Pendleton holding annual youth football camp

PENDLETON — The Pendleton High School football program is holding its annual youth football camp next week.

From August 7-10, kids in grades 3-8 can have the opportunity to be coached on the fundamentals of the game by Buckaroo coaches and current high school players. The camp will run from 5:30-7 p.m. each night on the freshman football field located at the southwest corner of the school near the Pendleton Aquatic Center.

Aside from fundamentals, the camp will also have flag football games, and a Punt, Pass, Kick, and Run Competition. Campers are suggested to wear cleats or athletic shoes, shorts and the provided camp T-shirt.

The cost of the camp is $50. Registration forms can be picked up and turned in at Dean's Pendleton Athletic on Main Street. Campers can also be registered at the door at the start of the camp.

Hermiston senior garners Oregonian football honor

Hermiston High School senior Dayshawn Neal added to his impressive offseason by making The Oregonian's Top 50 prep football players for 2017 list.

Neal, a wide receiver, checks in at No. 38 on the list, already making the cut from the publications' 10 best receiver list that was published in early July.

After missing most of 2015 due to injury, Neal moved to receiver in 2016 where he burst on the scene as a junior. He caught 51 passes for 911 yards and 12 touchdowns to grab first team all-conference and second team all-state honors.

Neal and his Hermiston Bulldog teammates start the season on Sept. 1 when they travel to Union (WA) for a 7 p.m. kickoff.
