuit court records show she has a drunken driving case pending since March 30 in Umatilla County, and the state is trying to collect $1,440 in traffic fines and court fees from her.
 •Oregon State Police arrested Cody Ray Martin, 21, of Irrigon, for DUUI (alcohol).
Sunday
 •Oregon State Police arrested Roman Christopher Holcomb, 24, of Pendleton, for DUUI. State police reported his blood-alcohol level was .16 percent, twice the .08 percent legal limit.
 •Stanfield police arrested Kristopher Shane Bishop, 38, of Stanfield, for possession of a federally controlled Schedule 2 substance.

Event highlights sexual health

East Oregonian
 A special education night is planned by Pregnancy Care Services.
 The event is Thursday at 5:30 p.m. at the Hermiston Conference Center, 415 S. Highway 395. There is no admission charge and a light dinner will be served.
 People are invited to attend informational sessions on various sexual health topics presented by a panel of community health professionals. Jeremiah White, executive director of Hermiston Campus Life, will present Teen Culture; Susan Bender, a certified professional midwife, will discuss Fertility & Birth Control; Cherie Childers of Hope Medical share about Ultrasounds & STD/STIs; and Margot Loza, director of Latino Outreach with Oregon Right to Life, will present Abortion Options.
 Debbie Cissna, director of Hermiston's Pregnancy Care Services, said it's a new event for the nonprofit organization.
 "The goal is to bring information about what community needs a pregnancy resource center addresses and to share the vision for the potential reach a pregnancy resource center can have when medical services are added," Cissna said.

Pregnancy Care Services offers free pregnancy tests, life affirming options counseling, adoption referrals, information about abortion procedures and risks, post-abortion counseling, and community referrals. The center also offers classes to teach parenting, relationship and general life skills. All services are free and confidential.
 Those planning to attend the event are invited to RSVP by contacting debbie@pregnancycareservices.com or 541-567-2393. For more about Pregnancy Care Services, visit www.pregnancycareservices.com.

OBITUARIES

Sunni Dawn Alexander

Pendleton
September 26, 1974-May 13, 2017

Sunni Dawn Alexander went to the Creator on Saturday May 13, 2017, after a two-year battle with cancer.

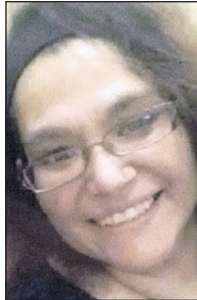

She was born on September 26, 1974, to Randy and Hilda Alexander. She was named by her uncle Les Alexander with a name that suited her personality. She was quick with that beautiful radiant smile of hers. When she was six weeks old her parents returned to work, so she was cared for by her grandparents Red and Anita Alexander, up through grade school. They nurtured her mind and spirit, establishing an unbreakable bond. As her cousins say, "Sunni Dawn owned Grandma and Grandpa."

She attended Sherwood Elementary, Sunridge Middle School, and graduated in 1992 from Pendleton High School. Right after graduation she gained employment at Yellowhawk Tribal Health Center. She also worked at Wildhorse Resort and Casino and CTUIR. She made many lifelong friends through her years of employment.

She became a mother to LaRiah Marie Alexander in 1999 and Nicolas Pearce Alexander in 2006. Her children were her greatest joy. She loved spending time with them which became harder in the last couple of months. She still could enjoy hearing their incessant chattering and bickering. She would smile knowing that they were nearby.

Sunni enjoyed reading, gaming, arts and crafts, especially her beadwork. She loved spending time with friends and family, catching up with what was happening on the homeland.
 She is survived by parents Randy and Hilda Alexander, children LaRiah and Nicolas Alexander, and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, friends and family. She is preceded in death by her younger sister Brandee Marie Alexander, grandparents Red and Anita Alexander and Alphonse and Florence Halfmoon, and several aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Viewing will be held Tuesday, May 16 from 4 to 8 p.m. at Burns Mortuary. Memorial mass will be held at St. Andrew's Mission on Wednesday, May 17 at 8:00 a.m., with a light reception to follow for continued fellowship and sharing.

Sunni wished to be cremated and her remains will be spread at a later date.

In lieu of flowers please make donations to your local cancer center in her name.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton are in charge of arrangements.

Cornelia J. 'Connie' Fisher

Echo
March 1, 1929-May 10, 2017

Cornelia "Connie" J. Fisher of Echo, Oregon, was born on March 1, 1929, on a farm near David City, Nebraska, the sixth of eight children, to parents John and Anna Willemsen Frericks. She died on May 10, 2017, in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 88 years.

Connie started school at the age of 5½ years in a one-room school-house on the ranch where they lived. The Frericks family began moving to Oregon in 1937 and arrived in Baker City, Oregon, on New Year's Eve 1938. Connie attended St. Francis Academy from the fourth grade through graduation in 1946. She was the first of her family to graduate from high school.

Connie worked for Dr. John Higgins, then the Crawford and Grant Insurance Agency and then the Chancery Office of St. Francis Cathedral, while also working at her sister Elizabeth's Richfield Service Station and Store on 10th Street in Baker City.

Connie married Roger Wilbur "Bill" Fisher of Haines, Oregon, on March 12, 1951. They lived on various farms in Muddy Creek until they sold out the farming operation in 1966. Moving to Echo, Oregon, in 1968, Bill went to work for John, Smith and Beamer in Athena, Oregon. Connie worked a couple of years at the Pendleton Woolen Mills before taking classes to become a medical transcriptionist. She spent the next 20 years doing medical transcription work for Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston, St. Anthony Hospital in Pendleton, and medical clinics in Hermiston,

Fisher

Umatilla and Boardman. Connie loved to garden and sew. She won Echo yard of the month on several occasions. She purchased a new sewing machine in the last year and started a little business sewing aprons.

She is survived by her four children and their spouses: Patrick and Marianne Fisher, Pendleton, Ore., Roger and Myrna Fisher, Elko, Nev., Terri and Steve Voorhees, Hermiston, Ore., and Ed and Kathy Fisher, Pendleton, Ore.; eight grandchildren: Sean and Breanne Fisher (Hosford), Cody, Jordan and Ashley Voorhees (Mason), and John, Mike and Dan Fisher; a stepgrandson, Kirk Rickey; six great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Connie was preceded in death by her husband Bill, and siblings Ted, Joe, Leo and Elizabeth Frericks, Louise Todd, Ramona Idler, and Helena who died in infancy.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, May 18, 2017, at 11:00 a.m. at the Haines Cemetery, Haines, Oregon.

The family is very grateful for the care provided by the staff at Sun Terrace in Hermiston and the personnel of Vange John Memorial Hospice. In lieu of flowers, please donate to Vange John Memorial Hospice at 645 W. Orchard Ave., Ste. 300, Hermiston, OR 97838 or the Shriners Hospitals for Children at www.shriners-hospitals.org/donate.

Please sign the online condolence book at burnsmortuaryhermiston.com

Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, Oregon, is in care of arrangements.
