ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday

The Morrow County Sheriff's Office at about 7:30 p.m. responded to a report that a vehicle ran off the eastbound side of Interstate 84 near Boardman, and two males were arguing on the side of the road.

Deputies arrested Darren Ned Humbert, 58, of 435 Miller St., Milton-Freewater for reckless driving, violating a no-contact order and second-degree assault. The Morrow County District Attorney's Office on Monday charged Humbert with reckless driving and recklessly endangering another person, as well as with domestic violence crimes of first-degree kidnapping, third-degree assault and second-degree assault. He remains in the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

Saturday

Pendleton police arrested Patricia Maria Urrutia, 33, of 17 East First St., Ontario, for possession of methamphetamine, possession of cocaine and giving false liability insurance information to police.

Umatilla tribal police arrested Ryan Tyler Patrick, 32, of Pendleton, for criminal activity in drugs, dangerous drugs and on probation violations.

Pendleton police arrested Logan Charles Wilson, 19, of 1500 S.E. Byers Ave., Apt. 9, Pendleton, for possession of methamphetamine, tampering with physical evidence, resisting arrest, interfering with a peace officer, second-degree disorderly conduct, third-degree theft and for failing to pay fines.

The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at about 11:30 p.m. responded to a single-vehicle crash about a mile north of Westland Road near the intersection with Walker Road. Deputies arrested Chad Russell Nickerson, 33, of 28716 Bridge Road, Hermiston, for driving under the influence of intoxicants and property hit and run.

Nickerson has another DUII case pending in Umatilla County Circuit Court from an arrest in March.

Sunday

Pendleton police cited Jamie L. Coombs, 31, of Hermiston, for DUII (alcohol).

A driver escaped injury in a crash but ended up in cuffs for driving under the influence and more.

Oregon State Police at about 1 a.m. responded to the crash on the eastbound side of Interstate 84 near milepost 161. According to the agency, a Toyota Corolla was eastbound when its right front tire came apart. The car struck a fog marker on the right shoulder, spun clockwise across the eastbound lane and into the median, then rolled several times before stopping on the north shoulder on the interstate's westbound side.

Trooper Mark Amos found the driver, Justin Earl Frison, 25, no address provided, showed signs of alcohol impairment and arrested him for DUII, reckless driving and second-degree criminal mischief.

State police also noted the car was the subject of an intoxicated driver report that came in about an hour before the crash.

A traffic stop of a possible intoxicated driver led to a hospital visit before a stay in jail.

Oregon State Police at about 3 p.m. overheard a radio complaint about the driver and stopped the silver Chevrolet Silverado pickup on Highway 395 near East Elm Avenue, Hermiston. State police reported Nolberto Velazquez Rosas, 34, of Prosser, Washington, showed signs of impairment and had a suspended license.

However, an ambulance took the driver to Good Shepherd Medical Center, Hermiston, for a diabetic emergency.

After his treatment there, police took Velazquez Rosas to the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, for DUII, reckless driving, recklessly endangering another person (a 7-year-old passenger) and the driving while suspended.

A driver going 107 mph on Interstate 84 through Pendleton caught the attention of the Oregon State Police. Trooper Amy Ford stopped the vehicle and arrested Louis Gavin Senvend, 28, of Pendleton, for DUII (alcohol), driving while suspended, reckless driving and recklessly endangering another person (the passenger, a 26-year-old man from Echo).

The trooper also cited Davidson for refusing to take a breath test for intoxication level and speeding.

Oregon State Police arrested Joseph Smitty Hull, 50, of Pendleton, for DUII.

Pendleton police cited Robert R. Rooper, 58, of Pendleton, for DUII (controlled substance).

Milton-Freewater police arrested Jordan M. Thompson, 30, of 626 S. Columbia Ave., for two counts each of trespassing, menacing, unlawful use of a weapon and interfering with making a report.

OBITUARIES

A. Dean McKenzie Ph.D

Eugene

August 17, 1930 - August 3, 2017

Dean was born to Dr. Hugh and Helen (Raymond of Helix) McKenzie in Pendleton, Ore., where he was raised and attended schools, graduating from Pendleton High School in 1948. As a youth, he spent his summers at Lehman Hot Springs, and loved to draw, especially cartoons.

He went on to graduate from San Jose State and the University of Fine Arts in New York City with a Ph.D. in art history. He became a professor of art history at the University of Oregon, Eugene, for 25 years. As an avid traveler, he often went to Europe to photograph great works of art for his classes.

He is survived by his wife Lucille in Eugene; his brothers (Dr.) Robert in Pendleton and (Dr.) Kenneth in Watsonville, Calif.; and nieces and nephews.

Irma Pauline Nevil

Hermiston

March 24, 1936 - August 4, 2017

Irma Pauline Nevil, 81, of Hermiston passed away on Friday, August 4, 2017.

Irma was born March 24, 1936, in Eston, Saskatchewan, Canada, the daughter of Scott and Delilah (Thompson) Baker. She lived on her family's home- stead near Eston until the age of 12 when her family moved to Woodburn, Oregon. She attended school in Woodburn where she graduated from high school.

Irma married Daniel Nevil on November 21, 1964. The couple lived and farmed in the Willamette Valley until moving to Stanfield in 1971. They operated a pig farm in Stanfield for several years. Irma later worked as an office manager for several Eastern Oregon auto dealerships until retiring.

Irma had a strong faith in God and was a member of Stanfield Baptist Church for 40 years. She opened her heart and her home to countless people who needed help. She had a unending love and commitment to her family. After retiring, she traveled extensively and enjoyed her many trips to Alaska with her good friend Dorothy. She also volunteered with many organizations including Stanfield Planning Commission, Stanfield Library Board and Good Shepherd Auxiliary.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Daniel; brothers Dale and Gordon; and an infant baby brother.

She is survived by her children Scott and wife Alicia Nevil of Hermiston, David and wife Heather Nevil of Stanfield, Dani and husband Roger Smith of Hermiston, Tom and wife Heather Baumgartner and Carolann Jensen; brother Raymond Baker and his wife Lorraine of Wichita Falls, Texas; sisters-in-law Pam Baker of Woodburn and Phyllis Meyers of Canby; 15 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Viewing will be held on Wednesday evening from 3:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Burns Mortuary of Hermiston. Funeral Services are planned for 10:00 a.m. Thursday, August 10 at Stanfield Baptist Church, 310 N.E. Wheeler Avenue, Stanfield, Ore. Burial will follow in Pleasant View Cemetery near Stanfield.

Family suggests memorial donations in Irma's memory to: Solid Rock Bible Camp, 36251 Solid Rock Road #1, Soldotna, AK 99669
