3:39 p.m. - A coolant line split on one of the Morrow County Sheriff's Office Marine Patrol boats. The sheriff's office in a written statement reported high winds stranded the vessel on a sand bar near Crow Butte on the Columbia River. Four members of the Boardman Rural Fire Protection District, an off-duty Boardman police officer and a citizen recovered the boat, which sustained minimal damage.

All members of the rescue team and the boats were back at the Boardman marina around 9 p.m.

8:37 p.m. - A woman told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office a male she "has had an on-and-off-again relationship with, kind of" stole her car at gunpoint. She said the suspect pulled a gun on her and her friend at Maple Crest Apartments, 700 S.W. Wilson Lane, Boardman, and forced them out of the car, then took off in it. She said the vehicle is in her name, but he bought it for her as a gift.

SUNDAY

1:04 a.m. - An Oregon State Police trooper tried to stop a motorcyclist who was going 45 mph in a 35 mph zone on Tutuilla Creek Road near Tahoe Avenue, Pendleton. The trooper informed Umatilla tribal police to be on the lookout.

10:35 a.m. - Law enforcement in Morrow County responded to the westbound side on Interstate 84 near Boardman for a woman kicking the window of a black Chevrolet Cruz in an effort to get out. Officers found she was having an anxiety attack due to a dog defecating in the back seat.

5:48 p.m. - Noisy neighbors pushed a Boardman man to threaten to take action into his own hands.

The caller told the Morrow County dispatch the neighbors at Wilson Lane and Rippee Road, Boardman, were playing loud music, and he would like a sheriff's deputy to tell them to turn it

He called back and said a deputy has not responded, and he asked them to quiet down, and they refused. The dispatcher told him the deputy was on a priority call and would handle the noise complaint as soon as possible. The man yelled at the dispatcher and said he would make it a priority by getting his gun.

The dispatcher let him know that was not an option he should take.

Once the deputy arrived, the man apologized for making the threats. The deputy asked the neighbors to turn it down, and they said they would.

"Babcia" Helen Jaworksi

Hermiston

August 8, 1924 - June 17, 2017

Love God, love each other and enjoy life, especially your youth!

That is what "Babcia" (grandma in Polish) wanted to leave as parting wisdom to her family. She didn't need to say that because her whole life was an example of her trust and love for God and love for people. It was always incomprehensible to her when she would hear of people hating each other or holding grudges, especially towards another family member. "How can that be?" she would ask. Babcia lived under German occupation in Poland during the prime of her youth, age 15-21 and another 20 years under Communist occupation. Her many stories about the war always had the same underlying message: All people are capable of doing good or bad, whether they are Germans, Russians, Poles, Jews, Christians, rich or poor. Under German occupation, she asked a German soldier why he looked so sad. He was surprised that a Pole saw "him" as a person and not just his Nazi uniform. She replied — "I may hate you as my country's enemy, but I don't hate you as a human being." Her life was full of such seemingly simple statements and actions that will remain forever in our memories.

Growing up in the poor Polish village of Podborze, Helen loved to travel the map in school. She never imagined at that time that she would one day live in America — or visit Alaska, places she read and dreamed about!

Helen, her and children, Marian, George, John and Anna immigrated

> America in 1964, settling in New Jersey. Helen has lived in Hermiston since 1988 with daughter Anna Rademacher, "son-in-love" Dave and grandchildren Ryan, Kasia and Mark. Her two sons, George and John, and eight grandchildren (Janusz, Chris, Scott, Justyn, Roland, Natasha, Christie and Katie) are scattered across the USA and the world.

Services celebrating Babcia's life will be held on Wednesday, June 21 at Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church: Rosary at 10:30 a.m., Mass at 11 a.m. Lunch will follow at the parish hall at noon. If you knew Babcia, please come to any or all of the services.

Contributions in Helen's memory may be made to Franciscan Missions or Our Lady of Angels Religious Education c/o of Burns Mortuary of Hermiston.

Private family burial will be at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

Please sign the online condolence book at burnsmortuaryhermiston.com Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, Oregon is in care of arrangements.
