Betty 'Dee' Allen Hart

College Place, Wash.
November 26, 1930-June 14, 2017

Betty "Dee" Allen Hart, age 86, passed away peacefully in College Place, Wash., on June 14, 2017.

Dee was born in Phoenix, Ariz., November 26, 1930, to Jack and Adeline Parker. She often reminisced about her early years at Castle Hot Springs in Casa Rosa. After graduating from high school in Phoenix, she attended the University of Arizona. It was there that she met the love of her life, a roper and cowboy named Jim Allen. The couple married in 1950. After living in Tucson near Jim's family, they relocated to Vancouver, Wash., eventually settling in Athena, Ore., where they raised their two sons, Sterling and Kelly.

While in Athena, Dee enjoyed being active in PTA, Athena Study Club, Oregon Cowbells, swimming, her son's 4-H projects, and the cattle business. Dee was an avid sports fan and very involved in the boys' Little League, McEwen High School boosters and later a season ticket holder of the Arizona Cardinals' football team.

After losing her husband to cancer in 1975, Dee moved back to her roots in Arizona. She took care of family members and began a career in real estate. She met Jim Hart and they married in 1983. Dee loved Arizona. She was always eager to have family and friends visit her, swim in the pool, and explore the desert fauna and rich history of the region.

Dee is survived by her brother Jerry Parker; children Sterling (Cheryl) and Kelly (Susan); grandchildren Austin (Rachel) Allen, Meagan Dee Allen, Tommy (Desiree) Allen and Riley (Anna) Allen; and four great-grandchildren.

The family is especially thankful for the exceptional care Dee received at Country View Senior Care during her final years.

She will be laid to rest at the Athena Cemetery. Memorials can be made to the Athena-Weston Educational Foundation, 375 S. 5th St., Athena, OR 97813.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Pendleton Kiwanis award scholarships

The Kiwanis Club of Pendleton recently awarded four $1,000 scholarships to area students who were active members of their schools, churches, and in their respective communities: Avery Madril, Courtney Canfield and Amy Swenson, graduates of Pendleton High School, and Trevor Riedman, a graduate of Pilot Rock High School.

Collectively, the four scholarship recipients' impressive high school resumes included: participation and leadership roles in the performing arts (choral and instrumental music and theater groups), athletic teams, dance team, band and orchestra, student government, church youth groups, and service organizations (including National Honor Society, Key Club, ASTRA, and the Communicare Club.) In addition, this group of scholarship recipients includes a student body president, an Eagle

Scout, an outdoor school counselor and a Sister City Exchange student, to name a few of their accomplishments beyond each of their exemplary academic performances and other successes at Pendleton High School or Pilot Rock High School.

The local Kiwanis Club is proud to award these local teenagers support for their college educations, whose aspirations include careers in business administration, political science, social work, and medicine, and who currently plan to attend either the University of Oregon, the University of Portland, Pacific University, or Linfield College.

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to serving children in their communities, and awarding scholarships to local high school graduates is an annual event for the Kiwanis Club of Pendleton.

HONORS

Wolotira inducted into Oregon Music Hall of Fame

Pendleton High School graduate Jonathan Wolotira, in addition to receiving many scholarships, has also been selected as a 2017 inductee to the Oregon Music Hall of Fame.

"This is a significant honor, and a rare one for our side of the state," said Emily Callender of the PHS music program. "The $2,500 scholarship is exciting, but the recognition that comes with this selection is even more so."

Wolotira took up the guitar at age 8, largely due to the influence of San Diego rock band Switchfoot. He participated during high school as a singer, percussionist and guitarist in three choir and four band ensembles, and is a current member of the Oregon East Symphony, Pendleton Men's Chorus and College Community Theatre.

The OMHOF scholarship will help Wolotira start his college career at Blue Mountain Community College, where he intends to participate in musical theater productions. He will complete his degree at Whitworth College in biophysics and pre-medicine with a minor in music ministry.

Wolotira will participate in a concert featuring 2017 OMHOF inductees Tuesday, July 11 from 5-7 p.m. at the Tony Starlight Dinner Club, 1125 S.E. Madison, Suite 103G, in Portland.
