

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

12:21 a.m. - Stanfield police received 9-1-1 reports of a female screaming at the Stanfield RV Park, 355 S. Main St.
 1:34 a.m. - One semi driver at the Pilot Travel Center, 2115 S. Highway 395, Stanfield, reported another driver assaulted him.
 5:49 a.m. - A male, possibly intoxicated, and wearing all black on West Joseph Avenue, Hermiston, kicked yard lights.
 8:16 a.m. - A man reported the theft of his tools from his trailer on Southwest Dorion Avenue, Pendleton. He said the crime happened Friday.
 9:56 a.m. - Umatilla residents on Truman Avenue reported vandalism on a sidewalk in front of their house. About 40 minutes later, a caller at The Links Senior Apartments, 310 Klickitat St., told police someone damaged her car and the rose she planted over the weekend was gone.
 12:45 p.m. - A Hermiston man reported he received an IRS phone scam message and wanted to advise police.
 12:57 p.m. - Pilot Rock police continue to enforce the city's code on cleaning up property. This time police talked to a resident on Southwest Fourth Street.
 1:19 p.m. - A caller on Magic Garden Lane, Irrigon, reported a male threatened him and his roommates.
 2:11 p.m. - An irrigator off Paterson Ferry Road, Irrigon, told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office someone stole 40 brass sprinkler heads. The caller was also concerned the thief would come back and steal the other half.
 3:39 p.m. - A man told Pendleton police he dropped an envelope containing $400 at the Walmart Supercenter, 2203 S.W. Court Ave. He said he went back to get it and found the envelope but the money was gone.
 5:22 p.m. - A caller at Brannon's Auto Repair, 126 E. May St., Heppner, reported he talked to four juveniles who were jumping off the sidewalk and into the street, pretending to jump in front of vehicles. The caller said perhaps a deputy also could talk to them.
 6:45 p.m. - A Morrow County sheriff's deputy responded to a complaint about a blue healer at large at the Irrigon Skate Park. The deputy warned the dog's owners they would receive a $250 citation for each dog running free. The owners said they're working on a kennel.
 8:03 p.m. - Farmers moving equipment at S Edwards Road and Walchli Lane, Hermiston, received some help from a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy.
 11:04 p.m. - Someone, a 9-1-1 caller reported, threw a rock at their dark green Volkswagen Jetta on the 2000 block of Southeast Court Avenue, Pendleton.
 11:20 p.m. - Hermiston police received a third-party report of an assault on Northwest 11th Street.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Pendleton police at 11:54 p.m. received a report of a male on the 600 block of Southeast Seventh Street "screaming at the top of lungs" and using a lot of profanity. Police arrested the 35-year-old man for the misdemeanor offense of second-degree disorderly conduct.

BRIEFLY

Man pleads guilty to sex crimes against children

RIETH — Jason Glen Drake of Rieth is prison bound after pleading guilty to two counts of attempted first-degree sodomy.
 Drake, 42, pleaded guilty last Wednesday in Umatilla County Circuit Court, Hermiston, to the pair of class B felonies. Circuit Judge Eva Temple sentenced Drake on Monday to four years in state prison for the crimes.
 Umatilla County sheriff's detectives began investigating Drake in March 2016, according to a written statement from the sheriff's office, after a mother reported she suspected him of inappropriate contact with her two children, both younger than 12. The investigation led to Drake's arrest later that month and to charges of first-degree sodomy and sexual abuse.
 Court documents show Drake agreed to a plea bargain. He will receive credit for the time he spent in the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, and he is eligible for sentence reductions for good behavior. Drake also must register as a sex offender and cannot have contact with his victims.

Hermiston woman dies in crash

An 18-year-old Hermiston woman died Monday afternoon in a single-vehicle crash off of I-82 while traveling from Hermiston to Kennewick.
 Washington State Police reported that Maia Taylor died at the scene.
 The report states that Taylor's red 2015 Chrysler 200 was traveling west on I-82, when the vehicle left the roadway, rolled several times and came to rest on its wheels.
 The cause of the crash is unknown and police say they do not know if alcohol or drugs were a factor. Police reported that Taylor was not wearing a seatbelt at the time of the accident.
 Boardman Police Department assisted, notifying Taylor's mother who works in Boardman.

David Arlen Franklin

Thornhollow
April 10, 1945 — June 2, 2017

David Arlen Franklin was born to Lorena Sams and Claude Franklin at Thornhollow, Oregon. He attended Thornhollow grade school, he graduated in 1954 from Weston High School where he excelled in and received numerous awards for his athleticism in football, basketball and track/field, and he was chosen to play in the East/West Shriners Football Game.

Franklin

Arlen was a Veteran of the Navy Forces stationed on the U.S.S. Cogswell. He enlisted in 1954 and was honorably discharged in 1958. He moved back to the Thornhollow/Gibbon area where he met the love of his life Martha Quempt and they were married in 1961. Arlen was a hard worker building many facilities within the Pendleton area. He assisted in the construction of St. Anthony's, helped to build the highway between Arlington/Boardman area and several highways within the Pendleton area. Arlen's passion was horses, ranching and cattle. He assisted his uncles, neighbors and many ranchers on the tribal horse roundup's each year.

He was also an avid hunter and fisherman. He enjoyed catching, preparing and sharing the elk, deer and fish meat with family, neighbors and families in need throughout the reservation. Arlen could always be seen fishing at his favorite spot at Cascade Locks, Oregon on the scaffolds each spring and summer sharing fishing and river stories and his knowledge of the tribal fishing treaties.

Arlen is survived by his wife Martha Franklin, children Paula Wallis (Jim), David Franklin (Sandy), grandchildren Cassandra, Jeremiah (Mindy), Josh (Ashley), Jessica, Rachael and Jacob; great grandchildren Hayden, Abi, Paityn, Paxton, Harper.

In lieu of flowers please donate to the CTUIR George St. Dennis Auxiliary or Tribal Fire Department in Arlen's honor. Online condolences may be sent to www.pioneerchapel.com.

Those who wish may make memorial contributions in memory of Marowyn Zerba to the Grace Presbyterian Church or the Zerba Memorial Wrestling fund in care of the Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home, 902 S. Main, Milton-Freewater, Oregon.

Zerba

Marowyn Bowden Zerba was born on October 17, 1923 the daughter of Cecil and Lillie (Petersen) Bowden in Gypsum, Kansas. Marowyn attended school in Gypsum. Upon graduating high school, she moved to Salina, Kansas where she completed nurses training during World War II.

It was during this time that Marowyn met Ellis Clark Zerba while he was serving in the United States Air Force. On September 18, 1943 Clark and Marowyn were married in Topeka, Kansas. Upon Clark's honorable discharge from the military the couple moved to Milton-Freewater in 1945.

Marowyn worked as nurse at St. Mary Hospital and the Walla Walla Clinic for 30 years where she retired as the head of nursing. Marowyn was a member of the Grace Presbyterian Church, was a member of the Eastern Oregon Presbyterian Women and served on the Milton-Freewater Senior Center board for many years. She enjoyed knitting, playing bridge and working in her flower garden. In 2007, Marowyn was honored by the Milton-Freewater Chamber of Commerce with the Golden Pioneer Award.

Survivors include her sons, John (Alicia) Zerba and Cecil (Marilyn) Zerba of Milton-Freewater; sister, Janet Supple of Tacoma, Washington; 8 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren and other relatives and friends. Her parents, husband Ellis Clark Zerba; son Scott Zerba and a brother John Bowden all preceded her in death. To leave a condolence online visit: www.munsellerhodes.com
