

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

FRIDAY

8:50 a.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received a 911 call from a female who stated someone threw her out of her vehicle at Country Lane and Powerline Road, Hermiston. Law enforcement did not find her.

9:26 a.m. - Law enforcement in Morrow County responded to Love's Travel Stop and Country Store, 78665 Tower Road, Boardman, on a report of a female claiming someone dragged her from her vehicle and she doesn't feel safe. Morrow County sheriff's deputies and Boardman police tried to find the female, and eventually referred the case to another agency.

9:49 a.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office took a report of possible dog neglect on Northeast Court Street, Heppner.

11:54 a.m. - A caller reported possible poaching of a spike elk about a mile or so up Blake Ranch Road from Willow Creek Road, Heppner. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office relayed the information to Oregon State Police.

11:55 a.m. - A caller asked the Morrow County Sheriff's Office to send someone to check on the welfare and care of a mentally disabled female at a home Irrigon because she may be the victim of neglect.

1:35 p.m. - A Heppner resident on Black Mountain Lane reported the theft of her tractor crawler.

4:01 p.m. - People spray-painted the Interstate 84 overpass near milepost 238 by the railroad tracks at Meacham, a caller reported.

5:01 p.m. - Staff at The Saddle Restaurant and Lounge, 2220 S.E. Court Ave., Pendleton, called for police to deal with an intoxicated man who refused to leave the establishment.

SATURDAY

12:11 a.m. - A Hermiston resident on Southeast Eighth Place told police the upstairs neighbors were too loud, so he pounds on the ceiling and they just pound back. The caller told police he wants them to quiet down.

4:34 a.m. - Two people suffered injuries in a multiple-vehicle crash south of Highway 730 and Paterson Ferry Road. Ambulances took two people to Good Shepherd Medical Center, Hermiston.

4:24 p.m. - Railroad workers reported seven or eight bulls on or near tracks on the north side on Interstate 84 about two miles east of Tower Road, Boardman. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office contacted several possible owners of the bulls, and one company took care of them.

9:01 p.m. - Pendleton police received a report of four to five juveniles arguing and causing a disturbance on the Pendleton River Parkway at Southeast Sixth Street.

SUNDAY

5:22 a.m. - A Milton-Freewater man reported a burglary at his home on the 1000 block of North Elizabeth Street.

2:27 p.m. - A man reported he was driving on Baseline Road near Echo when a GMC Sierra pickup and white Mazda passenger car passed him on double yellow lines. Two males were in the pickup and a female was in the car. He said the pickup almost hit another car head-on, but the other driver left the road to avoid the crash, and the Mazda came close to hitting that car as well.

The caller said he followed the pair of vehicles to the Space Age Fuel, 77522 Highway 207, Hermiston, where he took down their license plate numbers. He added the female "has an attitude" when she realized what he was doing.

5:13 p.m. - A resident of Green Acres RV Park, 80542 Paterson Ferry Road, Irrigon, reported someone broke into his trailer at the far southwest corner.

6:09 p.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office received a report of people fighting on Southeast Eighth Street, Irrigon.

6:34 p.m. - A caller in Umatilla told police he yelled at a speeding driver of a Volvo wagon to slow down on Sixth Street, and the driver pulled out a gun. Police did not find the suspect.

7:02 p.m. - Firewood falling from a northbound pickup to Highway 11 near milepost 34 damaged vehicles over the span of about an hour. Oregon State Police reported a log caused a flat tire to a Toyota Tacoma, and a vehicle kicked up another piece that struck the rear of a Buick Enclave. But a Ford Explorer and Toyota Camry were not drivable after hitting larger logs.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday

•Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Tamara Dove Bergstrom, 32, of S.E. 10th St., Apt. 96, Hermiston, for second-degree theft and identity theft.

OBITUARIES

Delmer 'Del' Culver

Umatilla

February 20, 1931 - November 20, 2017

Delmer "Del" Culver was born February 20, 1931, in Elgin, Oregon, to Guy and Elmy (Hesner) Culver. He passed away with his family by his side on November 20, 2017, in Hermiston, Oregon.

