ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Thursday

The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Jakob Raymond Kerby, 18, of Milton-Freewater, for first-degree rape.

According to circuit court documents, the state alleged he committed the crime in May against a person who lacked the mental capacity to give consent. Judge Jon Lieuallen set bail for Kerby at $50,000. He remains in the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested Dalton Dale Booker, 27, of Irrigon, on domestic violence charges of fourth-degree assault, harassment, and second-degree kidnapping.

Friday

Hermiston police arrested Jeanette Marie Taylor, 51, of Hermiston, on the domestic violence charge of fourth-degree assault.

Priceless American Indian regalia stolen in Pendleton

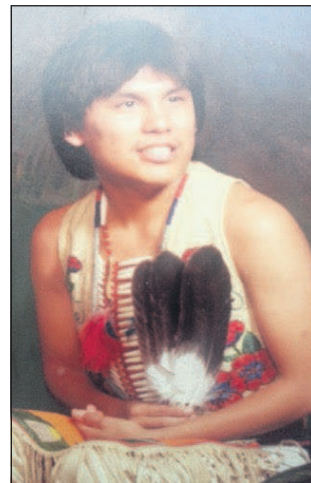

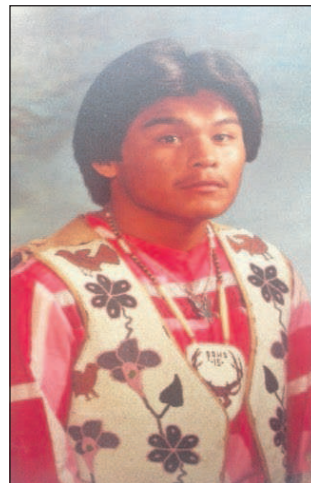

East Oregonian

Numerous irreplaceable American Indian regalia and artifacts were stolen this week from a Pendleton storage unit.

According to Pendleton Police, the department was made aware of the theft Wednesday. Items missing from the storage units include beaded buckskin dresses, war shirts, vests, martingales, horse trappings, leggings, beaded purses, moccasins, headbands, chokers and an eagle feather fan.

According to police, most of the items are well over a century old, are of significant cultural and historical value and cannot be replaced or duplicated.

The Pendleton Police Department is asking for assistance in locating the stolen items. If anyone has any knowledge or information as to the person(s) responsible for the theft or the whereabouts of any of the property please call police at 541-276-4411 or dispatch at 541-966-3650. Callers can reference Pendleton Police Department case 17-1514.
