

June Neighborhood Happenings

Wade on in, tiny tots!

PENDLETON — Splish, splash! The Til Taylor Wading Pool opens on Monday, June 19. Toddlers and parents can enjoy relaxing water play in this free pool for kids 8 and under. No lifeguard is on duty, so all children must be supervised. The wading pool is open noon to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m., Mon. through Sat., until Aug. 26.

While you're thinking about it, sign up for an Early Bird Pool Pass before the main pool opens on June 16 this year. Passes available for family, adults, youth and more. Stop by the Parks Office at 865 Tuuilla Road or call 541-276-8100.

Open air markets pop up everywhere

UMATILLA COUNTY — Fresh fruit and vegetables for your family are on the way, straight from the farmer! You'll find open air markets in several spots around the county.

The Echo Open Air Market kicks off June 17 and runs every third Saturday from 4 to 7 p.m. in George Park. The Hermiston Farmers Market also starts June 17 and continues each Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at NE Second and Main streets.

Pendleton Farmer's Market is already up and running along Main Street each Friday from 4 to 7 p.m.

You'll also find baked goods, crafts, live music and food vendors. And don't miss the weiner dog races on June 23, supporting the Children's Museum of Eastern Oregon.

Sign up now for OES Summer Strings Camp

PENDLETON — The Oregon East Symphony's Summer Strings Music Camp returns this year from July 31 to August 4, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the Peace Lutheran Church. The week-long day camp provides instruction from professional musicians in violin, viola, cello, and bass, ending with a public concert on Friday, Aug. 4. Open to any preschool through high school aged player who can read some music on their instrument.

Students must bring their own lunches. The camp costs $100 per student or $80 if registered by July 13. For details, call the Symphony Office at 541-216-0320 or Loree Tucker-McKenna at 541-276-4237.

Email your local events to editor@eoparent.com.
