STATEMENT OF CHANGES IN ACTIVITIES AND SOURCES OF FINANCING
A wage increase to get employees more in line with adjacent cities wages is included in the budget which also increases payroll taxes. The city is going to begin paying health insurance for permanent employees. The city will be applying for the Small City Allotment grant for street improvement. This grant is for $50,000. The city purchased some land which requires payments to be made from a Debt Service Fund. There will be transfers from the Water fund to the Water System Replacement Reserve Fund and Reserve Loan Fund. The General and Water fund has a contingency line item included in the budget. Requirements in all operating funds continue to rise.

STATEMENT OF CHANGES IN ACTIVITIES AND SOURCES OF FINANCING **
The first year of the 17-19 biennium slightly increased State funding resources. Prior year ending fund balances and adjustments of the Remote Elementary Correction have allowed the District to maintain staffing levels and programs, offer an increase in salary agreements and enhancing technology support to students. The budget allows the district to plan for PERS rate increases in the next biennium and shows an overall increase.
