WALLA WALLA — Hermiston took one of its shortest road trips on Wednesday, traveling to Walla Walla to face the Wa-Hi Blue Devils in a game that was supposed to open the Bulldogs'

After the Hermiston football team claimed its second state title in program history, the decision was made to move the previously-scheduled Nov. 29 meeting between the schools to later in the season. That day came on Wednesday and with it a rough 57-37 Bulldogs loss.

The Blue Devils (3-1) hosted the Bulldogs (3-4) for their home opener, and Wa-Hi put on a show for its home crowd.

After a close first half where Hermiston held a three-point lead at the end of the first quarter and Wa-Hi rallied to take control of the game with a three-point lead of its own, 25-22, the second half was on pace to be just as excited.

But the Blue Devils never relinquished their lead. Holding the Bulldogs to a single digit third quarter, the Blue Devils ran away with the game handing Hermiston its second loss in the same amount of days.

everything on the bus," head coach Casey Arstein Walla Walla said after the game. "We didn't show up at all." perfor-The mance was hard for the second-year coach to recap, but turnovers and laziness on offense hurt the Bulldogs.

'Guys need to step up,' Arstein said. "We need to move the ball better as a team, but first we've got to take care of the ball if we want to share the ball.'

The Blue Devils took advantage of Hermiston's miscues with senior Tyler Greene leading the way.

Greene led Wa-Hi with 14 points,

For the second night, junior Ryne Andreason led Hermiston scoring 15 points. Andreason did the most damage in the first half, scoring nine of his 15 points.

said. "You just can't deal with her. But I need that daily, weekly, monthly. Every night. Don't get bored with it.'

Mississippi State (10-0) also got a stellar performance from Vivians, who scored 26 points in the second half. She shot 10 of 15 from the field, including 5 of 8 from 3-point range.

She was shooting so well in the fourth quarter that on one possession she simply stopped five feet behind the 3-point line and let it fly. Nothing but net. Mississippi State shot 54 percent from the field, including 62.5 percent in the third quarter during a big offensive push. Vivians said the Bulldogs are so good on offense because the threat of scoring can come from anywhere on the floor.

"We have great chemistry and (my teammates) are confident," Vivians said. "They know they can shoot, so when it's their opportunity to shoot, they're going to knock a shot down."

Oregon (8-2) was led by 25 points and grabbed seven rebounds. The Ducks lost despite shooting 56 percent from the field. Satou Sabally added 17 points.

"Both teams were really good offensively, but the difference was we just didn't really come to play defensively," Oregon coach Kelly Graves said. "We had a difficult time, obviously, with blocking McCowan out. She's an incredible player and when she puts her mind to it, there's really not a whole lot you can do down there."

UP NEXT Oregon hosts Ole Miss on Sunday. OREGON STATE 84,

SAVANNAH STATE 36 Mikayla Pivec scored 19 points, Marie Gulich had 18 points, 10 rebounds, three assists and two blocks, and No. 17 Oregon State used a 26-5 second quarter to beat Savannah State 84-36 on Wednesday.

Joanna Grymek added 16 points for Oregon State (7-2), which had the third-highest history. Kat Tudor scored all 11 of her points in the first half.

Gulich had 12 points and eight rebounds in the first 20 minutes to help Oregon State build a 45-14 halftime lead. Pivec added seven points.

State (2-6) with 16 points. Donasja Scott added 11 points and Alexxus Sowell grabbed 12 shooting in the first half and made just 4 of 11 free throws. The Tigers finished at 23.2 percent shooting from the floor.

LAND STATE 84 — Elijah Brown scored 22 points, and Payton Pritchard and Kenny Wooten had 18 each to help Oregon fend off Portland State 95-84 on Wednesday night.

Troy Brown just missed his first triple-double with 10 points, 10 rebounds and nine assists for the Ducks (8-3). Wooten, also a freshman, was 8 of 8 with five dunks and six Paul White added 15 points for Oregon, which has won three in a row since losing three of its previous four games.

Bryce Canda scored 26 of his career-high points in the second half to lead the Vikings (8-3). Deontae North added 23.

After trailing by 14 points early in the second half, Portland State twice cut the deficit to two before Elijah Brown scored six points during a 10-2 run that put Oregon back in control. Brown had 14 points in the second half.

Pritchard also had seven assists and seven rebounds as the Ducks had a 43-35 edge on the boards and 27 assists on 32 baskets. Brandon Hollins had 11 rebounds for the Vikings.

