Patriots, Eagles will square off in Super Bowl 52

By ARNIE STAPLETON Associated Press

Tom Brady and the New England Patriots are going back to the Super Bowl in search of a sixth title. They'll face a Philadelphia Eagles team looking for their first Lombardi Trophy. Brady led the Patriots (15-3) back from a 10-point, fourth-quarter deficit to beat the Jacksonville Jaguars 24-20 in the AFC championship game Sunday. Starting his 36th playoff game, Brady shook off an injury to his right hand and the loss of top target Rob Gronkowski to rally the Patriots to their record 10th Super Bowl appearance.

The Patriots will try to match the Pittsburgh Steelers' six Super Bowl trophies when they face the Eagles (15-3) on Feb. 4 in Minneapolis.

Nick Foles, the backup QB who was thrust into the starting role when Carson Wentz blew out his left knee last month, led the Philadelphia to a 38-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC championship game. Foles threw for 352 yards and three touchdowns, showing poise and moxie in going 26 for 33.

The Vikings were hoping to become the first NFL team to serve as host to a Super Bowl in its own stadium, but they followed up their "Minneapolis Miracle" with a "Flop in Philly."

So, they'll clear out their lockers long before the Eagles and Patriots and their fans take over U.S. Bank Stadium for Super Bowl 52 in two weeks.

Oddsmakers like the chances of Brady winning a sixth Super Bowl ring, making the Patriots nearly a touchdown favorite to beat the Eagles.

The Patriots and Eagles, who last won an NFL title in 1960, several years before the first Super Bowl, met in the Super Bowl after the 2004 season with the Patriots prevailing 24-21.

Hours after Brady's game-winning 4-yard TD pass to Danny Amendola with 2:48 remaining in Foxborough, the Eagles won for the fourth time in five tries under Foles.

It started out ominously, however.

The Vikings celebrated Kyle Rudolph's 25-yard touchdown catch from Case Keenum on their opening drive by mimicking the Olympic sport of curling for their TD celebration.

It was the Eagles who had all the fun after that.

started. Then Foles and his offense tore up the league's stingiest scoring defense, with long TD throws to Alshon Jeffery and Torrey Smith. LeGarrette Blount had an 11-yard scoring run when things were decided in the first half, and the Eagles were headed to an NFL title game the Vikings (14-4) hoped to be in at their own stadium.

"You know everyone was against us," Foles said. "Coming out here and stick together and (we) come away with an amazing victory against a great team."

Blake Bortles and the stingy Jaguars (12-7) led New England 20-10 early in the fourth quarter, but couldn't hold against the defending champions.

The NFL's second-ranked defense kept Brady and the Patriots at bay for most of the game, but lost linebacker Myles Jack and defensive tackle Marcell Dareus on consecutive plays on New England's winning drive.

It was New England's 13th win in 14 games since their 2-2 start. Their only stumble since September was a 27-20 loss at the Dolphins on Dec. 11.

Brady, wearing a black bandage on his right hand after needing stitches to close a cut that happened on a play during practice earlier in the week, showed no signs of being hampered.

New England Patriots defensive lineman Ricky Jean Francois walks off the field with the trophy after the AFC championship against the Jacksonville Jaguars on Sunday in Foxborough, Mass.

And, with the game and the season - possibly on the line, the Patriots star came up big again.

"I've had a lot worse," Brady said. "I didn't know that on Wednesday. It was a crazy injury. Wednesday, Thursday, Friday was a little scary. Then I started getting some confidence and today we did just enough to win." Brady finished 26 of 38 for 290 yards and two touchdowns to Amendola.

It's the eighth Super Bowl appearance for Brady and coach Bill Belichick, who have won five times including last year's 34-28 overtime rally against the Falcons.

WRESTLING: Buckaroos finish in third place at the Colton Holly Tournament whom claiming fifth place in their respective weight class.

Hermiston's wrestling team was split between two meets on Saturday. In Heppner, a handful of wrestlers made the trip with Alice Todryk (106) and Cole Abbott (113) having the best finish for the Bulldogs.

Both wrestlers finished in third place, Todryk defeated Riverside's Ramos in the consolation semifinal bout to face Ethan Moore of Grant Union in the third place match. She won by fall in 3:11. Abbott also made it out of the consolation semifinal and won by fall over Mac-Hi's Layne Ensey. The bout almost latest the full three rounds before Abbott trapped Ensey at the 5:54 mark.

place, respectively.

WILSONVILLE — The Pendleton wrestling team finished in third place at the Colton Holly Tourney on Saturday.

The Buckaroos opened the day pitted against host school, Wilsonville, and the Wildcats escaped with a narrow 39-34 victory.

Pendleton's Caleb Tremper (113), Alex Rendon (132) and Brendon Bedolla (138) — all of whom finished undefeated — were some of the first Bucks to get points on the board for the team. Rendon and Bedolla didn't even have to take the mat, as they both won by forfeit. Tremper defeated Wilsonville's Caleb Wilde when the 7-0 decision went his way.

Blake Davis (145), Isaac Urbina (152), Kirk Liscom

All of Round 1 winners continued their success in the second round, but some other Bucks who weren't as successful against Wilsonville won their bouts against Lake Oswego.

