

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

1:30 a.m. - A caller reported several intoxicated people walking in the road at Southwest 18th Street and Emigrant Avenue, Pendleton.

4:16 a.m. One truck driver threatened to beat a customer at the Pilot Travel Center, 2115 S. Highway 395, Stanfield. The people involved left before police arrived.

4:31 a.m. - A resident in Weston reported a prowler on South Broad Street.

4:40 a.m. - A Milton-Freewater woman reported a burglary and theft of items at her house on the 700 block of South Mill Street.

7:47 a.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a request for extra patrols and to check on suspicious activity. The caller said a white, 20-something man with blond hair parks a red four-door Pontiac GTO at an area on Grant Road, Milton-Freewater and "just sits there."

8:40 a.m. - A caller reported transients set up a camp about 50-75 yards north of Oxbow Trail 2 on West Elm Avenue and Northwest 11th Street, Hermiston.

8:48 a.m. - A person came into the Hermiston Police Department and said a dog that looked "very sick and dying" was in a light blue car on West Orchard Avenue and asked for an officer to check on it.

8:58 a.m. - A woman who stayed last week at Umatilla Inn & Suites, 1370 Sixth St., Umatilla, told police she left her purse in the hotel room and the manager mailed it, but it was missing money and her credit cards. The case is under investigation.

10:46 a.m. - A woman asked to speak to a Hermiston officer about domestic violence and her options for leaving her husband and filing for restraining orders.

1:33 p.m. - A second Milton-Freewater resident reported a burglary. This came from the 500 block of Northeast Eighth Avenue, and the caller said the culprit or culprits stole his camera.

3:55 p.m. - Someone dumped two black garbage bags that have a foul odor and liquid seeping out on Eastside Road, Milton-Freewater, a caller reported.

9:59 p.m. - Umatilla police responded to Columbia Crest Apartments, 1500 Second St., for an assault and took a report.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Randall Lee Case, 59, of Pendleton, for trespassing and on the domestic violence charge of fourth-degree assault.

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office received a call at 7:36 p.m. from a resident of Maple Crest Apartments, 700 S.W. Wilson Lane, who reported a neighbor was intoxicated and trying to get into her apartment. She said he hit her on the arm, causing a bruise.

Law enforcement arrived and arrested Alex Mendoza Baldmro Jeronimo, 21, for disorderly conduct, resisting arrest, harassment and first-degree trespass.

Grange announces upcoming activities

PENDLETON — Due to Pendleton Round-Up, the White Eagle Grange won't host a September breakfast.

However, the group invites the public to look for their float during the Dress-Up Parade, which is Saturday, Sept. 9 at 10 a.m. in downtown Pendleton.

Also on the horizon are plans for a haunted house in October. Money raised will go to the Grange Youth Fund and the Pendleton Fourth of July Fireworks Fund.

Anyone with decorations, ideas or who would like to dress up during the event are encouraged to contact Gail Wilson at gail11wilson@gmail.com or 541-310-9655.

Irrigation district seeks board members

STANFIELD — The Stanfield Irrigation District has two openings on its board of directors. The openings are for Division 2 and Division 5; current directors are Darrin Ditchen and Randy Cooper, respectively.

Anyone interested in running for these offices is encouraged to contact the district office at 100 W. Coe Ave., Stanfield, or call 541-449-3272 for more information.

Jean C. Cook

Spokane, Wash.
June 2, 1926 - August 18, 2017

Jean moved to Pendleton in 1956. She was married to Al Spitz, a longtime Hermiston and Pendleton resident. She lived and worked at the Pendleton Motor Park. Mr. Spitz passed away in November of 1963.

Jean continued to work at the Motor Park until 1971. She was then employed by the Pendleton School District as the food service supervisor at the high school. During her tenure, Jean and her crew made thousands of chocolate chip cookies for the students and faculty.

In the early 1970s she married Jay Cook, a longtime friend. Mr. Cook passed away in 1984 and she continued to live at 911 S.E. Byers until she moved to Spokane to be with her family in 2012.

Jean passed away August 18 in Spokane. She was with family members.

She is survived by her son David Gibbs, daughter-in-law Jeanne, stepsons Dick Cook of Walla Walla and Bill Cook of Hayden Lake, four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

There will be a Celebration of Life event September 20th, at 1 p.m., at the Pendleton Eagles Lodge. Please join us for lunch and remembering.

Brandon Lewis Spencer

Pendleton
January 14, 1976 - August 21, 2017

Brandon Lewis Spencer of Pendleton, Ore., walked on to the baseball field in the sky. He was surrounded by his family and loved ones.

Brandon was born in Pendleton, Ore., to the late Chester "Sparky" Spencer and Ruth Spencer. He attended Washington and McKay elementary schools where he formed lifelong friendships. While growing up, Brandon developed a love for the outdoors, especially hunting and fishing. He also loved athletics such as wrestling, football, basketball and baseball.

