

OBITUARIES

Clifford W. Green

Heppner
Oct. 3, 1942 - September 5, 2017

Clifford W. Green, 74, of Heppner passed away on Sept. 5, 2017, at his home. A memorial service will be held on Oct. 14, 2017, at 11 a.m. at the Heppner United Methodist Church.

He was born Oct. 3, 1942, at Heppner, the son of J. Herman Green and Alma Van Winkle Green. He attended school in Heppner, graduating from Heppner High School in 1960. He attended Oregon State University graduating with a degree in education in 1965. On August 7, 1965, he married Lucinda "Cindy" Nelson in Springfield, Oregon. The couple moved to Athena, Oregon, where he taught agriculture and vocational education from 1966 through 1969. It was there that they began their family; welcoming David in 1966 and Kirsten in 1970.

In 1973, the opportunity to return to his hometown of Heppner presented itself, and he moved with his young family to purchase the family business. He owned and operated Heppner Garbage Disposal service for 11 years while pursuing his love for leadership and politics by serving on the Heppner City Council from 1976-1980, and later serving as Heppner city mayor from 1981-1984. In 1984, he purchased the local hardware store, Coast to Coast, which later became Heppner Hardware, which he operated for 20 years until his retirement.

He was passionate about the town he loved, and the people who lived in it. This was evident in his involvement and leadership roles in numerous community service as well as business commerce promoting organizations. He was active in Heppner Economic Development, Heppner Chamber of Commerce, Heppner Lions Club, Morrow County Agriculture Museum, Willow Creek Terrace Assisted Living, as well as the local chapter of I.O.O.F. This dedication and service culminated in the Lifetime Achievement award being presented to him in 2003 by the Heppner Chamber of Commerce.

When not working and volunteering, he enjoyed hunting and spending time at the family cabin with his friends and family.

Survivors include brothers, Lawrence Green & his wife Robin of Sisters; Tom Green & his wife Claudean of Prineville; and a sister, Margaret Green of Prineville. Son, David Green & his wife Candy of Heppner; daughter, Kirsten Harrison & her husband Travis of Lexington; grandchildren, Brett Harrison and his wife Jane of Pendleton; Kyle Harrison of La Grande; and Hannah & Ally Green of Heppner, as well as numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and brother-in-law.

The family is asking for memorial contributions to be made to the Cliff Green Memorial Fund at Bank of Eastern Oregon, P.O. Box 39, Heppner, OR 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements.

William (Bill) Arther Galbreath

Portland
April 23, 1930 - September 13, 2017

William (Bill) Arther Galbreath passed away on Sept. 13, 2017, after a short stay in ICU at Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland, Oregon.

Bill was born one of nine children of John and Mary (Brascesco) Galbreath in Sherwood, Oregon. He grew up on the family onion farm and was very proud of his family history. He attended Cipole grade school and Sherwood High School graduating at the top of his class 1948. His attendance at Willamette University was interrupted by his enlistment into the Army and subsequent completion of Officer's Candidate School. Upon his discharge, he returned to Willamette to finish his undergraduate degree and subsequent law degree in 1959.

Bill married LaVonne Misterek in 1952 and they moved to Milton-Freewater in Eastern Oregon where he began his law practice. He practiced law in Milton-Freewater for over 20 years including serving as a municipal court judge. Bill returned to the Portland area in the mid-1980s, continuing to practice law and returned to farming in the last several years of his life.

He was able to integrate his love of his Italian heritage into his farming, purchasing seeds from Italy for his various plantings. He learned to cook from his mother and loved to have family and friends over for great meals and even better conversation. He was a scholar and gentleman who enjoyed classical music, gourmet food and fine wine, as well as sporting events and just hanging out with family and friends. He will be greatly missed by all those who loved him and whose lives he touched.

Bill was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers, three sisters and one son. He is survived by his sister, Betty, multiple nieces and nephews as well as his children and their spouses: Bryan (Annette) Galbreath, Brenda Long, Bruce (Stephanie) Galbreath, and Brad (Suzanne) Galbreath and five grandchildren and their spouses and one great-granddaughter.

Cleda Nusser Coxen Schoonover

Hermiston
June 2, 1927 - September 20, 2017

Cleda was born June 2, 1927, in Sylvia, Kansas, to Kasper and May (Postier) Nusser. She passed away Sept. 20, 2017 with her loving husband, Bill, by her side.

Cleda left Kansas with her family during the Dust Bowl ending up in Hermiston, Oregon. She graduated from Hermiston High School in 1945 where she made many lifelong friends. She was the drummer for her high school dance band, loved dancing, bowling, playing cards and camping with friends and family.

Cleda married Jerry Coxen in 1946 and had three children, Jim, Sandy and Sue. The couple later divorced. At Cleda's 40th class reunion she became reacquainted with classmate Bill Schoonover. She and Bill married in 1986. Bill took Cleda on a tour of Europe and fulfilled her lifelong dream of visiting Germany. She and Bill enjoyed traveling, visiting friends and family and spending many winters in Arizona.

Schoonover

Cleda is survived by her husband, Bill, her children, Jim (Sally) Coxen, Sandy Nolte and Sue Orem, stepchildren, Dick (TJ) Schoonover, Sue (Ron) Parham, and Randall Schoonover.

Grandchildren, Lynn (Dan) Witt, Tod (Rebecca) Coxen, Renee Coxen, Josh Coxen, Angie (Ryan) Zirkle and Matt (Lena) Orem. Step-grandchildren, Jake, Riley, Sydney and Cami Parham, Claire, Henry and Owen Schoonover. Seven great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. Her brother, Dick (Sally) Nusser and sister, Donna (Dick) Bensel, many nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Marcel Nusser.

A graveside service will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday Sept. 30, 2017, at the Hermiston Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to any hospice or the charity of your choice.

Richard K. 'Dick' Barnes

Elgin
October 20, 1946 - September 9, 2017

Richard K. "Dick" Barnes, 70, of Elgin passed away Saturday, September 9, 2017, at his home. A graveside service will be held at Elgin Cemetery on Friday, September 29 at 2:00 p.m. A celebration of life reception will follow at the Elgin Community Center.

Dick was born October 20, 1946, in La Grande, Ore., to Thomas and Naedean (Wiles) Barnes. Dick was a retired lumberman of 42 years. After retiring he was highly involved with community projects in and around the Elgin area including the Lions Club, Elgin Food Bank, and Rock-wall Grange Bingo.

Dick is survived by his wife Bernadette; daughter Amy of Baker City, Ore.; brothers Russ of Kodiak, Alaska, and Stan of Cathedral City, Calif.; and two granddaughters.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to Heart 'n' Home Hospice, 2104 Cove Avenue, Suite A, La Grande, OR 97850.