Koby Jones (126) won by fall against Henry Fillmore in 4:46, Cezar Medina (220) won by forfeit and Max Bishop (285) pinned Cameron McKenna in 3 minutes flat.

In the third round, Pendleton came out on top once again. This time the Bucks handed Barlow a 45-30 defeat.

Tremper, Jones, Davis, Urbina and Henderson all won by fall — Davis got off the mat the fastest, pinning Nicholas Barden (145) in just 38 seconds.

Rendon earned his third victory again by forfeit. Liscom also had a break in this round, winning by forfeit, and a 8-4 decision went Bedolla's way to help the Bucks advance.

and Patterson won by a 10-5 decision against Kaden Boyd (170).

After the loss to Canby, Pendleton faced Beaverton in the third place match. The Bucks ran away with the win, 48-27

Only four of Beaverton's wrestlers won their bouts, while the rest fell to their Buckaroos opponent.

Rendon and Tremper had the quickest wins, pinning their opponents in 26 and 40 seconds, respectively.

Jones won by fall over Drew Field (126) in 1:34, while it took Henderson 1:56 and Liscom 3:47 to pin their opponents. Bedolla and Max Bishop (285) both won by forfeit, and Davis and Patterson by a 5-1 and 5-2 decision, respectively.

HILLSBORO — On

sion went his way, Villarreal wrestled West Linn's Cael Brunson for third place. Brunson won in sudden victory-1 over Villarreal (5-3)

Hermiston's Beau Blake (285) finished in third place after a sudden victory went his way.

Blake was defeated by Newberg's Tristan Osborn (Dec. $\tilde{3}$ -2) to move into the consolation semifinals. There he won by fall in just 47 seconds. He then faced Liberty's Dylan Thygersen and won 3-1 to claim the Bulldogs' only third place finish.

Ruben Madrigal (106) and Joey Gutierrez (195) finished in sixth place. Madrigal was pinned by Micah Worth-ington of Newberg in 2:21, and Milwaukie's Chass Amundson won by injury received a bye in the quarterfinal round to then face Crane's Glen Starbuck in the semifinals — where Ranger won by a technical fall in 4:44 — and Lowell's Logan Davis-Tucker, who he pinned in 2:45.

Hayden Hilliard (132), Mychael Pointer (145), Logan Butler (195) and Kenneth Bevan (220) each took home a title and added over 90 points to the team's total.

Hilliard won by fall over each opponent, and got out of Round 2 the quickest by trapping Lowell's Kent McIntosh in just 47 seconds.

Like Ranger, Pointer and Butler both received bye's. Point in the quarterfinal and Butler in both the quarter and semi finals. The Cougar duo didn't have to wrestler for more than a round against their respective opponents, getting off the mat in end two minutes during each bout. Bevan was the final Echo wrestler to win in his weight class, 220 pounds. He dominated the competition, pinning all of his opponents in no more than 1:35 Daylon Eng (120) won second place after Adrian's Kaden Rhead won by fall in 5:27, and Caden Fisher (182) earned third after finishing his opponents from Crane in a quick 32 seconds.

Daniel Hermiston's Shipley (145) and Sam Marsengill (120) finished in fourth and fifth place, respectively.

The hosting Mustangs didn't fare well at their home meet. Leo Waite (126) had the most success with a second place finish. Carson Brosnan (152) and Charles Cason (160) both followed with third place finishes, while Trevor Antonucci (120) ended the day in fourth. Suzanneah Cason (126) and Ethan Holmgren (182) finished in fifth and sixth (182) and Aiden Henderson (195) were also victorious in their bouts with Wildcat wrestlers. These four would end up going undefeated through the first three rounds.

After the five-point defeat, Pendleton had to face Lake Oswego. The Bucks dominated their competition, winning 58-15.

Only three Lake Oswego wrestlers one their bouts, one by forfeit, one by a 6-0 decision over Pendleton's Aiden Patterson and the last by fall — Ethan Frech pinned Ian Bannister in 4:33.

In the championship rounds, the Bucks dropped their first match 48-25 against Canby.

Only five of Pendleton's wrestlers won their bouts.

Tremper won by fall over Nick Marquez (113) in 3:03, while it only took Rendon 19 seconds to pin Adam Marquez for the win. Jones won by major decision (13-4)over Jordan Petersen (126), Saturday Hermiston jumped one spot in the standings to finish in 16th place at the Liberty Invitational.

In the final day of competition, four Bulldogs placed with Aidan Villarreal having the team's best finish after earning fourth place in the 138-pound weight class.

Villarreal made it to the semifinal match before North Marion's Brandon Gibson won by a 5-3 decision to knock him into the consolation bracket.

After defeated Jack Evans of Newberg when a 7-3 decidefault in Gutierrez's final bout of the day.

CRANE — Over the weekend in Crane, Class 1A schools gathered to see which would take home the 1A Oregon State Championship.

The Echo Cougars sat atop the leaderboard, winning the championship by 4.5 points. Five Cougars finished first in their respective weight class, one in second place and the last wrestler to place claimed third.
