Chicken dinner lures lumber industry to Pilot Rock

1 Moltke, one of the founders of the Pilot Rock Lumber Company, wrote a booklet about the early history of the company for a union get-together in 1954. He told Virgil Rupp of the East Oregonian in a June 1977 interview that it was a chicken dinner in the "wild and wooly cowtown" of Ukiah that brought him, Elmer Kerns and R.B. Fields from Wenatchee, Wash., to Eastern Oregon in 1939.

The three men, who worked for Wenatchee Box Corporation, were looking for a new field of operations because their timber supply was running out. Kerns had already made an initial trip to the area near Pilot Rock, and reported that not only was there a stand of virgin timber worth drooling over, the cattle also roamed the area in grass up to their bellies. Moltke took a look with Kerns in the fall of 1939 and liked what he saw. But it was the 50-cent all-you-can-eat chicken dinners in Ukiah that sealed the deal for Fields

Moltke was a little disappointed with Pilot Rock at first, however. He was expecting "a picturesque Columbia River port," not realizing that the rock for which the town was named was a stony butte that had been used as a landmark for early settlers.

But the forests impressed the trio, and Kerns set about tying up 300 million feet of timber that Merritt Griswold and the Eastern Oregon Timber Syndicate had tried to exploit as early as 1906 but gave up on during World War I. And while the 55-mile haul over Battle Mountain was a daunting prospect, Moltke envisioned a day when big diesel trucks and trailers would solve the problem.

The Wenatchee men negotiated with Newt Toyer, Rupe Erwin and George Carnes to develop a mill site in Pilot Rock, which broke ground Feb. 19, 1940, and opened June 19, just four months later. The Kerns Co. remanufacturing plant opened in June 1943 to make ammunition boxes for World War II. It converted to peacetime commodities such as ironing boards and furniture parts at the end of the war in 1945.

The original mill is still in operation today, under the ownership of Louisiana-Pacific Corp.

Forced to give up the use of oil because of the advancing the O.-W.R.&N. railroad company has been hard pressed to obtain a fuel supply. The company itself owns the Tono coal mine near Centralia and is planning to use that coal despite the fact it is soft lignite thus calling for heavy consumption. It will be necessary for the company to maintain two firemen with each engine or else install the automatic stokers which have a capacity of five tons per hour. It has been decided to do this and the expense of fitting the locomotives with stokers will be $2,300 each.

The Port of Umatilla Commission Monday voted approval for a project to determine the interest in irrigation water for farms in the area from Pendleton north of the Umatilla River, northeast to Adams and north to Wildhorse Creek. Another area to be studied is northwest of Pendleton in the Stage Gulch district. The area covers over 50,000 acres.

The Pendleton Pay Pak store is among those that will close if the Federal Bankruptcy Court gives the company permission to liquidate. Ryan DeMares, a media relations consultant for Pay'N Pak, confirmed that all stores in the company's 12-state Western region face closure, including the Pendleton store. which employs 16 people. "It's always possible that this will increase our business,' said Jim Naughton, owner of Zimmerman and Co. in downtown Pendleton. "But Pay 'N Pak carries a lot of products that seem to be voided that we don't see in our hardware store." Naughton said his competition from Pay 'N Pak is needed as part of a healthy local economy.

Western Michigan city breaks sand angel world record

LUDINGTON, Mich. (AP) — A western Michigan city has broken a mark set by the Guinness World Records for the most people simultaneously making sand angels at a beach.

The Ludington Daily News and The Muskegon Chronicle report 1,387 people angelically assembled on a Lake Michigan beachfront in Ludington on Saturday and worked their magic for 30 seconds. That far surpasses the roughly 350 who made sand angels for 15 seconds two years ago in Pembrokeshire, Wales.

A Guinness judge verified the record.

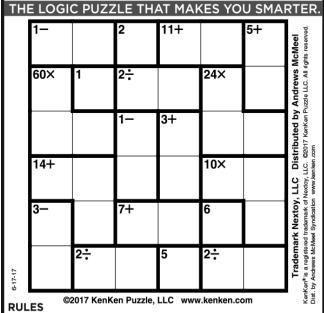

The Spectrum Health Ludington Hospital Foundation organized the event, which had a $20 suggested donation, raised money for the hospital's cancer service center.
