DEAR ABBY

Teen tells mom to stay away during his band performances

JEANNE PHILLIPS Advice

Dear Abby: My 15-year-old son will be entering 10th grade. He has been a member of the school band since sixth grade...

have accomplished more than I ever thought I could (considering my upbringing), traveled as much as I wanted, always strived to be a good husband and father...

Now, whenever there's a concert, festival, parade or football game, I stay away, although I love to listen and watch the band play. When I don't attend, I feel hurt all over again...

and have good relationships, but nothing excites me anymore. Honestly, if the Grim Reaper tapped me on the shoulder and said, 'Pack your bags; tomorrow's the day,' I'd just shrug and ask, 'What time?'

I have been to the doctor. He said I'm depressed, but I don't FEEL depressed. I think the meds he put me on made me depressed! I went to a couple of therapists who told me I don't need therapy...

Dear Missing The Show: Have you ASKED your son why your presence makes him nervous when he performs? His answer might be enlightening...

Dear Wallowing: You are not the only person who feels this way, and NO, you don't have to keep 'wallowing.' It appears you are experiencing a plain old-fashioned midlife crisis...

Dear Abby: Life has me worn out. I

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

Today is the 167th day of 2017. There are 198 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:

On June 16, 1967, the three-day Monterey International Pop Music Festival, a major event of the 'Summer of Love,' opened in northern California...

On this date: In 1567, Mary, Queen of Scots, was imprisoned in Lochleven Castle in Scotland. (She escaped almost a year later but ended up imprisoned again.)

In 1858, accepting the Illinois Republican Party's nomination for the U.S. Senate, Abraham Lincoln said the slavery issue had to be resolved, declaring, 'A house divided against itself cannot stand.'

In 1903, Ford Motor Co. was incorporated.

In 1933, the National Industrial Recovery Act became law with President Franklin D. Roosevelt's signature. (The Act was later struck down by the U.S. Supreme Court.)

In 1942, a second four-man team of Nazi saboteurs landed in Florida, three days after another group arrived on Long Island, New York. (The plot was foiled when two members of the first team agreed to betray their comrades.)

In 1956, poets Sylvia Plath and Ted Hughes were married in London.

In 1963, the world's first female space traveler, Valentina Tereshkova, 26, was launched into orbit by the Soviet Union aboard Vostok 6; she spent 71 hours in flight, circling the Earth 48 times before returning safely.

In 2015, real estate mogul Donald Trump launched his successful campaign to become President of the United States with a speech at Trump Tower in Manhattan.
