HERMISTON — Four local student-athletes picked up scholarships from the Kings & Queens couples golf tournament.

Hermiston's Sydney Adams and Anders Lind, Pendleton's Haley Greb, and Heppner's Logan Grieb all received $750 awards from the tournament, earned by participating on high school golf teams and college enrollment. The annual tournament, now in its seventh year at Big River Golf Course, has presented more than $8,000 to 12 graduating golfers.

"Our goal is to encourage young golfers to participate in the game as members of high school teams," said Kings & Queens Chairman Don Obrist in a statement. "We believe there are many life lessons to be learned from golf and team athletics that deserve our support."

The 2017 Kings & Queens tournament is scheduled for July 23-24 at Big River. two-day, 36-hole flighted tournament. For more information, contact Obrist at 541-571-0572.

Hermiston holds annual Volleyball Camp

On June 20-22, the Hermiston High School volleyball program held a youth volleyball camp for local third through eighth graders. Approximately 30 campers from Hermiston and the surrounding areas participated and learned basic volleyball skills, where they were instructed by the Hermiston Volleyball coaching staff and HHS athletes.

It marked the first order of business for Hermiston's new varsity head coach Amy Dyck.

BABE RUTH: Red Sox had tying run at second in seventh inning

Both teams offenses took advantage of some inconsistent pitching and spotty defense early, combining for 11 runs in the first two innings. The Red Sox opened the scoring in the first inning when Aiden Gunter hit a two-out, two-run single up the middle for a 2-0 lead.

In the bottom half, the Athletics responded with three runs of their own when Ty Beers hit a two-run double to right field and then Jack Monkman followed with an RBI single for a 3-2 lead.

Athletics starting pitcher Beers then began to have control issues in the second inning, as he walked three and hit a batter and then gave up an RBI single to Brogan Biggerstaff and walked in a run to put Big John's back on top 5-3.

"The team we played, they're a great team," Drake said of the Red Sox, "and we had games like this every time we played them. It was a toss-up tonight and could of went either way. It was a fun game to be a part of."

But once again, Thompson RV answered right back when Jackson Davis, Josh Whaley, Sid Davis and Grady Naughton rattled off four-straight singles and then Jones hit an RBI groundout to put the Athletics up 6-5.

After trading two runs in the third and fourth innings, the Red Sox tied the game in the top of the fifth when Biggerstaff smacked an RBI single to score Carson Moore to even the score at 8-8.

Biggerstaff was the top offensive performer for the Red Sox, reaching base safely in all four plate appearances with two walks, two hits, two RBI and one run scored.

But after that hit, Jones retired six straight batters and allowed his offense to get going again. After a scoreless fifth, the Athletics re-took the lead for good in the sixth inning, when Monkman scored from third base on a passed ball for the 9-8 advantage.

The Red Sox had a chance to tie the game in the seventh, when Max Cary hit a two-out double to center field and represented the tying run just 180 feet away.

"I'm not going to lie, I was pretty nervous there," Jones said of the situation. "But I'm glad I shook it off, got in the zone and did my thing."

And Jones closed the door, inducing a groundball to second base for the third out to clinch the championship.

"I think I had more fun than the kids did," Drake said. "This is what every kid sets out to do. You want to develop kids and teach them the game, but it's always fun to win too."

"We played hard and finished it out and props to the kids, they did it all, I just stood there and coached."
