Man points gun at Gotta Stop employee

HERMISTON — A Eugene man was arrested for pointing a gun at an employee at the Gotta Stop gas station on West Highland Avenue Wednesday afternoon. According to Hermiston police, Andrew Smith was in the store and got agitated because the service was slow. After becoming belligerent, Smith was asked to leave. The store manager, Misty Radcliffe, went outside to ask Smith not to come back, and Smith drew a handgun from the center console of his vehicle, pointing the barrel upward. When Radcliffe went to the back of the vehicle to get his license plate number, she said Smith got out of the vehicle and pointed the gun at her. Smith left the area and Radcliffe called the Hermiston Police Department. Smith was arrested at the Boardman Rest Area, and stated that he showed the gun to Radcliffe but did not point it at her. He was taken to the Umatilla County Jail.

State police seek Union County deer poacher

LA GRANDE — The Oregon State Police Fish and Wildlife Division is asking for the public's help in finding who poached a deer in Union County. An elk hunter on Saturday in the Starkey Wildlife Management Unit notified Oregon State Police he found a deer carcass with only the antlers missing. State police reported Senior Trooper Kris Davis responded to investigate. Davis found the carcass off the Forest Service 21 Road and 500 and 410 spurs. The location is near Dark Canyon, west of the Spring Creek area off Interstate 84 outside La Grande. "Only the antlers and skull cap were removed from the deer," according to state police. "All of the meat was left and was wasted." State police also reported the kill probably occurred the evening or night of Thursday, Oct. 27, or the morning of Friday, Oct. 28, when the first season for Rocky Mountain elk was open. State police urges anyone with information to contact Davis, 541-805-4757. Tipsters can stay anonymous by calling the Turn In Poachers hotline at 1-800-452-7888.