Brandon attended Pendleton Junior High School and Pendleton High School. He continued his passion for sports in playing football, basketball and baseball for PJHS and PHS.

Spencer

As Brandon grew, he found his niche as a pitcher. Throughout his baseball years, Brandon idolized Fernando Valenzuela since they both threw left-handed. On the mound, he often referred to himself as FerBrando. He continued to develop his craft as a pitcher and excelled for the Pendleton Buckaroos. Brandon earned the nickname "Giant" because despite his small stature, he lived his life and played his game big. During his senior year, Brandon earned all-star selections within the Intermountain Conference and was also selected to play in the State Metro-League all-star game.

Brandon earned multiple varsity letters for his athletics including the 1994 Mark Leach MVP Award for baseball. Brandon then went on to play baseball for Mt. Hood Community College. He also attended Blue Mountain and Lane community colleges.

Brandon is known for his laugh and affectionate smile. He truly cared for all of his friends and family. He especially cared for his children, nieces and his nephew. Brandon was dedicated to attending his family's athletic events and made sure they knew he was present to support their efforts. Brandon was also an avid outdoorsman. He was frequently in the mountains, hunting or "cruising." He was also rarely without his fishing pole stashed in his car, as he could hardly resist being on the river when the fish were running.

Brandon is preceded in death by his father, Chester "Sparky" Spencer, and uncles Warren Spencer, Marilyn "Mar" Spencer, Vernon "Babe" Spencer and Lester "Bub" Spencer. He is survived by his mother, Ruth Spencer; brothers Brent and Brad Spencer; children Aubry Spencer, Kaitlyn Spencer, Korie Spencer and Chayenne Spencer; and his nieces and nephew.

Burns Mortuary is in charge of funeral arrangements. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com.

Patricia Kay Hunt

Pendleton
December 3, 1937 - August 21, 2017

Patricia Kay Hunt, 79, passed away in the evening on Monday, August 21, 2017, at her home. A graveside service will be held at 2:30 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 25, 2017, at Olney Cemetery, Pendleton, Ore. Patty will be missed by her husband, Clyde, her sister Helen Graymer, her three children and a multitude of grandchildren, nieces, nephews and great-grandchildren.

Hunt

Patricia Kay Hunt was born December 3, 1937, St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton, Oregon. She was the youngest of five children of Claude O. Meyers and C. Frances Straughan. She was raised on the family farm and attended grade school in Echo, Oregon. She transferred to Helen McEwen Junior High in the seventh-grade, living during the week with her grandparents, M.E. Meyers, where they lived at the bottom of the south hill. Later she commuted with her brother, Wayne, who was attending Pendleton High School. In 1952, Patty's parents moved to Pendleton, first to a basement apartment on Northeast First Street and later to their home at 803 N.E. Ellis.

Patty met Clyde Hunt of Adams, Oregon, the love of her life, while she was attending Pendleton High School, where she graduated in 1955. She was employed by the telephone company. She married Clyde on her 18th birthday. They lived on Byers Avenue in a two-room apartment when their first child (Jeanne Marie, b. 9/6/56) was born. They moved to her parents' home (Ellis Street) making the upstairs their home in order to save money to purchase their own home. Young's Addition was just being developed and the back yard of their first home (2410 S.W. Olson) faced a wheat field. Their last two children, Larry Dean (b. 6/23/60) and Brenda Lyn (b. 12/20/61) were born while they resided there. In the spring of 1962, they purchased the Riverside farm residence with 6½ acres where they made their home for the past 55 years.

Patty worked as secretary at the Methodist Church as well as the S&W Redemption (Green Stamps) store prior to working at St. Anthony Hospital. She worked there for approximately 13 years, beginning on the switchboard and admitting clerk desk, later as personnel secretary. She worked at a radiology office for about 13 years before her retirement.

Patty was a farm girl most of her life. She was very independent early on, but with life experience she became more increasingly so. She was not afraid of hard work and rarely asked for help with anything. She was a partner to Clyde on the farm, helping to move irrigation pipes in the pasture, bucking hay or driving the hay truck. She would round up escaped cattle, once driving the tractor down Riverside Drive with curlers in her hair in order to catch them. She and Clyde enjoyed the outdoors and took several fishing/camping trips to Montana, Canada and Alaska, and on at least one occasion "out-fished" Clyde with a larger salmon. She was an avid reader and kept track of every book she read. She was an accomplished seamstress and quilter. Many of the clothing, table toppers and quilts were gifts of love to many of her family. She also enjoyed gardening and was the family genealogist.

Patty was diagnosed with ovarian cancer in 1996, which reoccurred in 2004. She was treated with chemo for many years. She fought a long, hard battle, but chose to stop chemo treatment approximately one and a half years ago. She never complained about the chemo effects, or how treatment effected her quality of the life. She fought to the bitter end and will be remembered as an independent, strong, hard-working woman, a devoted wife, a loving mother, aunt, sister, and grandmother.
