Nurkic, McCollum have 17 in Portland's victory

By ANNE M. PETERSON
Associate Press

PORTLAND — CJ McCollum and Jusuf Nurkic had 17 points apiece and the Portland Trail Blazers beat the Denver Nuggets 99-82 on Monday night to snap a two-game losing streak.

The Blazers built an 86-66 lead early in the fourth quarter on Noah Vonleh's dunk and cruised the rest of the way. Damian Lillard had 15 points and seven assists and the Blazers led by as many as 23 points.

Paul Millsap led the Nuggets with 18 points, including a season-high five 3-pointers.

The win was a boost for the Blazers, who were coming off consecutive close losses at home. They fell to Memphis 98-97 before losing to Brooklyn 101-97 on Friday night.

The Nuggets were coming off a successful six-game home stand during which they went 5-1, including a 125-107 victory over Orlando on Saturday night.

But they were cold against the Blazers, shooting just 35 percent for the game to snap a three-game winning streak.

Denver was without starter Gary Harris because of right shoulder soreness. Will Barton got his second straight start in his place and had 12 points.

Nikola Jokic, who has had double-doubles in eight of the last 10 games, finished with six points and seven rebounds.

Nurkic, who played just one minute in the fourth quarter of Friday night's loss to Brooklyn, played for the

Nuggets for three seasons before he was traded to Portland in February. The Blazers were 14-6 with Nurkic in the lineup, a spark that helped propel the team into the playoffs.

Nurkic, who was obviously energized against his former team, went into the game averaging 15.6 points and 7.3 rebounds this season.

Blazers coach Terry Stotts tinkered with his starting lineup, giving rookie forward Caleb Swanigan his first career start, but he got into foul trouble early in the third quarter.

Portland went on a 10-2 run for an early 35-25 lead. The Blazers went on to lead by as many as 14 points in the first half, led by Nurkic and Evan Turner with 10 points apiece. Portland's bench outscored Denver's 25-10.

Trailing 54-59 at the break, the Nuggets closed within 54-51 on a pair of free throws from Wilson Chandler. But CJ McCollum answered with a 3-pointer for the Blazers.

Portland pushed the lead to 82-66 on Vonleh's tip shot and Lillard added free throws to end the third quarter.

It was Portland's ninth straight win at home over the Nuggets.
