Kay Louise Reese

Mount Hood
 December 18, 1943-May 27, 2017

Reese

Kay Louise Reese died Saturday, May 27, 2017, at the age of 73 years, at her home in Mount Hood, Oregon. She was born December 18, 1943, in Vancouver, Washington, to Harold and Geneva (Anderson) Myers. Kay graduated from Fort Vancouver High School and attended Washington State University where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She met her husband, James B. Reese, in Seattle, Wash., and they were married in Vancouver, Wash., on July 8, 1967. They lived in Costa Mesa, Calif., for six years and Hermiston, Ore., for 39 years, before moving to Hood River Valley five years ago.
 Kay was a compassionate, hard-working woman. Her family has the fondest memories of her as a ukulele playing, Charleston dancing, Anne Murray singing, avocado eating, daisy loving, craft and culinary making sensation. She thrived on her relationships with friends and family, and played an integral role volunteering for schools, church and community. She challenged those around her to keep up and oh, did she know how to work a room. As with almost everything, that would bring a smile to her face. She made every special occasion more special, and did a lot of heavy lifting as a mother, wife and professional. And we all cherish that she and Jim share a true love, and would have soon celebrated 50 years of marriage in just five more weeks.

 She is survived by her husband Jim and four daughters and their families: Glenna and Jeff Stone, Sadie and Piper, of Bothell, Wash.; Pamela and John Stevenson, Jack, Connor, Owen and Tyler, of Corvallis, Ore.; Andrea and Rick Streedain, Nils and Nora, of Portland, Ore.; Sarah and Mike Magura, Kayla and Aiden, of Clackamas, Ore.; and her brother Steve Myers and his wife Susan of Sun Valley, Idaho.
 Kay's family invites you to celebrate her life on Saturday, June 3rd, at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Hood River at 11 a.m. Reception immediately following the service.
