Weekend festival rocks Milton-Freewater

A familiar family-friendly festival returns to Milton-Freewater this weekend.

Tarika Banks, Milton-Freewater Chamber of Commerce executive director, said people aren't completely certain what Milton-Freewater Rocks! is all about. In its second year with the new moniker, the former Muddy Frogwater Festival highlights "The Rocks" district of the town. It was designated as an American Viticulture Area in 2015.

Admission to Milton-Freewater Rocks! is free and features a variety of entertainment, activities and fundraising meals Friday through Sunday at Yantis Park. Breakfasts are available Friday (from the chamber ambassadors) and Saturday (Milton-Freewater Elks) mornings at 7 a.m. The cost is $7 per person. Food, vendor and activity booths are open Friday from 3-9 p.m., Saturday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Also, the Rocks! Garden will serve wine, cider and beer Friday from 3-9 p.m. and Saturday from noon to 9 p.m.

The festival offers people a chance to kick back and relax at the park. In addition, the Harvest of Art is Friday and Saturday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. at Central Middle School. In its 17th year, the show features regional artists and offers cash prizes in four categories.

Evening festival highlights, Banks said, include Friday's Heritage Night, which features a Latino Heritage performance from 5-6 p.m. For those who would like to fork out a few bucks, they can enjoy the annual Rotary Chicken Dinner ($12) from 5-8 p.m. Walla Walla's FrogHollow Band plays from 7-10 p.m.

Saturday evening showcases members of the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation — Dance Troupe Generations will perform from 5:30-6:30 p.m. It features dancing drums and story-telling. The salmon dinner and corn roast ($15) runs from 6-8 p.m. The evening closes out with Lark Drive, a Walla Walla band, performing from 7-10 p.m.

Saturday afternoon also features a sip and paint event. Walla Walla artist Barb Newby will guide people during Brushes N Brix. Participants pay $40 and receive all the supplies and a free drink. Afterwards, they can take home the piece of artwork they created.

A community worship service kicks off Sunday morning at 9 a.m. Also, Banks is excited to have local musician Diego Romero, a recent McLoughlin High School graduate, performing Sunday between noon and 3 p.m. While attending Mac-Hi, Romero received numerous awards and recognition for his musical abilities.

Also, people of all ages won't want to miss the Firefighter's Water Fight. The friendly competition features firefighters from the city and rural fire departments battling it out Sunday at 3 p.m.

"It's just kind of a fun thing for the kids to watch," Banks said. "They get to sit on the curb and they get wet from the spray."
