1:21 p.m. - A woman on Southeast Court Street, Heppner, reported a man refuses to leave the residence. She said she hit him with a set of keys and he hit her with a water bottle, but now they are just arguing.

5:28 p.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report of a vehicle striking the front of the Chuckwagon Cafe, 81027 N. Highway 395, Hermiston, and then taking off.

9:07 p.m. - Stanfield police responded to the Pilot Travel Center, 2115 S. Highway 395, Stanfield, for an intoxicated man.

9:18 p.m. - An lone mother told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office she is concerned for her children when they stay with their father because the 11-year-old has to take care of the 8-year-old, who has diabetes.

11:50 p.m. - Oregon State Police responded to help the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrest Joshua McNeil, 34, at the Taj Food Mart, 84802 Highway 11, Milton-Freewater, on charges of domestic violence assault, strangulation and menacing. Once he saw the officers, he fled in a maroon Ford F150 pickup, state police reported.

Police pursued McNeil about a quarter of a mile on Highway 11, then he drove into a pasture near milepost 34, broke a fence and got the pickup stuck. But he took off running.

The landowner met police in the field and fixed the fence, and officers notified a supervisor the pickup was not going anywhere due to the amount of water and mud it was in.

Police also plan to arrest McNeil for attempting to elude, reckless driving and criminal mischief.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Hermiston police arrested Joshua Phillip Miltenberger, 24, of Hermiston, on warrants for failure to appear and violating probation, as well as charges of third-degree theft and identity theft.

Oregon State Police reported a trooper at 7:55 p.m. stopped a Mitsubishi Outlander for speeding eastbound on Interstate 84 about two miles from Pendleton. The trooper contacted the driver, William R. Salaam, 25, of Ontario, and saw "numerous criminal indicators," according to state police, and smelled fresh marijuana. That led the trooper to search the vehicle and find four pounds of pot.

The trooper cited and released Salaam and passenger Jarbaren M. Terrell, 25, for possession of 32-64 ounces of marijuana. The days of police traffic stops leading to jail time for marijuana possession may be finished in Oregon.

Oregon State Police arrested Michael Robert Carlson, 51, of Stanfield, for driving under the influence of intoxicants. State police reported his blood-alcohol level was .23 percent, just shy of three times the legal limit of .08 percent.

The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a report at 11:20 p.m. about shots fired on North Golda Road, Hermiston. Deputies responded and arrested Michael Shane Marion, 41, of 81384 N. Golda Road, for making a false report.

Shawn Patrick Campbell

Mission
May 5, 1978-May 13, 2017

On May 13, 2017, Shawn Campbell was tragically taken from us in a life-ending car accident near Shaniko, Oregon. He was born to Darla Kay Campbell and Billy Dale Tefft on May 5, 1978.

Shawn is remembered by his loving wife and best friend, Tiarra Burnett. They had three beautiful children together — two daughters, Harmonie Rose Campbell, and son Elijah Shawn Campbell — and also Tiarra's oldest children Keyano Walker and Jordan Burnett.

He is fondly remembered by his loving brothers Morgan Campbell, Macario (Chio) Ibarra and Joseph Perilli, and adoring sisters Darleen Campbell and Bobbi Weems. His children were his proudest accomplishments. He was a wonderful, loving father.

He was a conductor for the Union Pacific Railroad. He worked very hard and was proud to be a part of that company.

He was also an accomplished fisherman, fishing most streams or rivers in Oregon at one time or another.

Shawn always lived life on his own terms. He would set his mind to something and there was no stopping him from achieving his goal.

A funeral service will be held at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel at 1 p.m. on May 20. We are sure that he would want us to mention that if he owes you a shot or beer come join us at the VFW Hall after the funeral to celebrate his life.
