Tommy Sherman 'Tom' Hinton

Milton-Freewater

October 3, 1936 - August 28, 2017

Tommy (Tom) Sherman Hinton died peacefully at home surrounded by family on Monday, August 28, 2017.

Tom was born October 3, 1936, at home in Enterprise, Oregon, to Harry and Sara Augusta (Sherman) Hinton. Spending his early childhood at the family ranch in the Chesnimus area of Wallowa County, Tom started first grade at Elk Mountain School where his mother was his teacher. His early school years included riding horseback to a one-room schoolhouse with a large woodstove and an outhouse. By junior high, he was attending class in a multi-grade schoolhouse with electricity and running water. He graduated from Wallowa High School in 1954.

Hinton

Tom was involved in 4-H, FFA and school athletics, being a member of the football team winning the Class B State Champion title against Drain, Oregon, in 1953 and showing livestock at the Pacific International Livestock Show while in high school.

The pea harvest brought Tom to Umatilla County. After graduation, Tom went to work for the L.L. Rogers Ranch in Adams. While working for Umatilla Canning Company, Tom joined the National Guard in January 1959. His military commitment was extended due to the Cuba/Russian conflict. Honorable discharge was awarded in 1966.

Tom married Dorothy Faye Hockett on March 27, 1960, at Hot Lake, Oregon. The couple had two daughters, Celinda Anne and Charlotte Leah. Tom and Dorothy built the family home on property located seven miles outside of Milton-Freewater. Polled Hereford cattle graced the pastures and became a hobby Tom enjoyed for most of his adult life.

Faith was an important part of Tom's life. He was a lifetime member of the First Christian Church, holding the office of Sunday School superintendent and deacon for many years. He recently received an emeritus title for his years of service.

Tom was very involved in the 4-H and FFA program. He was a livestock superintendent at the Milton-Freewater Junior Show, Union Stock Show, Umatilla County Fair and Walla Walla Fair and Frontier Days.

A self-taught guitar player, his love of music found him spending Saturday evenings playing for dances with Ron Tomlinson and Olive Anderson at the Stateline Grange — a weekly tradition he enjoyed for almost 50 years. He also played for many weddings, funerals and church events, teaming up with Vickie Piper and Tony Turner.

A welder, Tom worked for Western Farmers Association and retired from Walla Walla Farmer's Co-op. Extensive travel across Oregon and Washington put the Western Farmer employee in contact with many farmers and large-scale agriculture producers with whom Tom built and retained life-long relationships.

After retiring, Tom enjoyed judging livestock at youth fairs, volunteering at local livestock shows and attending his grandchildren's many sporting and school events.

Tom received a multitude of honors in his lifetime. His most recent awards included being named the grand marshal of the Umatilla County Fair in 2002, Honorary FFA State Farmer degree holder, Honor Roll recipient of the Milton-Freewater Junior Show and Golden Pioneer by the Chamber of Commerce in 2015.

Tom is survived by his wife of 57 years, Dorothy, at the family home. He is also survived by his sister and brother-in-law, Sandra and Aldon Johnson of Wallowa, Oregon; his daughters and sons-in-law, Celinda and Steve Timmons and Charlotte and Steve Birdwell, all of Milton-Freewater; grandchildren Shelby

West of Eagle, Idaho, Courtney (Michael) Waliser of Milton-Freewater, Lindsey (Will) Hicks of Newberg, Oregon, and Lawrence Timmons of Salem, Oregon; one great-grandchild, Henry Waliser; and numerous step-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

His parents and one sister, Avona (Hinton) LeaMaster, preceded Tom in death.

Funeral services will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, September 5 at First Christian Church, 518 South Main in Milton-Freewater. A dinner will follow at the Milton-Freewater Junior Show Grounds.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Milton-Freewater Area Foundation for the Tom S. Hinton Educational Scholarship helping 4-H and FFA youth obtain a college degree.

Pamela Jane Holdman Cavagnaro

Portland

August 3, 1956 - August 28, 2017

Pamela Jane Holdman was born in Pendleton, the first of Nora Lee and Ben Holdman's four children. She graduated from Griswold High School in Helix, Ore., in 1974, and earned a B.S. at Oregon State University in 1978.

Cavagnaro

Pam was a member of the Beta Epsilon chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, and remained active in the organization throughout her life.

Her working career spanned a number of years in the office products industry in the Portland area, having worked in sales and sales management for Cascade Business Systems, and then Pacific Photocopy. She moved later into the insurance business, where she invested 20 years as an adjuster for Safeco Insurance, and more recently 10 years as an independent insurance adjuster in Portland. Pam always had a keen eye for detail, and an excellent understanding of both loss assessment and building construction.

Pam met her husband and the love of her life, Dan, at the Pendleton Roundup — appropriately — in 1980, and the couple later married in Pendleton in 1990, after which they resided together in Portland.

She was a fabulous cook — and she "ruled the roost" from her beautiful kitchen, which was the heart of the Cavagnaro home that she designed herself. Pam was particularly adept at picking just the right side dishes to complement any entrée, and she produced incredibly wonderful variations of those for every meal. No one left the Cavagnaro table with less than a completely satisfying meal, whether for a formal occasion or a simple and casual snack.

Pam was very active in both Lincoln youth and Lincoln High School football, as well as wrestling, and watched every match or game while her son, Ben, dashed from sideline to sideline and grappled heroically with his opponents. Similarly, she was an integral part of Lincoln High's competitive dance team, for which she managed the bookkeeping and fund raising. Pam was also there for every one of the many competitions to cheer for her daughter, Ali, who graced the floor along with her teammates and their athletic routines. Pam helped create many of the girls' hairstyles, created the girls' costumes, and was a carpool leader as well. Known for always arriving early and always staying late for both her children's extra-curricular activities, she was deeply appreciated for her contributions. Ali was said to have "shared" her mother with the rest of her team, and Pam continued to participate and contribute, even after her daughter had left for college.

She loved to travel, and enjoyed numerous trips with Dan and her friends to Europe, Mexico, Hawaii, Palm Springs, Las Vegas, the Oregon Coast, and to Central Oregon as well. She loved to go to the theatre with her best friends for "stupid movies" that were supposed to be funny, and then she'd make fun of her friends' movie selections while enjoying a glass of wine with them afterwards. For those closest to Pam, they will always cherish the memories of "Monday Golf," "Tuesdays with Pam," and many other various and regular get-togethers, as well as her lovely, warm personality, her "can do" attitude, and her fun-loving spirit.

Pam is survived by her devoted husband, Dan; her beautiful children, Ben and Ali; her wonderful parents, Nora Lee and Ben; her delightful siblings, sisters Robin and Vicki as well as her brother Chris; her in-laws, Connie, Jim and Lynne; as well as countless nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of Life will be held for Pam at noon, Sept. 10, 2017, at the Multnomah Athletic Club.

In lieu of flowers, the family wishes that any contributions be made to the Oregon Humane Society.
