Feves gallery utilizes cultural coalition grant

The Betty Feves Memorial Gallery at Blue Mountain Community College is the recipient of a Umatilla County Cultural Coalition grant.

The $650 grant is earmarked to pay for shipping expenses for artwork from artists residing outside the Pacific Northwest whose exhibits are featured in the Betty Feves Memorial Gallery. Traditionally, the gallery doesn't have money available for shipping expenses, and artists incur the cost themselves. The grant allows the gallery to work with artists outside the Pacific Northwest region to assist with cross-country shipping expenses.

So far, grant funds have been used to ship Ginger Owen and Vicki van Ameyden's "Heritage Habitats" pieces — an experiential sculptural installation about ancestry — from Michigan for a show in April. Money will next be used to ship Chris Troutman's "Drawn Narratives" pieces in October for a special display at the BMCC Baker County Center before being exhibited Nov. 9 through Dec. 7 at the Feves gallery.

The mission of the Umatilla County Cultural Coalition is to represent and support arts, heritage and humanities throughout the county. Through its Local Grants Program, the cultural coalition provides funding to support the goals of the Umatilla County Cultural Plan. The coalition receives its funding from the Oregon Cultural Trust.

The Betty Feves Memorial Gallery is a nonprofit exhibit space connecting emerging and established artists and their work with students, staff and the general public in Eastern Oregon. The gallery hosts six exhibits per year. Opening receptions are held for each exhibit, providing opportunities for visitors to meet the artists and hear about their work.

For more information, contact gallery director Lori Sams at 541-2788-5952 or lsams@bluecc.edu.

Pet of the Week

Hey everyone my name is Milo! I am a super friendly pug mix with long legs. I get along just great with other dogs and I don't really care much about cats. I love to ride in the car and also give hugs. I need a home where someone can be with me all of the time or take me with them. I am a sensitive little guy who will give you a lot of love. I am house-trained and leash trained. I am neutered, up to date on my shots and micro-chipped. Please come to PAWS and visit me. It gets really lonely down here and I need a forever friend. My adoption fee is just $130 and I am willing and ready to go to a new home today!
