Free art classes for teens at PCA

PENDLETON — Pendleton Center for the Arts continues its free teen classes this summer for youth 13 to 18! A three-day workshop on July 11-13 from 3 to 5 p.m. each day teaches young filmmakers the techniques to create stop motion animation, such as "claymation." Teens interested in pottery can get some practice throwing and sculpting clay forms on the pottery wheel in a pair of three-day sessions, July 18-20 and 25-27, from 3 to 5 p.m. Call to register: 541-278-9201.

It takes a picnic to teach a child

HERMISTON — Parents are their child's first and most important teacher. Umatilla/Morrow County Head Start invites you to help them grow. Learning Picnics is a free series of Thursday morning sessions designed to give children 0-6 and their parent/caregiver an opportunity to explore, learn, and build important literacy skills. The picnics are set for July 6, 13, 20, and 27 from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at Butte Park (Funland), 1245 NW Seventh St. Both English and Spanish speakers are welcome. Free books and activities are provided each week, along with a chance to win a child's library. For details call 541-667-6091.

Lifeways offers kids a free day camp

UMATILLA — Lifeways' REACH Program again brings its free summer day camp to Umatilla County children entering grades 1 to 12. Kids learn positive life skills in areas of friendship, impulse control, social-emotional, and resilience through recreational play, arts and crafts, animated movies, and discussion.

Wellness components include free dental screenings and dental learning lab for the children to participate and learn about oral hygiene. McNary Heights Elementary School (120 Columbia Ave.), where the camp is held, also offers free breakfast, lunch, and dinner to area youth during the summer. The REACH day camp runs Mon. to Thurs., July 10-27, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. A similar camp is planned for Milton-Freewater in August. Registration packets are available at www.lifeways.org or by calling 541-276-6207.
