

HODGEN: Tournament continues Saturday and Sunday at Bob White Park and BMCC Field

Quinn Doherty contributed back-to-back singles to again get runners on the corners. Duso then came across to score on a passed ball and then Doherty scored the tying run on an RBI double by Duetz, his second double of the game, which then set up Chichester's heroics.

Hodgen had to overcome a mediocre start from pitcher Chris Large, who walked seven and allowed seven hits and nine runs, five of which were earned, in four innings. Cooper Roberts pitched a scoreless fifth inning to pick up the win.

In Game 2, Hodgen grabbed the game advantage with a seven-run second inning where 12 batters came to the plate and recorded five hits, two walks and a hit-by-pitch. Umbarger opened the scoring with an RBI single to center to bring home Chichester and then Stahl drove in two with a single of his own to make it a 3-0 lead. After a double by Duetz and a walk by Duso, Doherty smacked an RBI single and then Chichester was hit-by a pitch with the bases loaded to make it a 6-0 Hodgen lead.

Hodgen then enacted the 10-run rule in the bottom of the fifth after Large and Cooper Roberts each hit run-scoring singles to give the team a 12-2 win.

Three T-Wolves sign to continue baseball careers

PENDLETON — Blue Mountain Community College athletics continues to be a launching pad for student-athletes as three more Timberwolves signed to continue their careers at four-year universities.

Sophomore baseball players Austin Florez, Tanner Heiman and Gunnar Johnson all signed their National Letters of Intent to their respective colleges on Wednesday afternoon in a small ceremony at the school.

Florez, an outfielder from South Jordan, Utah, will continue his career at Oregon Institute of Technology where he will pursue a degree in psychology. Florez was one of the team's top hitters in 2017, where he hit for a

.295 average, a team-high 12 doubles and 25 runs scored.

Heiman, a native of Kennewick, will transfer to Grand View University, an NAIA program in Des Moines, Iowa where he will continue his education toward a physical therapy degree. The pitcher/first baseman blasted seven home runs in his career at BMCC, and pitched in 18 career games with 32 strikeouts.

And Johnson, a native Oregonian from Fairview, will move on to Dakota Wesleyan University, an NAIA program located in Mitchell, North Dakota in the fall. Johnson, a pitcher who will continue his education in the criminal justice field, was second on BMCC's staff in innings pitched (53) and wins (four) this season.
