Don E. Anderson

Arlington
May 30, 1932 - January 1, 2018

Don E. Anderson, 85, of Arlington passed away January 1, 2018, surrounded by family in Heppner, Oregon. A graveside service will be held on Monday, January 8, 2018, at 11 a.m. at the Arlington Cemetery in Arlington, Oregon. A reception will follow at the Gronquist Building in Arlington.

He was born May 30, 1932, the only son of Edgar and Margaret McKinney Anderson. He grew up on the family ranch in the Blalock Canyon area near Arlington, Oregon, that was homesteaded in 1888. He attended school in Arlington, graduating from Arlington High School in 1950.

Don served in the United States Army from 1953-1955, stationed in Fort Hood, Texas. He stayed in contact with many of his Army buddies throughout his life.

Besides the wheat and cattle ranch, Don's only real hobby in his younger years was the occasional weekend rodeo. That hobby led him to the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo, where he met rodeo queen Patricia Ann Wright. They were married November 30, 1957. Don and Patricia combined their family ranches, which are still in operation today.

Don enjoyed good horses and cattle. He was recognized as the lifetime commercial cattleman honoree at the Western Nugget Nation Hereford Show in 2005 by the Western States Hereford Association. In 1990 and 1991 he was selected by the American Hereford Association to judge Hereford carloads at the National Western Livestock Show in Denver, Colorado. Don also enjoyed watching high school and college sporting events, traveling to Hereford bull sales and visiting with people in the livestock industry.

He was a member of the Oregon Cattleman's Association, Oregon Wheat Growers League and Condon Elks Lodge #1869 and was active with the Arlington Saddle Club for many years.

Survivors include daughter Tami Rietmann and her husband Mark of Heppner; son Brad Anderson and his wife Sally of Arlington; granddaughters Shelly McCabe and her husband Adam of Ione, Shanna Sallee and her husband Mike of Hermiston and Tatianna Taylor of Hood River; great-grandchildren Anson McCabe and Tessa Sallee; and friend Cheryl Thomas of Hood River. He was preceded in death by his wife Patricia and his parents.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Arlington Education Foundation, P.O. Box 451, Arlington, OR 97812 or to Pioneer Memorial Hospice, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, OR 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in charge of arrangements.

Ronald Jean Price

Pendleton
June 30, 1948 - December 29, 2017

Ronald Jean Price, 69, of Pendleton passed away on December 29, 2017, in Pendleton. Ron was born on June 30, 1948, the second of six children to James and Lucille (Bailey) Price in Gastonia, North Carolina.

Ron honorably served in the United States Army, including a tour in Vietnam. Before moving to the West Coast he welcomed five children in North Carolina. He was known to keep the kids up all night; playing softball or pulling late bike rides around an island. In 1985 he moved to Irrigon and eventually settled in Pendleton. Before suffering a shoulder and knee injury he was an avid bowler and fisherman. He had a lifelong passion for driving — didn't matter how many miles, he was always up for a long drive. You could always be sure to see him completing a Word Find if there was a moment of down time.

He is preceded in death by his parents, and grandson Grayson Schaaf.

He is survived by his longtime girlfriend Patricia Bohmes; siblings Jim Price, Pat Walters, Linda Gamblin, Elaine Gildred and Carolyn Lyle; children Lucille Barnes, Elaine Redmond, Wendy Dill, Andy Price and Janie Schaaf, 19 grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Eloise Claudine (Lois) Hill

Prairie City
September 1, 1924 - December 18, 2017

Eloise Claudine (Lois) Hill, 93, passed away Monday, December 18, 2017, in Prairie City. She was born September 1, 1924, in Hamilton, Oregon, to Coleman Justice and Doris Sweek. She attended school in Monument, was active in plays, sports, and student body leadership and graduated a year early as valedictorian of her class in 1941.

On August 31, 1946, she and Charles (Son) Hill were married. They enjoyed 60 years together on their ranches near Kimberly, Oregon.

They worked hard with their cattle herd and growing hay. They also raised two children on the ranches, son George (Gus) and daughter Jean.

Lois always had a big garden to help feed the family and canned fruit every summer from the Kimberly Orchards. She was a wonderful cook and bread maker. As a young girl she helped feed large harvesting crews and learned the craft well. She cooked at the Monument schools for 23 years, first as the assistant cook and later as the head cook until her retirement in 1998. She insisted on "cooking from scratch" and her recipes are still shared in the community.

She was active in the 4-H program and extension service for many years in Grant County, supporting her kids and scores of others. She later was called upon to judge food projects and exhibits at county fairs throughout the state, which she enjoyed tremendously.

Due to health issues with Son, Lois was his caregiver and constant companion during the last 10 years of his life. She enjoyed quilting with friends in the afternoons during Son's naps and loved the great fellowship of the Kimberly Bunco Club. The kindness and thoughtfulness of neighbors and friends in their care and concern of Lois and Son is cherished.

Throughout her life Lois had her share of hardship and challenges. She met them with a sense of humor, a twinkle in her eye, and a resourcefulness and strength of character that positively impacted those around her.

Lois touched numerous lives throughout her lifetime. She loved and is loved by many. Her kindness, caring and sweet, sweet smile will be greatly missed.

She is survived by son George of Reno, Nev., daughter Jean of Kimberly, Ore., and sister Darlene Forrest of Monument, Ore.

Lois was very grateful for those who provided assistance in her care during the last several years. Many thanks to the staff of Blue Mountain Care Center and to Tina Ray and her family for your kind and loving care. Thank you to the individuals and organizations in the area who support the residents of the Care Center.
