Kids day camp provides county fair fun

East Oregonian

Kids are invited to participate in a special day camp that focuses on activities at the Umatilla County Fair.

Open to kids entering first through fifth grades, space is still available for the Fun @ the Fair Day Camp. The four-day event, held in conjunction with the Umatilla County Fair, runs Tuesday, Aug. 8 through Friday, Aug. 11 from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Eastern Oregon Trade and Event Center, 1705 E. Airport Road, Hermiston. The cost is $65 per person, which includes fair admission, a camp T-shirt and a carnival bracelet (to be distributed at the conclusion of the camp).

Participants need to wear their camp T-shirt each day. It features a logo that reflects the 2017 fair theme of "New Faces, New Places & Old Friends." The day camp logo was created by Paula DiMauro, who won a contest held earlier this year for area youths.

In addition, participants need to bring a sack lunch each day, sunscreen, a water bottle and a backpack. The camp will provide a daily snack.

A fun-filled week of activities, the day camp focuses on things to

Survey seeks input from Echo residents

ECHO — The city of Echo is seeking input from its residents.

Questions range from information about city-maintained streets and dealing with junk cars and debris to thoughts about recreational facilities and housing needs.

Residents are asked to fill out the form and then drop it off at a locked box at Echo City Hall. People do not have to put their name on the survey. When returning the survey, people can take an item from a basket, which includes local soaps, sunscreen, flashlights and garden gloves. Also, those who fill out a raffle ticket will be entered to win a $50 gift certificate from Kopacz Nursery.

The survey is available at www.echo-oregon.com by clicking on "August Editon" of the Echo Newsletter.
