ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday
 •The Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested two people in connection to a report of a stolen van: Katrina Louise Coffin, 38, AKA Katrina Kunzler, of La Grande, for unauthorized use of vehicle, giving false info to law enforcement, and on a Union County warrant for a felony parole/probation violation; and Mark Christopher Duval, 52, of Irrigon, for unauthorized use of vehicle, two counts of giving false info to law enforcement, felony possession of methamphetamine, possession of oxycodone, and on warrants.
 •Oregon State Police responded to a report of a pickup with Idaho plates almost crashing into vehicles about 6:45 p.m. on the westbound side of Interstate 84 east of Pendleton. The trooper found the pickup parked a few inches off the fog line near milepost 216, according to state police, and the driver was passed out behind the steering wheel.
 The trooper knocked until Christopher Earl Dunn, 61, of Baker City, awoke. Dunn claimed he stopped to rest from exhaustion, but the trooper reported smelling alcohol from the pickup and saw Dunn looked impaired. Dun took a sobriety rest and showed more signs of impairment.
 The trooper arrested Dunn for driving under the influence of intoxicants and booked him into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton. There, Dunn also refused to give breath or urine samples and claimed he had medical issues and needed the medicine from his bag in his vehicle.
 Staff brought the medicine to the jail and called for emergency medical technicians. Dunn refused their care and an ambulance ride to the hospital and instead took his medication.
 •Umatilla Tribal Police arrested Joey Martin Helsley, 24, of Grindstone, Pennsylvania, for felony attempted to elude.
Saturday
 •Umatilla Tribal Police arrested Sarah Ann Pierre, 39, of Mission, for a felony parole violation, dangerous drugs, criminal activity in drugs, and obstructing governmental administration.
 •Oregon State Police arrested Michael Daniel Reyes, 27, of 47716 Kings Court, Salem, for unauthorized use of vehicle, false information to law enforcement, and failure to display a license.
Sunday
 •Oregon State Police arrested Seth Ryan Charette, 33, of Hermiston, for driving while suspended, driving uninsured and for failing to install an ignition interlock device. The arrest came after a trooper stopped a Jeep Grand Cherokee for a moving violation a little after 6 a.m. at Snyder Road and Highway 37 outside Pendleton and found the state labeled Charette as a habitual offender of driving with a revoked license, and Washington state also revoked or suspended his license.

OBITUARIES

Velma B. Haskins Felt

Heppner
 July 3, 1924 - January 23, 2018

Velma B. Haskins Felt, known as Granny since a very young age, passed away on Tuesday, January 23, 2018, at the age of 93.

Granny was born in Dillard, Oregon, on July 3, 1924, to Velton and Vivian Hedgepeth Haskins. She was raised in Merrill, Oregon. She had six siblings, Virginia Moore and her husband Scoot, Lee Haskins and his wife Velda, Delmer Haskins and his wife Peggy, Merle Haskins and his wife Carol, Wes Haskins and his wife Shirley, and Dale Haskins, and all preceded her in death but sisters-in-law Peggy and Velda.

Felt

She married Axel "Lucky" Felt in Reno, Nevada, on October 25, 1943. Lucky passed away on April 21, 1994, in Heppner, Oregon. During their 50 years together they resided in Grants Pass, Klamath Falls, Merrill, Redmond, Gresham, Umatilla, Hermiston and Heppner, all in Oregon, and also Jal, New Mexico.

Granny worked at Lewis's Dime Store, The Dairy Store and then wrapped meat at The Merrill Meat Company, all in Merrill. After moving to Madras, she worked at Erickson's Department Store, while in Hermiston she worked at Burnham's Department Store and the Button Hole. After moving to Heppner, she worked at The Fabric Store owned by Jerry and Joyce Holloman.

She enjoyed making and decorating cakes for all occasions, always from scratch. She was a wonderful cook with family and friends receiving "goodies" regularly.

Her joy all her life was children, from her siblings to grandkids, great-grandkids and many neighborhood children.

Granny is survived by her son Willard Felt and his wife Susan, and their children Todd, Monica and her husband Kendall, Matt and Jake; daughter Donna Osmin and her husband Al, and their children Jess Osmin and his wife Staci, and Rick Osmin and his wife Amy; 13 great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

Granny spent her last 10 years in Willow Creek Terrace Assisted Living and Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home.

A memorial service will be held at a later date when the weather is better for traveling relatives.

Memorial contributions may be made to Willow Creek Terrace, 400 Frank Gilliam Drive, Heppner, OR 97836; Pioneer Memorial Nursing Home, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, OR 97836; Shriener's Hospital for Children, 3101 S.W. Sam Jackson Park Road, Portland, OR 97239; or to your favorite charity.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements.
