Tres Tinkle has 16 and Oregon State beats UCLA 69-63

By ANNE M. PETERSON
Associated Press

CORVALLIS — Tres Tinkle had 16 points and Oregon State snapped a two-game losing streak with a 69-63 victory over UCLA on Thursday night.

Stephen Thompson Jr. and Drew Eubanks each added 12 points for the Beavers (11-7, 3-3 Pac-12), who finished with all five starters in double figures.

Aaron Holiday led the Bruins (13-6, 4-3) with 22 points. Thomas Welsh finished with 10 points and 13 rebounds. UCLA has now lost as many in league play as all of last season when the team went 15-3 in the Pac-12.

UCLA erased an 8-point deficit to tie the game at 48-48 after a layup from Alex Olesinski with 9:37 left. Thompson answered with a layup for the Beavers to keep the Bruins from pulling ahead.

The Bruins took a 54-53 lead on Chris Smith's layup with 6:40 to go and both teams wrestled for the advantage down the stretch. Kris Wilkes' layup put the Bruins up 58-57, but Seth Berger's basket put the Beavers back in front with 3:42 to go.

Tinkle's 3-pointer gave the Beavers a 62-60 lead before Thompson added his own 3 with 2:16 left. After Eubanks' dunk for Oregon State, Wilkes hit a 3-pointer for UCLA to close the gap to 67-63 with 27 seconds left.

The pace was slow throughout the first half, with the score knotted at 13 with 7:48 to go after a layup from UCLA's Chris Smith. Kendal Manuel put Oregon State ahead with a 3-pointer.

Thompson and Eubanks hit back-to-back layups to put Oregon State up 31-26 at the break, and Berger's basket to open the second half pushed the Beavers' margin to seven points.

The pace favored Oregon State, which went into the game holding opponents to 65.2 points to lead the Pac-12. On the other side, UCLA was averaging 84 points per game, second in the Pac-12.

Holiday, who scored just four points in the first half, had seven in the first five minutes of the second. But UCLA struggled to close the gap until Holiday's 3-pointer got the Bruins within 41-38.

Berger's 3-pointer and a pair of free throws from Thompson stretched Oregon State's lead to 48-40.

The Bruins were coming off a 68-59 loss at home to Colorado last Saturday. UCLA shot just 37.1 percent from the floor. The loss came after a 19-point victory over Utah that coach Steve Alford said was one of UCLA's best of the year.

UCLA's season has been inconsistent following the season-long suspension of Cody Riley and Jalen Hill, and the departure of LiAngelo Ball following a team trip to China where the three were arrested for shoplifting.

The Beavers lost 62-53 to then-No. 17 Arizona before a second loss to then-No. 11 Arizona State last Saturday.

BUCKS: Outscore Riverhawks 16-5 in third quarter to extend narrow lead

But the game broke open in the third quarter. The Bucks outscored the Eagles 16-5 in the third to increase their lead to 42-25 and ran away to reach the final score of 51-36.

Porter repeated the game plan throughout the night: continue to bring the pressure on defense, be patient with the ball and play clean — Pendleton finished with only nine turnovers.

"It's just intensity in practice," Porter said. "We're just trying to raise the intensity level in practice and trying to perform at that level in games and tonight they showed that they can do that."

According to Pendleton's lead scorer, senior post player Kalan McGlothlin, the team took their weakness and imposed it on their opponents.

"We used to struggle really bad when teams would press us," she said. "So then we press them, and we set the tempo of the game and it's something we want to do every game."

Matching the team's intensity, Porter had moments by the bench that helped fuel the fire the Bucks lit on the court.

At the beginning of the third quarter, the officials signaled timeout. Pendleton had just gone on a 9-2 run and Porter couldn't have been happier.

He jumped off the bench, and with both feet planted near the 3-point arc he waved his hands and yelled "Get in here, let's go."

"I can be very exciting," Porter said. He noted that people can misunderstand that energy and think he is getting after the players — but that wasn't the case.

"I certainly was not getting after the girls," he said. "I want that intensity (from the court) to stay there. I don't want a timeout to (be) a letdown, so I tend to increase my energy sometimes. I couldn't of been happier."

Pendleton will hope to carry that same intensity to its next game Tuesday. The Bucks will host their last non-league matchup before hitting the road and returning to CRC play for a three-game away stint. Pendleton will welcome the La Grande Tigers, and tipoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Thursday's doubleheader at Culver, Heppner's girls basketball team closed out the night and the Mustangs put on quite the show.

They narrowly escaped with a 48-46 victory over the Bulldogs to move to 2-1 in Columbia River Conference play, and 10-4 overall. They snapped the Bulldogs (10-6 overall, 2-1 CRC) four-game win streak, and will continue their road trip at Pilot Rock on Saturday. Tipoff is slated for 5:30 p.m.

WRESTLING

THE DALLES — On Wednesday, Hermiston traveled to The Dalles for a Columbia River Conference dual meet. The Bulldogs completely dominated, and defeated the Riverhawks 69-6.

Results were made available Thursday and showed The Dalles lone win was by forfeit. JR Scott (182) recording the only points for the Riverhawks without even touching the mat.

Seven Bulldogs also had the same outcome, recording easy points to boost Hermiston's lead.

Only four Hermiston wrestler's faced Riverhawks opponents, and all four won by fall in two round or less.

Aidan Villarreal (138) pinned Steven Preston in 3:31, Adrian Tuia (145) trapped Glenn Breckterfield in 2:59, Trevor Wagner (152) won his bout against Austin Green in 1:59 and Daniel Faeteete (160) was the quickest Bulldog to pin his competitor, Opat Silapath, in just 44 seconds.

Both the junior varsity and varsity squads will travel to the Reser's Tournament of Champions, which begins Friday and lasts through Saturday.

BAKER — Mac-Hi didn't fare well on the road against Baker/Powder Valley on Thursday. The Pioneers suffered a stunning 58-15 defeat at the hands of the Bulldogs.

Out of the 11 wrestlers Mac-Hi brought to the dual meet, only three won their respective bout. Joshua Torres (195) over pinned Baker's Andrew Dunn to win by fall and Cruz Garcia (285) over by a 3-0 decision over Lucien Yervasi. Alex Doherty (220) won by forfeit.

For Baker, Johnny Niehaus (113) and Colton Anderson (132) won by technical fall over Mac-Hi's Andrew Dunn and Jakob Henshew, respectively.

Four Bulldogs won by forfeit and the remaining four all won by fall against their Pioneer opponent.

In an exhibition bout, Ian Feldmeier (138) of Baker pinned Mac-Hi's Igor Pasqualini for the victory.
