IRRIGON

Festival features melons, music and fun

By TAMMY MALGESINI East Oregonian

Watermelons and more are featured during the 33rd annual Irrigon Watermelon Festival

The Saturday from 6:30-10 a.m. with a breakfast hosted by the Irrigon Moose Lodge at Irrigon Marina Park. There's a downtown parade at 10 a.m. — which will wind its way back to the marina park where the family-friendly event runs all day and into the night.

'We're trying to get the community involved," said Charlene Cooley. "It's a fun way to build a sense of community.'

While there is no admission fee for the event, people should bring a hearty appetite and some extra change. Food and craft vendors will be available throughout the day. And slices of watermelon are 50 cents each.

Festival-goers will have several ways to beat the heat. A water slide and dunk tank will provide opportunities to get wet. People can also take boat rides onto the Columbia with the Morrow County Sheriff's Office.

In addition, Cooley said a LifeFlight medical helicopter will land at 12:30 p.m. People can take tours and learn more about their services. Also, local firefighters and paramedics will be on hand and using the landing as a live drill to improve their skills.

"It will be neat for people to see our first responders in action," Cooley said.

There are several chances win cash and prizes. The 50/50 raffle has been combined with the event's commemorative button. People who buy an Irrigon Watermelon Festival button for $2 will have a chance to win half the pot. Also, raffle tickets are $1 each or six for $5. Raffle items include gift certificates from area businesses, Tri-City Dust Devil tickets, a sightseeing cruise for two from the Portland Spirit, tickets to Silverwood Theme Park and more.

entertainment Stage features regional talents, including the Irrigon High School cheerleaders & Gems Cheer, Lindzoolie Singers, the Missy G Band, the Coyote Dancers, Aly the Traveling Marimba Busker and Brass Fire. In addition, there will be a community lip sync contest (1 p.m.) and a city leader seed spitting contest (3:45 n m) The city of Irrigon has thrown down the gauntlet, challenging the mayors from eight surrounding communities for bragging rights.

The day crescendos with a street dance from 9 p.m. to midnight. DJ Jeff Richie will be behind the mic.

Derrick Kestler is getting revved up for a great car show during the event. He invites people to join the parade and then display their vehicle for the show. The participation fee is $15 with registration from 9 a.m. to noon. There are multiple categories and trophy presentations will be made at 3 p.m. For more about the car show, call Kestler at 541-571-0421.
