Cecil C. Goodwin

Hermiston
March 1, 1921 - January 5, 2018

Cecil C. Goodwin of Hermiston, Oregon, was born on March 1, 1921, in Lyle, Washington, to parents Leta and Earl Goodwin. He passed away peacefully on January 5, 2018, in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 96 years.

Cecil was the sixth out of nine children. Because of the death of his father when Cecil was ten years old, he eventually dropped out of school to work and help support their large family. He dedicated his life to Jesus Christ as a young man and was a faithful Christian and wonderful example to all who knew him.

Cecil met Delight "Dee" Brockmeier in 1942 in Hermiston, Oregon, and after a whirlwind five-week romance they were married on March 31, 1942. They made their home in Hermiston where they raised their two daughters and served faithfully at the Hermiston Assembly of God Church. They both served in the church, Cecil as a Sunday School teacher and in the Royal Rangers as an Outpost Councilman. He was drafted into the Army following Pearl Harbor and served in Europe with the Army Air Corps.

Cecil worked for the Umatilla Army Depot as a machinist and retired in his 50s, giving him more years as a retiree than as an employee. Cecil always had projects going in his shop, and in his retirement it was not unusual for him to be doing odd jobs for people. He used his creativity in woodworking into his 90s, even entering his handmade wooden vehicles in the Umatilla County Fair. Those items will be handed down to his great-grandchildren. Cecil loved to go deer and elk hunting and whether or not a deer or elk was bagged, he came back with many stories from around the campfire.

That love of good companionship motivated him to meet friends in town for coffee on weekday mornings, a habit that he and Delight kept up for decades. Cecil was an avid reader, which broadened his knowledge on many subjects, even though he'd never finished school. He was incredibly good-natured and loved to tell a joke. He was completely devoted to Delight; in her final years he cared for her physically until her death on January 2, 2010.

He is survived by his daughters Margaret (Aaron) Wetterling, Hermiston, Ore., and Jeanne Schultz, Fairfield, Calif.; sister Dorothy Madden, Walla Walla, Wash.; grandchildren Larisa (Paul) Steele, Nolan (Maryanne) Wetterling, Cleighton (Natalie) Schultz, Annika Schultz and Spencer Schultz; great-grandchildren Karen Steele, Curtis Steele, Sabina Wetterling, Addison Wetterling, Emmaleese Wetterling, Darian Schultz, Cecilia Schultz and Coen Schultz; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Cecil was preceded in death by his wife Delight Goodwin, his parents and seven siblings.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, February 24, 2018, at 11 a.m. at the Umatilla Assembly of God Church, 710 L Street, Umatilla, Ore. Private family burial with military honors will be held at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

OBITUARIES

William Wayne Wise

Weston

November 29, 1948 - February 8, 2018

William Wayne Wise, Weston, Oregon, passed away February 8, 2018, at his home at the age of 69 years, surrounded by family as well as Lexi, his faithful dog.

Memorial services will be Saturday, February 24, 2018, at 11 a.m. at the Weston Community Church in Weston, Oregon. Memorial contributions may be made to the Weston Community Church or Walla Walla Community Hospice.

William Wayne Wise was born November 29, 1948, at The Dalles, Oregon. Wayne attended Olex Grade School in Olex, Oregon, and later attended Condon High School in Condon, Oregon, graduating in 1967. Wayne enlisted in the U.S. Army in 1969. While in the Army, Wayne served in Vietnam until 1971. After being in the Army, Wayne settled in Mikkalo, Oregon, to work on the family farm.

He married Donna Geer in 1971. That same year, a son, William C. Wise was born. Several years later, the couple divorced. Wayne married Peggy Gifford in 1979. They divorced in 1984.

Wayne met Barbara Trullinger in 1985 and they were married on October 19, 1985, in Hood River, Oregon. They lived in Mikkalo for a few years and while there, Sharon Wise was born in 1987. Later the family moved to Helix. They lived there for a few years and then moved to Weston, Oregon, where they have lived ever since.

Wayne went to Blue Mountain Community College where he earned a human services degree in 1989. He worked for a couple years at Homestead Youth Lodge in Pendleton, Oregon, and then at a home for needy adults. Later he was hired at Eastern Oregon Training Center in Pendleton in 1991 where he worked for 19 1/2 years. Wayne then proceeded to return to Blue Mountain Community College to earn a diesel mechanics degree in 2011.

Throughout the years, Wayne continued to work at his family farm during harvest as well as other times, when needed. Wayne enjoyed life. He especially enjoyed getting together as a large family group in Mikkalo to camp, picnic, laugh, and joke. He also enjoyed decorating graves on Memorial Day. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, boating, and camping as well as creating lamps on a wood lathe. Wayne also enjoyed collecting coins, especially pennies.

Wayne was preceded in death by his mother, FredaMae Schaefer Wise, in 1981, as well as his father, William V. Wise, in 2015.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara Wise, Weston, Oregon; son William C. Wise (Stacey), Coeur d'Alene, Idaho; daughter Sharon Reyes (John), Pendleton, Ore.; stepdaughter Monica Trullinger, Australia; siblings Sharla Fisher, Portland, Ore., Wesley Wise (Linda), Irrigon, Ore., Chuck Wise (Melanie), Condon, Ore., Kelly Lemay (Pat) Grants Pass, Ore., David Wise (Jeanette), Mikkalo, Ore., and Pam Morehead (Bob), Albany, Ore.; four grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Thank you to Walla Walla Community Hospice for their skill and care of Wayne.

Charlotte R. Cresswell

Portland

November 4, 1923 - February 16, 2018

Long-time Pendleton resident Charlotte Cresswell spent her last days calling friends and family, asking for their blessing on her next adventure.

Born Charlotte Helen Robertson, she lived her early years on a duck farm in Oakley, California.

Her first husband died in World War II. After the war, she married Robert Temple Cresswell and moved to his family's wheat farm northwest of Pendleton. They raised four children and a whole lot of wheat. After Bob's death, Charlotte lived in Pendleton for 17 years before moving to Portland.

Charlotte was active in school, community and church affairs with the Holy Redeemer Episcopal Church in Pendleton.

She was well known for her Round-Up luncheon following the Westward Ho! Parade each year. Following her 56 years as a loyal Pendletonian, she spent 14 happy years near her children in Portland. They were with her when she quietly passed away.

For survivors and a more complete obituary, see www.rosecityfuneral-home.com/notices/Charlotte-Cresswell.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the Pendleton Foundation Trust, 222 S.E. Dorion Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.

A celebration of life will be held at Portland's Holladay Park Plaza at 2 p.m. on February 23, 2018.