Portland State had a 29-4 edge in points off turnovers as Oregon committed a seasonhigh 18.

Oregon ended the first half on an 18-4 run after seven lead changes and 10 ties. Portland State missed 10 of its last 11 shots to trail 50-39 at the half.

Timbers trade Nagbe to Atlanta

Associated Press

PORTLAND — The Portland Timbers have traded midfielder Darlington Nagbe to Atlanta United in exchange for as much as $1.65 million in allocation money.

Portland is also sending defender Gbenga Arokoyo to Atlanta and receiving a 2018 international spot as part of the trade, considered the biggest of the postseason so far.

Nagbe, who has become a regular on the U.S. national team, has been with the Timbers since the team joined MLS in 2011. He was selected with the second overall pick in that year's MLS SuperDraft. He has 27 goals and 30 assists in 214 matches with the Timbers. His goals are the second-most since the team joined MLS. "Thank you, Portland, and everyone that supported my family and me the past seven years," he said in a statement released by the Nagbe, 27, has 24 appearances with the national team and one goal.

Atlanta vice president and technical director Carlos Bocanegra said Nagbe was the team's top offseason target.

"He is a perfect fit for our style of play as he has a dynamic ability to dribble out of trouble, maintain possession and make passes that bring additional players into the game," Bocanegra

Nagbe joins a strong midfield in Atlanta that already includes Miguel Almiron, Hector Villalba and league Rookie of the Year Julian United, an expansion team this past season, finished 15-9-10 but fell in the knockout round of the playoffs to the Columbus Crew. Arokoyo, 25, made one MLS appearance with the Timbers last season. The funds involved in the deal included $650,000 in general allocation money in 2018, $100,000 in 2019, and $300,000 in targeted allocation money. The total figure could rise if Nagbe and United reach certain incentives.

The Timbers, who finished atop the Western Conference standings but got knocked out of the conference semifinals by Houston, are clearly making changes in the offseason. The team is currently looking for a new coach after parting ways with Caleb Porter.

Mariners swap international money for pair of pitchers

LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. (AP) — The Seattle Mariners have landed two pitchers in a pair of trades in exchange for some of the international slot money the club had acquired in the hopes of landing Shohei Ohtani.

The Mariners got right-hander Shawn Armstrong from Cleveland on Wednesday and picked up minor-league lefty Anthony Misiewicz from Tampa Bay. Misiewicz was previously in the Mariners organization before being dealt to Tampa Bay last season.

Armstrong is the most likely to help Seattle immediately. The 27-year-old made 21 relief appearances for Cleveland last season and posted a 4.38 ERA in 24 2/3 innings. Armstrong also had brief stints with the Indians in the 2015 and 2016 seasons.

Misiewicz, 23, has not pitched above Double-A but was 11-6 with 141 strikeouts in 147 2/3 total innings pitching at the Single-A and Double-A levels last season for three teams.

Marlins continue salary purge, ship Ozuna to Cardinals LAKE BUENA VISTA, Fla. (AP) – Miami has agreed to trade left fielder Marcell Ozuna to the St. Louis Cardinals, the third All-Star jettisoned by the Marlins this month in an unrelenting payroll purge under new CEO Derek Jeter. An All-Star the past two seasons, the 27-year-old Ozuna set career bests this season with a .312 average, 37 homers and 124 RBIs. He is eligible for salary arbitration and likely will earn more than $10 million. He can become a free agent after the 2019 season.

Ozuna likely will be in the outfielder with Dexter Fowler and Tommy Pham. St. Louis could trade right fielder Stephen Piscotty. Matheny wouldn't commit to an alignment.

Center fielder Christian Yelich could be the next to exit the downsizing Marlins, bought by Bruce Sherman's group on Oct. 2. Miami had a $116 million payroll on Aug. 31, up from $81 million at the end of last year, and is intent on reducing obligations.

Angels keep adding, make trade with Detroit for 2B Kinsler

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers have agreed to trade veteran second baseman Ian Kinsler to the Los Angeles Angels for two minor leaguers. Detroit receives 18-year-old right-hander Wilkel Hernandez and 23-year-old outfielder Troy Montgomery. The 35-year-old Kinsler hit .236 with 22 home runs and 52 RBIs last season, but the rebuilding Tigers no longer need him. Kinsler spent four years with Detroit after being acquired from Texas in a trade for Prince Fielder, and he was generally productive, although his batting average dipped to a career low in 2017.

This is shaping up to be a busy offseason for the Angels, who landed Japanese star Shohei Ohtani.
