Members of a community service crew assist with putting up fencing at Lovin' Spadefuls, in preparation for the 2017 Hermiston community garden. Seed to Supper workshops are available in preparation for this year's garden.

to start thinking about the Hermiston community garden. A recent work day was canceled due to inclement weather. People interested in the rescheduled event should contact Hankinson or look for updates on the community garden's Facebook page.

Community gardens, Hankinson said, typically run their course after several years. In its seventh year, the support of area businesses, the commitment of master gardeners and the involvement from other groups truly makes Lovin' Spadefuls a community garden, she said.

"It's really exciting," Hankinson said. "People are learning and they are eating healthy and they are saving money — all the things that we wanted to have happen.”

On-site registration for garden plots, which are $10, will be held Friday, May 4 from 5-7 p.m. and Saturday, May 5 from 9 a.m. to noon. Located at Good Shepherd Medical Center, it can be accessed on the Elm Avenue entrance to the hospital. For those unable to attend, applications can be obtained following the registration dates at Head Start.

For more information, call Hankinson at 541-571-2435 or search “Lovin’ Spadefuls” on Facebook.
