Open house celebrates female veterans

HERMISTON — A photo exhibit and networking event are a highlight of the upcoming Open House Celebrating Women Veterans.
 The free event is Friday, Oct. 6 from 3-6 p.m. at Holiday Inn Express & Suites, 245 N. First St. Hermiston. A collaborative effort with the Umatilla/Morrow County Veterans Services, Elizabeth Estabrooks, Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs women veterans coordinator, will be on hand to answer questions. Refreshments will be served.
 The "I Am Not Invisible" exhibit features nearly two dozen female veterans from Oregon. The project is the brainchild of Estabrooks and Felita Singleton, Portland State University Veterans Resource Center Director.
 The two women commissioned the project after hearing concerns from female veterans. The goal is to increase awareness and dialogue about women veterans and to enhance the public's view of their experiences — both good and bad, Singleton said.
 For more information, contact 541-922-6420, mcvets@co.morrow.or.us or visit www.oregonwomensveterans.com.

Democrats plan dinner auction

PENDLETON — The Umatilla County Democratic Party will hold a spaghetti dinner and auction Saturday, Oct. 7 from 5-8 p.m. at Pendleton Center for the Arts, 214 N. Main St.
 The event opens with a silent auction from 5-7 p.m. The dinner, which begins at 6 p.m., includes spaghetti, bread, dessert and beverages, including wine. The cost is $20 per person. The live auction begins at 7 p.m.
 Proceeds from the event supports the local Democratic Party, candidates for local elections and scholarships for deserving students within the district.
 For more information, contact Sue Petersen at 541-377-0752 or bikerchick49@hotmail.com.

Public Lands Day announces volunteer project

The nation's largest single-day volunteer effort for public lands invites people to join them Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Magone Lake in the Malheur National Forest. It's located about 25 miles southeast of Long Creek.
 Restoration opportunities for volunteers will include trail maintenance, trash pickup, fire pit cleanup and more. The event includes a barbecue lunch and environmental education talks with forest staff.

In addition, in honor of National Public Lands Day, day-use fees will be waived at recreation sites in Oregon and Washington. This fee waiver includes many picnic areas, boat launches, trailheads and visitor centers. Fees for camping, cabin rentals, heritage expeditions or other permits still apply. To find recreation sites, visit www.fs.fed.us/ivm.
 For more information about the Magone Lake volunteer project, call Elizabeth Moore at 541-820-3863.

Chili feed benefits Spina Bifida Association

HELIX — A chili feed, chili cookoff and silent auction are featured in a Spina Bifida Awareness fundraiser in Helix.
 The event is Tuesday from 5-7 p.m. in the multi-purpose room at the Helix School District, 106 Main St. The cost is $5. In addition to chili, the meal includes salad, cornbread and dessert. Money raised will be donated to the Spina Bifida Association.
 For more information about the event, the contest or to donate an item for the silent auction, contact Stacey Kinnaman at kinnaman_s@yahoo.com or 541-457-2175.

Fort Walla Walla digs into archaeology

WALLA WALLA — Hands-on activities offer children an experience working as archaeologists.
 Kids ages 9-11 will work alongside real archaeologists and participate in surveying, mapping and identifying artifacts during the Archaeology Kids Camp. The museum's historical archaeologist, Ashley Morton, will share what cultural artifacts that are recorded and analyzed by professional archaeologists reveal about the past.
 The event is Saturday, Oct. 7 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. at Fort Walla Walla Museum, 755 Myra Road, Walla Walla. The cost is $30 or $25 for museum members. The fee includes a pizza lunch and an official souvenir. Financial assistance is available.
 Pre-registration is required. A form is available at www.fwvm.org/kids-camp. For more information or to inquire about a scholarship, contact Jennifer Pecora at 509-525-7703 or jennifer@fwvm.org.

Forrest 'Woody' Starrett

Hermiston
 November 13, 1923 - September 24, 2017

Forrest "Woody" Starrett, 93, of Hermiston passed away on Sunday, September 24, 2017.

Woody was born November 13, 1923, in Portland, Oregon, the son of James and Josie (Kennedy) Starrett. He lived in Dayville throughout his childhood where he attended school and graduated from high school in the early 1940s. After high school, he served in the U.S. Army during World War II.

Starrett

He studied engineering at Princeton University, where he had the opportunity to meet Albert Einstein. After his honorable discharge, Woody moved to Hermiston, Oregon, where he has resided since.

He owned and operated Starrett's Decor in Hermiston for over 25 years. He also served as a Umatilla County commissioner for two terms and the Port of Umatilla commissioner for 20 years.

Woody enjoyed going to his cabin in the mountains near Heppner. Some of his favorite things were teaching his grandchildren about nature, "Bucky" his pet deer, four-wheeling with the grandchildren, carpentry work and helping other people.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a son, David.

He is survived by his wife, Bonnie; children Brian Starrett, Judy Deihl, Lenielle Sloan, Patty Hackler and Lorrie Sandoval; sister Joy DeMain; 14 grandchildren; and many great-grandchildren.

A Celebration of Life service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, September 30, 2017, in the Burns Mortuary chapel in Hermiston.

Family suggest donations to the Humane Society of Eastern Oregon Pet Rescue, 1844 N.W. Geer Road, Hermiston, OR 97838.

OBITUARY POLICY

The East Oregonian publishes paid obituaries. The obituary can include small photos and, for veterans, a flag symbol at no charge. Obituaries may be edited for spelling, proper punctuation and style. Expanded death notices will be published at no charge. These include information about services. Obituaries and notices can be submitted online at www.eastoregonian.com/obituaryform, by email to obits@eastoregonian.com, by fax to 541-276-8314, placed via the funeral home or in person at the East Oregonian office.
