OBITUARIES

Dale Duane Mowan
Hermiston
January 13, 1940-June 1, 2017

Dale Duane Mowan, 77, passed away Thursday, June 1, 2017 in Boise, Idaho. He was born to Alva and Irene Mowan on January 13, 1940 in Ansel Township, Minnesota. They moved to Hermiston, Ore., in 1942, where Dale grew up. He worked hard as a meat cutter for 23 years. He then returned to school, graduated at the age of 50 as a registered nurse and worked until he retired at the age of 68. He enjoyed fly fishing, camping, playing his beloved guitar and spending time with his family and friends. He was always willing to enthusiastically take on a challenge, as he proved throughout his life. (Carpe Diem!)

Mowan

He was a proud Christian man who loved life and fought a difficult battle with cancer, never giving up hope. He always thought of his family's needs and his strong faith in our Lord gave his family their strength. Throughout his life there was always abundant music, laughter and love.

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be*

*So He put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you
dearly
We couldn't make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands
put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

—By Frances & Kathleen Coelho

He is survived by his wife, Irene Mowan; his daughters Tracey Brunning, Lonni Mowan and step-daughter, Linda Cromwell; Janet Mowan, mother of Tracey and Lonni; his sisters Joyce Rollins and Gail Perry. We will miss your beautiful grin, your twinkling blue eyes and we will forever love you Dale/Dad. Celebration of Life to be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, August 19, 2017 at Trinity Church of Tri-Cities, 1007 Wright Avenue, Richland, Washington, 99352.

PENDLETON
Symphony offers strings music camp

East Oregonian

A music camp for violin, viola, cello and bass players is being offered to preschool through high school-aged string players.

Oregon East Symphony's Summer Strings Music Camp is open to beginners to advanced players who can read some music. The camp is July 31 through Aug. 4 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Peace Lutheran Church, 210 N.W. Ninth St., Pendleton. Participants must bring their own lunch. In addition, beginning Suzuki violin players who do not read music can enroll in a 9-10:30 a.m. class.

The program brings together a teaching staff of experienced professional musicians and music educators from across the Pacific Northwest. This year's instructors include Oregon East Symphony concertmaster Lisa Robertson, Patricia Potter, a former Pendleton School District strings instructor who is currently with the Ashland School District; Zach Banks, an Oregon East Symphony cellist and Portland State University orchestra manager; Austin Schlichting, a composer and violinist based in Olympia, Washington; Preludes Preparatory Orchestra conductor Melinda Tovey and assistant conductor Emma Knight.

The cost is $100. Registrations received by Thursday, July 13 will receive a $20 discount. Financial assistance is available for those in need. For more information and registration forms, contact the symphony office at oesofficeinfo@gmail.com, 541-216-0320 or camp director Loree Tucker-McKenna at loree5645@gmail.com or 541-276-4237.

May blood drive collects 28 units

With a goal of 31 units, the May 15 American Red Cross blood drive at Good Shepherd Medical Center in Hermiston was slightly below, collecting 28.

Patti Perkins said a large number of appointments were missed. While donors can walk-in, Perkins said it's important to make an appointment to help in staffing the blood drives. However, she added, it's important for people to keep their appointments.

Blood products are always in high demand, Perkins said, and as the summer months approach, there is an increased need.

"Your donation of blood can help save the lives of up to three people," Perkins said. "It is a small amount of the donor's time to save lives."

The May canteen was furnished by Eastern Star. A service group is needed for December's canteen duties. For more information, call Perkins at 541-571-5372.

The next Good Shepherd blood drive is Monday, June 19 from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at 610 N.W. 11th St., Hermiston. To make an appointment, call 800-448-3543.

Field trip features butterfly expert

PENDLETON — Members of the Pendleton Bird Club are going on a field trip that focuses on butterflies and moths. Matt Campbell, who teaches biology at Pendleton High School and is a local expert on native butterflies and moths, will host the event. Those interested in attending can meet Saturday at 11 a.m. on the east side of the Umatilla County Health Department building, 200 S.E. Third St., Pendleton. From there, participants can carpool and caravan up the Umatilla River road to the Umatilla Forks campground area. Those planning to attend are encouraged to bring snacks, drinks and binoculars.

Campbell raises butterflies and moths as a hobby and is familiar with host plants. People interested in leaning more about the local butterfly/moth populations won't want to miss this field trip.

For more information, contact Jack Simons at pendletonbirdclub@gmail.com.

Brown reinstates Governor's Arts Awards

SALEM — Governor Kate Brown, in partnership with the Oregon Arts Commission, has reinstated the Governor's Arts Awards.

After a 10-year hiatus, the event's revival honors the Arts Commission's 50 years of service to Oregon's arts community.

"Art is a fundamental ingredient of any thriving and vibrant community," Brown said. "Art sparks connections between people, movements, and new ideas. To put it simply, art makes life better."

The Governor's Arts Awards recognizes individuals, organizations, and arts supporters who have made significant contributions to the arts in Oregon. The awards are open to any individual, organization, or community that currently resides in or has a significant presence in Oregon and has made outstanding contributions to the arts in the state. Past Governor's Arts Awards recipients are not eligible. Nominations must be submitted by Friday, June 30 at www.oregonartscommission.org.

Recipients will be notified Friday, July 28. Award recipients will be honored in a ceremony at Friday, Oct. 6 at 8 a.m. at the Portland Hilton Downtown.

Submit information to: community@eastoregonian.com or drop off to the attention of Tammy Malgesini at 333 E. Main St., Hermiston or Renee Struthers at 211 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton. Call 541-564-4539 or 541-966-0818 with questions.
