

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

7:30 a.m. - Hermiston police checked out a homeless camp near West Stockton Street and North First Street.
 9:10 a.m. - Drivers continue to ignore the stop sign at Frontage Lane and Pole Line Road, Boardman, a caller reported, who just missed a collision with a white Jeep SUV. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office sent a deputy to talk to the caller and promised to pass on the information to the traffic deputy.
 1:01 p.m. - Pendleton police received a complaint about loose dogs at Northwest Eighth Street and Gilliam Avenue.
 1:51 p.m. - Law enforcement in Morrow County looked for — but did not find — the driver of a brown Ford SUV after a caller reported the man made a shooting gesture at the caller while heading west on Highway 730 near Southwest Third Street, Irrigon.
 2:25 p.m. - A Milton-Freewater resident on Northeast Fifth Avenue told police someone shot her window.
 3:02 p.m. - A woman told Hermiston police someone took her iPhone from her house on Southwest Sage Drive. She said an app on the phone notified her it was last on Sunland Avenue, Hermiston.
 4:14 p.m. - A 911 caller reported a road rage situation at Powerline and Knight roads, Hermiston.
 4:41 p.m. - Stanfield police received a complaint about a resident on Willow Drive keeping chickens, which the caller said was against city law.
 5 p.m. - An Irrigon resident reported there were "a bunch of cows in her yard that do not belong to her."
 7:16 p.m. - The Lexington Fire Department conducted a controlled burn in Blackhorse Canyon.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office cited an Irrigon man for keeping a dog that is a public nuisance and gave him two written warnings for the same thing after a report of his dog biting someone.
 •Hermiston police arrested Justin Harold Sheline, 29, of 1514 Portland St., La Grande, for unauthorized use of vehicle, unauthorized entry of a motor vehicle and first-degree theft.

Kenneth Alford

Hermiston
December 5, 1947 - October 22, 2017

Ken Alford, 69, of Hermiston lost his struggle with COPD on Sunday, October 22, 2017.

Ken was born on December 5, 1947, in Goldendale, Wash., the son of Thomas and Velda Alford. He grew up and attended school in The Dalles. He joined the Marine Corps in 1966 and proudly served for four years, including 13 months in Vietnam.

Ken married the love of his life, Reta Cox, in Maupin, Ore., in 1979. He helped raise his two stepsons, Stacey and Joseph, who he loved dearly and enjoyed teaching to fish and camp in the mountains.

Ken worked many jobs, but he is best known for Alford's Home Building & Remodeling, a construction business he owned and operated in Hermiston for 20 years. He totally remodeled their house one room at a time and made it their home.

Ken enjoyed many hobbies such as wood-working, fabricating, mechanic work, golfing, four wheeling and fishing (especially steelhead and salmon fishing on the Deschutes near Tygh Valley), and hunting for elk was his passion.

He was preceded in death by his parents and loving natural grandparents.

He is survived by his wife of 38 years, Reta of Hermiston; stepsons Stacey Hammer of Pendleton and Joseph Hammer of Echo; and two very special friends, Mark Born of Hermiston and Thomas Fisher, his Vietnam veteran friend from Cincinnati, Ohio.

No services are being planned.

Family suggest memorial donation to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 262 Danny Thomas Place, Memphis, TN 38105 or Shriners' Hospitals for Children, 2900 Rocky Point Drive, Tampa, FL 33607.

OBITUARIES

Michael 'Mr. Mike' McDaid

Pendleton
April 1, 1927 - October 20, 2017

Michael "Mr. Mike" McDaid, 90, of Pendleton passed away on October 20, 2017, at St. Anthony Hospital in the loving company of his family. He was born April 1, 1927, in Donegal, Ireland, to Henry and Maria (McLaughlin) McDaid.

Mike grew up with 11 siblings in a traditional Irish Catholic family. He developed a strong work ethic in his childhood that carried on to his adult life as he could always be found working to support his family.

In 1950 he decided to chase work in Manchester, England, where he did masonry work. While there he met the love of his life, Josephine Corcoran. In an effort to seek more opportunity, Mike immigrated to the United States. He landed in Pilot Rock in 1958 to work as a sheep herder on the Doherty Ranch. He missed Josie who was still in England and mailed her a ring and proposal. She accepted and on February 27, 1960, he and Josie were wed at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Pendleton.

Mr. Mike was known by many in the community; either from his custodial job with the Pendleton School District, through St. Mary's Catholic Church or in more recent years his "exercise" walking the aisles of Wal-Mart. He was an incredibly social person that loved to dance; he did not stay strangers with anyone for long. Perhaps having been born on April Fool's Day is what made him a jokester; you could always count on him for a joke or good story.

His faith was very important to him and was a long-time member of St. Mary's Catholic Church along with being a member of the Knights of Columbus.

He is survived by his loving wife, Josie McDaid of Pendleton; children Mary McDaid of Portland, Jon (Heather) McDaid of Portland, Ed (Nisa) McDaid of Amboy, Wash., and Jodi (Mike) Gaffney of Seattle, Wash.; and seven grandchildren.

Rosary will be held at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton at 7 p.m. on Friday, October 27, 2017. Mike was an active member of the community and would love for those who knew him to celebrate his life through a Mass of Christian Burial at St. Mary's Catholic Church at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, October 28, 2017. Burial at Olney Cemetery at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, October 28, 2017. Luncheon will follow in the parish hall. All are welcome.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements.

Library district celebrates anniversary with author visit

East Oregonian

A discussion and book signing for a publication about the Oregon Trail is featured as the Oregon Trail Library District celebrates its 25th anniversary.

New York Times bestselling author Rinker Buck will share his memoir, "The Oregon Trail: A New American Journey," during a pair of programs in Morrow County. The events are Wednesday, Nov. 1 at 7 p.m. at the SAGE Center, 101 Olson Road, Boardman; and Thursday, Nov. 2 at 7 p.m. in the gymnasium at Heppner Elementary School, 235 E. Stansbury St. Refreshments will be served at both of the presentations, which are free and open to the public. Also, books will be available for purchase at the events from the Oregon Trail Library District.

The program is part of a yearlong celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Oregon Trail Library District. The event is co-sponsored by Friends of the Irrigon Library and Friends of the Heppner Library.

 "The Oregon Trail: A New American Journey" recounts the author's experience recreating a covered wagon crossing of the 2,000-mile Oregon Trail. In 2011, Buck made the journey from Missouri to Oregon with his brother, Nick, three mules and their dog.

In the book, Buck provides an account of their journey — which made them the first wagon travelers in more than a century to complete a crossing of the trail — and shares the fascinating history of American emigrants who traveled across the country in the 1840s, and the people they met along the way. The book was released in paperback on June 7, 2016.

Buck began his career in journalism at the Berkshire Eagle and was a longtime staff writer for the Hartford Courant. He has written for Vanity Fair, New York Life and many other publications. In addition, his work has won the PEN New England Award, the Eugene S. Pulliam National Journalism Writing Award and the Society of Professional Journalists Sigma Delta Chi Award. In addition to the Oregon Trail book, Buck has authored "Flight of Passage" and "First Job." He resides in northwest Connecticut.
