Vintage treasures can be found both indoors and outdoors at the Love of Junk event Friday and Saturday at Swenson Farm near Walla Walla.

Love of Junk offers vintage treasures in Walla Walla

East Oregonian

Recently ranked number four on a list of top flea markets in Washington, the Love of Junk offers shoppers cool finds, salvaged materials, repurposed objects and vintage items for the home, garden or gift giving.

The junker's paradise is Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Swenson Farm, 253 Valley Chapel Road, Walla Walla. There's a $5 entry fee (ages 12-and-under are free).

People can enjoy their "hunting" adventure with 80 vendors, housed inside a huge shed and on the grass acreage. Picnic tables located beneath large shade trees offer a place to listen to live music and enjoy purchases made from food trucks.

Vendors from across the Pacific Northwest and beyond will be on hand for the event. Even a pair of Hermiston vendors are returning for the event. Barbara Floyd said Cynthia Troner, owner of C and R Mercantile Co., will be the highlight of the front and center booths in the main building, and anchoring the back left corner of the main building for the past five years is Mary Gressley with Compass Rose Trading Co.

"Both vendors are very popular and well received at our event," Floyd said.
