

HERMISTON Cool Rides revs up for annual car show

By TAMMY MALGESINI East Oregonian

The Cool Rides Car Show cruises into town during Hermiston Funfest weekend.

In its 22nd year, the show revs up Friday with a poker run at 6 p.m. at McKenzie Park, 320 S. First St. Mary Melton, Cool Rides co-coordinator, said it doesn't matter if people are driving a cool classic car, a brand new Toyota or anything in between — everyone who antes up the $5 fee can participate.

People will visit five local businesses, including the Hermiston Raceway Park. In addition to picking up a card for their poker hand, drivers can take a spin around the oval track.

"If you've ever wanted to drive your car on the track, now is your chance," Melton said.

Cash prizes will be give for the highest and lowest hands. In addition, Express Car Audio has donated a pair of car stereos, which includes installation, for top hands. After everyone returns to the park, there will be a potluck dinner. The Hermiston Classics Car Club is providing chicken.

The car show shifts into overdrive Saturday with registration from 7-11 a.m. Advance vehicle registration is $20. Day of car show entries are $25 each. Dash plaques and T-shirts will be given to the first 150 registrants. There is no fee for spectators.

Also, Saturday's event offers a poker walk. The cost is $5 and people will visit a handful of local businesses in hopes of getting a decent hand. Cash prizes will be awarded.

During the car show, live music, food and vendors will be available at the park — including Damsels in Distress and Badder Ink. And nearly 20 classes of vehicles will receive cash prizes, including four $100 awards and the rest $50.

Specialty classes, Melton said, adds to the fun factor. With tongue firmly planted in

Stick around for Hermiston Funfest

In its 11th year, Funfest offers a cornucopia of family-friendly activities Saturday from 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. in downtown Hermiston.

The festival features the Hermiston Rotary Club Funfest Breakfast, children's activities, including lots of new games where kids can win prizes galore. Also, adults won't want to miss a chance to enter the Cash Machine.

More than 50 booths, including activities, games, merchandise and food, will be available to festival-goers. In addition, Debbie Pedro, Hermiston Chamber of Commerce executive director, said there's a fantastic lineup of main stage entertainment, including Big Top the Clown, Gems and Gents, Abigail Hernandez, Bram Brata Youth Steel Band, Josephine Reli and Joseph Konty.

Returning to the event are the popular Outlaw Lawn Dragsters. The souped-up mowing machines will tear up Main Street with racing action. Also back are a group of wood carvers. The chainsaw-wielding artists will be making and selling their unique wooden creations.

Also, held in conjunction with the event is the Eastern Oregon Arts Show. Presented by Desert Arts Council, the juried show features more than $1,700 in prizes. It runs 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the tent area by Hermiston City Hall.

After Funfest, stick around for Around the World in One Fun Day. A cultural event highlighting Polynesia, Nepal, the Philippines, American Indians and more, the event features stage entertainment, food sampling and educational information. It runs from 4-7 p.m. at Second and Main streets.

For more information about Funfest, call 541-567-6151 or visit www.hermistonchamber.com.

cheek, a representative from the Hermiston Police Department will choose the winner of "most likely to get a ticket on the way home."

"It just makes it fun," Melton said. "We want everyone to have a good time."

The Hermiston Classics Car Club meets the first Friday of each month at Desert Lanes, 1545 N. First St. In addition, during the summer months, the group cruises each Friday night and hangs out at Les Schwab Tire Center, 830 N. First St.
