Pendleton group sets women's march

PENDELTON — The Blue Mountain Marchers are organizing an event to coincide with women's marches planned across the globe.

The Women's March on Pendleton is Saturday, Jan. 20. The group will meet at 1 p.m. at the fountain in front of Pendleton City Hall, 500 S.W. Dorion Ave. The one-mile march will make a stop at the Umatilla County Courthouse and end in the parking lot at Heritage Station Museum.

Organizers said the goal of the peaceful march is to express unity and that intolerance or injustice won't be accepted. It was anticipated that 150 people would participate in last year's inaugural event in Pendleton, however, more than 400 people showed up. Women, men and children participated — some carrying signs expressing the need for respect, compassion and solidarity with women.

Prior to last year's event, some participants met in advance to create signs. For more information, contact Robin Lambert at 503-740-8262 or rllkm2@gmail.com.

AARP class cruises into town

PENDELTON — Drivers can gain useful defensive driving information, learn about current driving technologies and updated rules of the road during the AARP Smart Driver course.

The session also provides information about how age-related factors can impact driving and ways to make adjustments. While the classes are designed for older drivers, anyone with a license is welcome to attend.

An upcoming class, taught by certified volunteer instructor Nikii Murtaugh, is Saturday, Jan. 20 from 8:45 a.m. to 4 p.m. at St. Anthony Hospital, 2801 St. Anthony Way, Pendleton. The fee is $15 for AARP members (bring membership card) or $20 for non-members. A break will be provided for participants to have lunch on their own.

For more information or to register, call 541-861-0024.
