OBITUARIES

Hazel (Lavelle) Harral

Pendleton
July 22, 1936 - November 15, 2017

Lavelle Harral, 81, of Pendleton, Oregon, went to be with the Lord November 15, 2017, surrounded by her loving family.

She was born to Jonathon (Pete) and Gladys Wilson of Baker, Oregon, on July 22, 1936. LaVelle spent her childhood with her four brothers and three sisters in Baker City, Oregon. After attending grade school and high school, LaVelle met and married her husband of 55 years, Tom Harral.

Lavelle and Tom moved to Pendleton in 1956. There they raised their family, son Mark and daughters Renee and Teresa. LaVelle was a devoted wife and mother caring for and raising her children. She was later blessed with five cherished grandchildren: Erin, Neil, Emelia, Asa and Beau.

Throughout her life LaVelle worked as a book-keeper and later as a local business owner for several businesses in Pendleton and Pilot Rock.

She accepted Jesus as her Savior and became a devoted Christian. She would rise early every day to listen to her favorite pastors teach about Jesus' unconditional love and grace for all.

She was predeceased by her beloved husband Tom in 2010. She is survived by her children: Mark Harral of Pendleton, Renee Rosenquist (Bruce) of Bend and Teresa Skinner (Jeff) of Pendleton; grandchildren Erin Harral of Apache Junction, Ariz., Neil Rosenquist of Bend, Emelia Rosenquist of New London Naval Base, Connecticut, and Asa Skinner and Beau Skinner, both of Pendleton, Oregon.

LaVelle's unfailing love toward her family and friends will be greatly missed. She always gave of herself. She will be missed by all who knew her.

There will be a graveside service for all who wish to attend at Mount Hope Cemetery in Baker City at 1:00 p.m. on Monday, November 27, 2017.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com

Jessie B. (Tibbs) Tarter

Hermiston
January 19, 1921 - November 18, 2017

Jessie B. (Tibbs) Tarter died peacefully in her sleep on November 18, 2017, in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 96.

Jessie is survived by sons Norman, Milton-Freewater, Rodney (wife Leann), Hermiston, and Randy, Bothell, Washington; grandchildren Donald, Tammy, Trent, Scott, Rodrick, Melanie, Jeff, Nick, Jake, Natalie, Josie, Kelli, Julie and Riley; 18 great-grandchildren; and 12 great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband Donald, daughter Patty Jo and a grandson, Ty. Jessie was also preceded in death by her other seven siblings and husband Donald's eight siblings. She was the last of the greatest generation of the Tibbs and Tarter families.

Jessie was born on January 19, 1921, in Baker City, Oregon, to James and Martha Tibbs. She graduated from high school in Haines, Oregon, in 1939 and later with a degree as a beautician in La Grande, Oregon.

She married Donald Tarter in Weiser, Idaho, on August 6, 1941, and during World War II they moved to Vancouver, Washington, where Donald built war ships. After the war they returned to Eastern Oregon where they farmed and ranched in the Baker Valley. They moved to Stanfield in 1953, where Donald began working for Union Pacific Railroad and Jessie ran the farm. Her children remember her making cream to sell to Mayflower milk in Hermiston. In the mid-1960s her mother Martha bought her one weaner pig, Jessie raised it, had it bred and sold a litter of weaner pigs. That is how she bought the family their first color TV.

Jessie was an accomplished baker and often her pies, Christmas candies and cookies were in high demand. She was a warm and loving individual who loved nothing more than her family. Any family get-together with children around her would bring a smile to her face. She liked watching the Seahawks and bull riding. The only time she might get slightly upset was when she was watching either and they would wander in front of the TV.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, November 25, 2017, at 10 a.m. at Burns Mortuary chapel in Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.