Del lived in Elgin during his childhood where he attended school and graduated from Elgin High School in 1949. After high school, he lived in Richland, Washington, where he co-owned and operated a service station with his brother Marvin.

He married Charlene (Kayce) Kraft in Richland, Washington, on December 10, 1966. The couple moved to Prosser, Washington, where Del worked for Twin City Foods, operated a small family farm and worked for Pendleton Grain Growers. The couple were caretakers at Grace Brethren Church Camp and managers of several hotels and mobile home parks in both Washington and Oregon. They moved to Hermiston, Oregon, in 1999, where he worked until his retirement and moved to Umatilla in 2006.

Del and Kayce were volunteers at Agape House, Treasures Thrift Shop and the senior centers.

Del's favorite pastimes included hunting, golfing, bowling and taking his family to the Oregon coast. Always a tease and somewhat of a jokester, he loved to "steal" cookie dough and became quite talented at making Christmas candy. Del was a loving husband and devoted father and grandfather.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two sisters, Elvera and Kathleen; and two brothers, Clifford and Marvin.

Delmer is survived by his loving wife of 51 years, Charlene (Kayce); daughters Pamela (Bill) Martin, Denise Honeyford, Lisa (Thomas) Eppel, Teresa (Terry) Buchanan, Karla Culver and Koni (Dave) Shaff; and only son Douglas (Brooke) Honeyford. He was blessed with 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, December 2, 2017, at the Country Church where Del was an active member.

Family suggests memorial donations to the Lewy Body Dementia Association (LBDA), 912 Killian Hill Road SW, Lilburn, GA 30047 (www.lbda.org).

Joan Marie Sumner

The Dalles

May 4, 1930 - November 23, 2017

Joan Marie Sumner, a longtime resident of The Dalles, Ore., passed away Thursday, Nov. 23, 2017, surrounded by her family. Her grandchildren say that Thanksgiving was always her holiday! We will be forever thankful that she was our mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend. Joan Marie was born May 4, 1930, on a bright, sunny Sunday morning in Heppner, Ore., to Paul and Kathleen (Monahan) Hisler. She attended Heppner schools where activities included rally squad, Girls State representative and Heppner Rodeo queen.

Post-high school, Joan attended Eastern Oregon State College, where she was a cheerleader and earned a degree in education. Joan married Jim Sumner on June 29, 1952, and they celebrated over 60 years together, until Jim's passing in 2012.

Mrs. Sumner taught at grade schools in Hood River, Heppner, Ellensburg, Wash., and The Dalles, Ore. She and Jim moved to The Dalles in 1960. Joan taught at Joseph G. Wilson Elementary and was the first lay teacher at St. Mary's Academy. In 1965, she helped initiate the new Head Start program in The Dalles, as the first teacher.

Joan was a member of St. Peter's Catholic Church and volunteered for many local organizations. She worked on Wasco County Red Cross blood drives alongside Jim (chairman) for many, many years. Ironically, at age 86, she developed myelodysplastic syndrome and it was donor blood that sustained her.

Joan was a very grounded, joyful person who continued to spread sunshine throughout her life. She was our family cheerleader. She enjoyed her faith, family and many wonderful friends.

Joan is survived by her daughter Angela Shearer (Jeff); son Shane; grandsons Scott Shearer (Erika), Brian Shearer (Kate), Markus Shearer and Brent Sumner; great-grandsons Thomas and Jack Shearer; sister Francine Bristow (Tom); and brother Paul Hisler Jr. (Susan).

Recitation of the rosary will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, Dec. 1, 2017, with Mass of Christian Burial to follow at 11 a.m. at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Heppner, Ore. Please join the family for a celebration of a life well lived and a person well loved at the Heppner Elks Lodge following the graveside service.

The family wishes to thank The Springs at Mill Creek staff and Heart of Hospice for their loving care and requests that donations be made to Heart of Hospice, 2621 Wasco St, Hood River, OR 97031 in Joan's memory or to a charity of choice. Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements.
