ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday

*Fingerprints revealed the truth of a Milton-Freewater man. Oregon State Police reported a trooper on Friday around 1 p.m. contacted a man at Keystone RV Co., Pendleton, on suspicion he possessed fake identification stemming from a 2017 arrest for driving under the influence of intoxicants. The trooper spoke to the suspect, who provided a Washington driver's license and an Oregon identification card.

According to state police, the man claimed the information he gave for the ID card was fake, and he bought that information in Idaho for approximately $500.

The trooper arrested the man and booked him into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, for possession of a fictitious identification and misuse of an identification card.

Jail staff took the man's fingerprints and matched information on the Washington license to determine he was Miguel Colin Morales, 55. Umatilla County Circuit Court records show he pleaded not guilty May 16 to the DUII charge. His next hearing in that case is June 27.
