Valadia Marie 'Dea' Hunt

Hermiston

September 8, 1963 - July 1, 2017

Valadia "Dea" Marie Hunt, 53, of Hermiston passed away at her home on Saturday July 1, 2017.

Dea was born September 8, 1963, in Denver, Colorado, to Dawn and Clay Price. As a young girl, she was adopted by Mary and Casey Denny and lived in Pilot Rock throughout her childhood where she graduated high school. She lived in Pendleton before moving to Hermiston, where she resided her remaining 25 years.

Hunt

She gave birth to, and loved dearly, three children: Valeen, Trenton and Alen. Dea married Greg Hunt on Sunday, October 13, 2002. They lived as husband and wife and best friends until her passing. Everyone knew her heart beat for her grandchildren Nolan, Sophia, Gracy, Justice, Ember, Emma Lucas and Emmett.

Dea loved to create. She often expressed herself through glass etching, jewelry-making, penmanship, and woodworking. Dea and Greg thrived in the outdoors together; often packing up at a moment's notice and heading for an unknown destination to spend time together with nature under the stars.

She had a whimsical spirit and loved anything black. She found comfort in things considered "weird," was as serious about Halloween as most are Christmas and LOVED scaring people.

Ellington Tice Waite

King George, Va.

June 23, 2017

Ellington Tice Waite, 2-year-old son of Kresimir and Shelbey Waite, passed away Friday, June 23, 2017.

He was a member of the King George Ward of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. His loving smile brought happiness to all who knew him. He loved being in the middle of any activity involving his family. Ellington sat on the counter to help Mom cook, threw the dice for everyone during board games, participated in family scriptures and prayers, and helped with yard and garden work. He played indoors and out with his siblings, enjoyed family campouts, and played in water anywhere he could find it. He enjoyed swimming, piggyback rides, throwing things in the koi pond, chasing the cats and chickens, and making friends with dogs.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by his siblings Libby, Elden, Eli, Elliot and Ellis Waite; his maternal great-grandmother Delna Carson; his maternal grandparents Brenda and Norman Hogg; his paternal grandparents Dennis and Peni Waite; 30 aunts and uncles; and 43 cousins.

A funeral service will be held Tuesday, June 27 at 11 a.m. in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Fredericksburg, Va. Burial followed the next day in Quantico National Cemetery, Triangle, Va.

Online condolences may be left for the family at www.storkefuneralhome.com.

She saw every horror movie produced and watched so much true crime, she had the mastermind to pull off anything. She adored all things miniature, missed the 1970s, loved rock and roll and couldn't wait for the remake of Steven King's "It." She cherished all critters and was as gentle with a spider as most are with babies.

She had tenderness like no other. This was said for any person or thing that needed it, but especially true for those misunderstood, unappreciated, sad or lonely. Her heart was always wide open for anyone who wanted in and she felt everything as deeply as the cumulative depth of the souls she touched. Dea measured her life by the people she loved and loved her in return.

Dea is loved and survived by her husband, Greg; daughters Valeen Madden and Becky Pettey; sons Trenton Storm and Alen Storm; sisters Linda Surber and Melanie Kay Gregory; brother Sean Price; and grandchildren Nolan and Sophia Madden, Gracy, Justice and Ember Storm, Emma Naylor and Lucas and Emmett Pettey.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Spillway Park, Chinook Shelter in Umatilla, Friday July 28, 2017, at 1 p.m.
