OBITUARIES

Dorris Sue Lowe

Pendleton February 3, 1933-June 8, 2017

Dorris Sue Lowe, 84, of Pendleton passed away June 8, 2017 surrounded by her three loving daughters.

Dorris was the 8th child of nine. Born in Mansfield, Ohio on February 3, 1933.

Her brother John met her love Robert while both stationed in Free Territory Trieste, Italy, and he shared a photo of Dorris with Robert which inspired many letters between the two. After ending his time in the service Robert drove from Oregon to Ohio in October of 1952 and the two were married Valentine's Day 1953. Following their wedding ceremony, they headed back west. While working on a ranch in rural NW Oregon (outside of Baker) they welcomed their first two daughters and the youngest while living in Halfway.

Her hobbies included sewing all of the clothing for her and her family, gardening, painting, and she also liked to school her grandchildren in games of Mario Bros on Nintendo.

Dorris worked at the East Oregonian and PHS in the 1970s after many years as a Homemaker. She took a lot of pride in her jobs and loved the cash flow that allowed her to purchase extras for her hobbies.

As a longtime member of the Shortmile Assembly of God in Mission, Oregon donations are suggested to the church in lieu of flowers.

Per Dorris's request there will be no services but her ashes will be combined with Robert allowing them to rest together in eternity.

Dorris is preceded in death by her parents, 6 siblings;

She is survived by her brothers; John Pickelsimer of Pendleton and Fred James of Redding, CA, daughters; Tarina (Robert) Thomas of Newport, WA, Cynthia (Rodney) Darlington of Pendleton, and Robin Weller of Pendleton, grandchildren; Allison Larson of Spokane, WA, Corey Thomas of Spokane, WA, Casey Thomas of Deer Park, WA, Ginger Ray (Geoff) Rieff of Pendleton, Nicholas (April) Darlington of Athena, April (Matt) Burton of Springfield, OR, Andrea Smith of Eugene, and James Weller of Pendleton, 18 great grandchildren and 4 great great grandchildren.

Adam West, 1960s-era Batman, dies at 88

lives together, Ward told the Variety entertainment media outlet. "This is a terribly unexpected loss of my lifelong friend. I will forever miss him."

A whole new generation of fans knew West as the voice of nutty Mayor Adam West on the long-running animated series "Family Guy.' "Adam West was a joy to work with, and the kind of guy you always wanted to be around," "Family Guy" creator Seth MacFarlane said in a statement. MacFarlane added: "His positivity, good nature, and sense of fun were undeniable, and it was always a big jolt of the best kind of energy when he walked in to record the show. He knew comedy, and he knew humanity... Thank you from the bottom of my heart for all that you have given, Mr. Mayor. You're irreplaceable."

In April 2012, West received a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. Born William West Anderson in Walla Walla, Washington, 15 with his mother after his parents divorced. He graduated from Whitman College, a private liberal arts school, in Walla

he moved to Seattle at age

Walla. After serving in the Army, he went to Hollywood and changed his name to Adam West, and began appearing on a number of television series, including "Bonanza," "Perry Mason" and "Bewitched."

"Batman" was the role he would remain associated with throughout his life. The TV show was among the most popular in 1966, the year of its debut, and some of the era's top actors signed on to play villains. Burgess Meredith squawked as the Penguin. Eartha Kitt purred as Catwoman. And Cesar Romero cackled as the Joker. Years later, Michael

Keaton, Val Kilmer, George Clooney, Christian Bale and Ben Affleck would don Bruce Wayne's camouflaging cape and cowl. "Adam West exemplified heroism," Affleck wrote on 1989 file photo shows Adam West in New York. On Saturday, June 10, his family said the actor died at age 88.

Twitter. "Kind, funny and an all around great guy. Thank you for showing us all how it's done " Filmmakers Wright and Leslye Headland were among those lamenting West's death on Twitter. "Farewell Adam West.

You were MY Batman," Wright wrote. "Such a super funny, cool, charismatic actor. Loved the show as a kid, still love the show now. POW!" Headland wrote: "My childhood hero & still my favorite Batman. RIP Adam West. #pow" West was married three times and had six children. He had homes in Los Angeles and Palm Springs, but he and his wife, Marcelle, spent most of their time at their ranch near Sun Valley, Idaho. "Our dad always saw himself as The Bright Knight, and aspired to make a positive impact on his fans' lives," West's children said in the statement. "He was and always will be our
